SUBSCRIBER'S : : PAPER : :

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

THIS COPY Is Non-Salable. Any person selling it is liable to prosecution.

VOL. XL.—No. 146 ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 9, 1907. —FOURTEEN PAGES. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

SLOOP KILLED BY MITCHELL BEFORE HOTEL

Shot in Breast Four Times With Forty-Eight Calibre Revolver.

SLOOP'S WIFE AT THE TIME WAS IN HOTEL DINING ROOM

It Is Claimed That Mitchell Attempted to Go Into the Ladies' Bath Room in Which Was Sloop's Wife, and Sloop Cursed Mitchell.

Rome, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Robert N. Mitchell shot and killed Joe M. Sloop tonight at 7:15 o'clock in front of the Central hotel.

It seems that there had been some trouble between Mitchell and Sloop, both of whom boarded at the Central hotel.

Mitchell, it is claimed, had persisted in using the ladies' bath room, to which Sloop objected. This morning, it is alleged, Mitchell attempted to get into the ladies' bath room while Sloops' wife was in there, and it is alleged that Sloop applied a vile epithet to any man who would do that kind of a thing.

Mitchell, it seems, had been brooding over the matter all day, and tonight he waited for Sloop to come to supper.

Shot Him Four Times.

When he saw Sloop coming he waited for him, and accosted him when he got near enough to him. He reminded Sloop of what he had said in the morning, and called him a vile name three times, and then shot him in the breast four times with a 48 caliber revolver.

Sloop died almost immediately and was carried into the Central hotel, and afterwards moved to the undertaking establishment of Harvey & Best.

Wife in Dining Room.

Sloop's wife was in the dining room of the Central hotel, and started to the front, but was prevented and taken back to her room by friends.

Mitchell is a musician and was leader of the orchestra all last summer at the DeSoto park, and is now leader of the orchestra at the Rome opera house.

Sloop was a cigarmaker in the cigar factory of Thomas Waters, and was a quiet, inoffensive man.

The friends of Sloop were very indignant over the killing and expressed themselves quite freely on the subject, and a good many threats were made against Mitchell.

Mitchell Makes Statement.

Upon being seen at the jail and asked for a statement, Mitchell said: "What Sloop said this morning made me so mad, I have been studying over it all day, and tonight as I was on the way to the band room with my cornet in my hand I met Sloop. I said, 'You take that back right now or I will kill you,' and Sloop repeated the epithet and said, 'I will take nothing back,' and then I let him have it."

The killing has created a great sensation in Rome and great crowds gathered around the Central hotel discussing it.

Mitchell Sent to Atlanta.

The talk in regard to the killing of Sloop finally grew so threatening that tonight, in order to avoid any trouble, Robert Mitchell was sent to Atlanta for safe keeping.

Mitchell Brought to Atlanta.

In order to protect Mitchell from any possible violence he was brought to Atlanta last night on the Southern railway train, which should arrive in the city at 12:10 o'clock. The train was late however and Mitchell, in the charge of a deputy sheriff did not reach the Fulton county jail until some time after 1 o'clock this morning. The prisoner refused to talk of the killing.

$4.000 VERDICT GIVEN ROSS

He Was Suing M. & B. Railway for $25,000 for Injuries.

Yatesville, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—News from Thomasville this morning stated that Tom Ross, of Yatesville, who was suing the Macon and Brunswick Railway Company for $25,000, for injuries received while crossing the tracks of that company last December, was given a verdict of $4,000.

Colonel Robert L. Berner, of Atlanta, and Colonel Will Allen, of Thomaston, represented the plaintiff, and Colonel Ben Tisinger, of Thomaston, the railway.

Costly Drive for Negroes.

Macon, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—John Redd and Dan Williams, two negroes, who were accused of driving the horse of Dr. O. C. Gibson last night without the owner's consent, were committed to the city court this morning before Recorder Cabaniss, the one in default of bond of $200 and the other $300. The negroes were celebrating and took in the colored state fair with the fine horse and buggy when the physician bestirred himself, thinking the team was stolen.

Charter Was Granted New Concern.

Macon, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The firm of Beddingfield, Fleischer & Lipford was granted a charter in the superior court this morning. The new business will be capitalized at $15,000 and will engage in the manufacture of soft drinks.

PEOPLE FIGHT TO HEAR THE DRUCE TRIAL

Famous Mystery Case Develops Some Very Sensational Testimony.

TRIAL HINGES ON CASE OF QUEER PERSONALITY

Were the Duke of Portland and Druce One and the Same Person? Is the Question That Is to Be Decided by the Courts.

London, November 8.—Hundreds of people vainly fought for admittance to the Marylebone police court today when the hearing of the famous Druce mystery case was resumed. Herbert Druce, son of the late Thos. Charles Druce, is charged with perjury by his nephew, George Hollamby Druce. The charge is incidental to the Druce claim to the estates of the Duke of Portland, and dates back to 1893. At every step the case has been vigorously contested by the present Duke of Portland. In brief this remarkable case centers about the old question whether Thos. Charles Druce, at one time the owner of the famous Baker Street Bazar, who was said to have died forty-three years ago, was or was not the Duke of Portland, who died in 1879.

Interest in the proceedings today was heightened by the alleged theft since the previous session of the diary of Miss Robinson, the daughter of a southern tobacco planter, who was employed as an amanuensis in the Baker street bazar, and who says she frequently went to Welbeck Abbey, the Portland seat, where she saw the late T. C. Druce, father of the late George Druce, who in turn was father of George Hollamby Druce, the claimant to the estates as the Duke of Portland, whose identity with T. C. Druce she claimed to be able to establish.

Caldwell Gives Testimony.

Robert Caldwell, of Richmond, Staten Island, New York, testified that he knew the late Duke of Portland both as the duke and as T. C. Druce, at Welbeck Abbey and at the Baker street bazar. Mr. Caldwell added that he treated the duke at both places for a disease of the nose. There was a buzz of excitement when Mr. Caldwell swore that in connection with the duke he arranged the death and mock burial of "Druce" so that his dual personality could finally be buried. The witness further testified that he saw the duke on the morning of the "funeral" at the BaBker street bazar.

A day or two later he asked the Duke of Portland if the so-called Druce had left a will. The duke thanked Caldwell for reminding him of such an important point and said he must have one made. Crossexamined by Mr. Avory, Caldwell admitted he had been described as the "great American affidavit maker," but he added that it was not justified.

One of the strangest features of the case is that about the middle of June, 1906, workmen who were tearing down Harcourt house on Cavendish Square, London, previously one of the residences of the dukes of Portland, discovered an underground passage leading from the house to the Baker street structure, in which the famous bazar had previously been and which was conducted by Thomas Charles Druce.

The claimant declares that the duke while living his double life, used the underground passage referred to for the purpose of getting from Harcourt house to the place of business of "Druce." A Mrs. Margaret Hamilton has testified that she knew the fifth duke both as Mr. Druce and as the Duke of Portland, and that she was aware of the fact that he had married Elizabeth Crickmer, the grandmother of the present claimant.

The original action in the case was brought to eject Lord Howard De Walden from the London property which his father inherited from the fifth duke of Portland through the supposed failure of the direct line.

The income of the Duke of Portland's estates is estimated at not less than $1,500,000 a year.

ARMED NEGRO FORCED FARMER TO LEAVE WAGON

Negro Highwayman Had Razor in One Hand and Pistol in the Other.

Rome, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Tom Latham, a young white man, was held up yesterday afternoon late by a negro near Mobley park, and forced to leave the wagon in which he was riding to avoid being attacked, and perhaps killed by the negro, who had a pistol drawn on him.

Mr. Latham is a farmer of Foster's Mill district, and was on his way to the city with a bale of cotton, when the negro stepped in front of his wagon with a razor in one hand and a pistol in the other, and called on him to halt.

Mr. Latham tried to pull off the handle of his brake with which to defend himself, but, failing in this, he jumped off the wagon and ran to a store a short distance off and attempted to borrow a pistol, but failed. He then telephoned to the sheriff to come out, and Deputy Sheriff Sharpe immediately caught a car and came out, but on his arrival found that the negro had taken to the woods.

A thorough search was made, but no trace of the negro could be found. The officers are still searching for him today, and the probabilities are that he will be arrested.

Fire Loss of $40,000.

Louisville, Ky., November 8.—Fire at Corbin, Ky., today caused a loss of $40,000 in the business section.

WESTWARD MARCH OF PLAGUE: PESTILENCE REACHES ADEN

The funeral of a young Somali woman, a victim of the plague at Aden. Owing to its climate Aden is peculiarly liable to outbreaks of epidemic diseases, and plague is always lurking there. At the present moment the deaths amount to about fifteen a day. The picture shows the funeral of a Somali girl. The open coffin, ornamented with shells, was borne by relations and friends of the dead. Without order, without apparent sadness, and chanting strange dirges, the mourners passed through streets crowded with the strangely mixed population of Aden—Arabs, Somalis, Jews, Parsees and many other races, who showed the indifference of fatalists to the terror that walked in their midst.

NEW YORK BANKS WORK BRAVELY TO MEET DEMAND

Large Amount of Currency Is Shipped to Southern Cities.

COTTON MOVEMENT HAS BEEN CHECKED

New York Situation Has Completely Convulsed the Money Markets of Europe, and Discounts Have Been Forced Higher Than in Many Years.

New York, November 8.—The leading New York banks were exerting themselves actively today to meet the demands of their country correspondents and depositors for currency. They declare that the suggestions made from several western sources that they are not meeting legitimate demands are unfounded and that they are, on the contrary, taking every practicable measure to aid the west and south. One of these large banks, with several thousand correspondents, has depleted its reserves by about a quarter during the last few weeks to supply currency where it is most needed and has made large shipments to banks in San Antonio, Galveston, Memphis, Mobile, Atlanta and other southern points.

The country banks have been allowed to draw down their balances to a point which affords, in many cases, hardly more than enough to meet the drafts sold in the ordinary course of business. They have brought paper for rediscount to their New York correspondents in large amounts and the principal difficulty of the New York banks has come from the demand for currency to be shipped against the balance created by these rediscounts.

Favors for Interior Banks.

As these rediscounts have been accommodations and have not brought a cent of currency to the discounting banks, they do not feel that they should be called on to supply the currency in small amounts under such conditions. It is not usual except in special cases to ship all that is asked, but about one-half is usually shipped, the proportion varying according to the cash strength of the bank calling for coin or as the demand is for legitimate purposes. Special favor is shown to the small interior banks where there is no clearing house, because it is realized that they are not in a position to count upon cooperation and the use of clearing house certificates, as in the case of communities having a number of strong institutions.

Cotton Movement Checked.

It is admitted that the cotton movement is seriously checked by the lack of small bills and silver to pay the small growers and by the inability of the southern banks to handle the immense volume of business accumulating at southern points. The grain shipments are in better shape, owing to the gold secured by the banks of Minneapolis and St. Paul and arrangements for paying cash in New York on grain bills. The New York banks feel bound to retain a certain proportion of reserve to guard against possible contingency, because they fulfill in substance the function

Continued on Page Two.

NOTED BURGLAR TELLS OF BIG DIAMOND THEFT AT MAJESTIC YEARS AGO

C. H. Grizzard Confesses to Many Burglaries in the Last Ten Years.

LIFE SENTENCE SURE SAY THE DETECTIVES

Detectives Arrest C. H. Grizzard on the Charge of Stealing Articles From Rooms in the Different Hotels of the City.

After more than ten years of successful crime, during which time he committed many robberies which baffled the police and detectives of the city and state, C. H. Grizzard, alias C. H. Mason alias C. H. Wilson alias C. H. Avery alias C. H. Garner was arrested by Detectives Simpson and Campbell Thursday night and yesterday confessed to the many crimes of his long career.

The detective department stated yesterday afternoon that they have ample evidence in their possession to convict Grizzard in a score of cases and that there is no way by which he may escape lifetime imprisonment on the various charges.

Grizzard was arrested by Detectives Campbell and Simpson Thursday night, it being suspected that he was the man who had pawned articles of value stolen from the hotels and boarding houses of the city during the past month, as he filled the description given by several pawn brokers.

Grizzard at first denied all knowledge of the thefts and indignantly resented his detention. Yesterday, however, while under examination by the detectives and confronted by several pawnbrokers who positively identified him, he confessed to all the thefts and robberies committed during the past month at the hotels and boarding houses of the city.

He also finally confessed to the Majestic hotel diamond robbery committed six years ago, at which time diamonds to the amount of several thousand dollars were lost, none of which were ever recovered.

Some days ago jewelry to the amount of more than $1,000 belonging to Mrs. C. R. Dyer was stolen from her home at 428 Peachtree. A pearl sunburst valued at $200 was pawned with Shaul & May for eight dollars, while the diamond brooch stolen at the same time was pawned with Nat Kiser for six dollars, its actual value being about $200. The matter was promptly reported to the detectives by the brokers and this led to Grizzard's arrest after a diligent search for a man who would fill the description.

Grizzard admitted this theft. He said that he had pawned the pearl sunburst and diamond brooch, but had been afraid to offer the handsome gold purse valued at $150 and the amethyst necklace and had carried them to the top floor of the Austell building and from there had thrown them onto the top of the Beck & Gregg hardware store. The detectives will search the roof for these articles this morning.

Grizzard is a man of pleasing address and good appearance. He was reared in Atlanta, but has only been in the city for short periods during the past years. He stated that his game, which he had until recently practiced in many cities of the country, had been to register as a guest and apparently accidently enter a room. If the room happened to be occupied an apology would be made for the intrusion, but if there was nobody in any article of value would be lifted. In this manner the Kimball, Aragon, Fairfax, Atlanta, Cooledge and other hotels had been victimized.

At the hearing before Judge Broyles yesterday afternoon Grizzard was bound over to the superior court in five cases, bond being fixed at $5,000. Other cases will be entered later. Grizzard is now a prisoner at the Tower.

KILLED WIFE FOR INFIDELITY

Child Found Mother With Her Head Almost Severed.

HUSBAND EXPLAINS DEED

Says He Found a Man in Her Room the Second Time, and He Could Not Longer Condone the Offense.

Houston, Tex., November 8.—Searching the house for a misplaced plaything, the 8-year-old daughter of Matthew W. Anderson, a railroad clerk, found the dead body of her mother in the kitchen of their home in Houston Heights early today, her head almost completely severed from the body, the woman having met death at the hands of her husband.

The unsigned note from the husband declares that returning home at an earlier hour than usual today, he found another man in his home, and this being the second such occurrence, "I felt obliged to wreak vengeance on my only love. She wanted to be buried in Queen City, Tex."

Anderson, who has disappeared, declares he will surrender if not found too soon.

THE COFFEE COUNTY FAIR

Fair Has Been in Progress All the Week.

Douglas, Ga., November 8.—(Special.) The Coffee county fair has been in progress all the week. The weather has been ideal, the agricultural exhibit good, amusements excellent, crowds large and the interest well sustained.

The ladies especially deserve credit for the splendid display of needlework, fruits, flowers and other attractive accessories of the home.

There were some fine samples of china painting and other decorative art, the product of home talent. The exhibit on the part of the school was fine.

Each day the managers sought to keep up the interest by interspersing trotting and running races, which proved to be very popular.

The fair association has achieved a great success and is to be congratulated.

BEARD KILLED BY TRAIN.

Sheriff of Amherst County Sustains Fatal Injuries on the Southern.

Danville, Va., November 8.—Sheriff John H. Beard, of Amherst county, Virginia, was run over by a Southern railway train in front of the passenger station here early tonight, sustaining injuries from which he died several hours later. Both of his legs were cut off at the knee. He was attempting to board a moving northbound train. He was about 55 years of age, and his daughter, Mrs. N. G. Perkins, of Sanford, Fla., was at the station at the time of the tragedy.

BY OVER HOUR THE LUSITANIA BREAKS RECORD

Loaded With Gold, She Strained Every Bolt and Rib in Her Mighty Frame.

BROUGHT $12,000,000 FOR AMERICA'S RELIEF

Utmost Care Was Taken in the Unloading of the Precious Metal. Many Secret Service Men Were on Hand at the Docks.

New York, November 8.—The marvelous record established less than a month ago by the giant turbine Cunarder Lusitania when she out several hours from the passage time across the Atlanta, already has been broken.

The Lusitania still retains the title of queen of the seas, as it was she herself that established the new low mark and incidentally she added several new records to her credit. These include the best single day's run—618 knots, made November 6—an average of more than 600 knots for every full day and an average hourly speed of 24.25 knots for the fully 2,781 miles.

On her last voyage the Lusitania covered the distance in four days, nineteen hours and fifty-two minutes. The voyage ended today, over the same course, was completed in four days, eighteen hours and forty minutes, thus clipping one hour and twelve minutes from the previous low mark. And this was done in the face of conditions none too favorable. From the start the weather was stormy and on the last two days when the big steamer was on the home stretch, where the greatest burst of speed might have been expected, she drove straight into the teeth of a strong wind, high, confused seas and occasional sharp squalls. The day's runs for the voyage were 21, 606, 616, 618, 610 and 310 knots.

In the Lusitania's big vaults was stored nearly $12,000,000 in gold, more than a quarter of the immense total which had been engaged abroad by American bankers since the present almost unprecedented movement began. This gold will be transferred from the steamer to the consignees and then added to the country's available circulation of currency.

Money Closely Guarded.

As soon as the big ship was warped into her dock, preparations were made for discharging the twenty-four tons of golden treasure in her specie room. The work was under the personal supervision of Vernon H. Brown, general agent of the Cunard line. Longshoremen were soon at work carrying the small but heavy steel-bound wooden cases, of which there were 334, ashore.

Purser Lancaster checked each box as it was brought down the gangplank. Plain clothes men and policemen were on guard, and a portable wooden fence placed across the end of the dock where the gold was being handled, served to keep back the curious.

Negro Fights Requisition.

Washington, November 8.—The appeal of Albert Marbles, who seeks to evade requisition from St. Louis, Mo., to Vicksburg, Miss., on the charge of assault with intent to kill, was filed in the supreme court of the United States today. Marbles is a negro. He sets forth that on account of the prejudice against his race he is liable to be killed upon arrival in Vicksburg.

STRIKE IS OFF; TELEGRAPHERS ASK FOR WORK

Local Sixty Votes to Follow the Recommendation from Chicago Office.

NOT MANY VACANCIES IN ATLANTA OFFICES

Two Hundred Operators Quit Keys August 11—Postal Now Has Full Force, Associated Press Is Supplied and Western Union Has Twelve Vacancies.

DATA OF THE STRIKE.

Commercial telegraphers of country left their keys August 11, 200 operators walking out in and near Atlanta.

Strikers quit work in order to secure from companies eight-hour day, 15 per cent increase in pay, and provision making companies furnish typewriters.

In Atlanta some operators returned to keys before strike was called off, some secured other positions, some left Atlanta.

Result: Strike called off November 8, on recommendations from Chicago; 150 operators in Atlanta to apply for vacancies. Postal company reports full force; Associated Press supplied, and Western Union just twelve vacancies.

The telegraphers' local union in Atlanta met yesterday afternoon and declared the strike off. This means that some 150 operators will go back to work if they can find positions open.

The Western Union manager states that there are only twelve places to be filled in his office in the city. The Postal company says it has no vacancies at all.

The strike went into effect on Sunday, August 11, almost three months ago, and after being out of work that length of time the men have now decided that they are ready to return to work.

The telegraph companies say that during the strike they have filled nearly all the places left vacant when the strikers went out, so that now there are few vacancies.

Of the 200 who struck, some thirty have secured positions in railroad offices and a few have left the city. There are possibly about 150 who will seek reinstatement.

Carried Out Recommendations.

The meeting held yesterday afternoon was very quiet, the members simply voting to carry out certain recommendations which they had received.

At a convention in Milwaukee a committee of nine telegraphers was appointed to confer with the telegraph companies. Three were to see the Western Union officials, three the Postal officials and three the officers of the Associated Press. The officials refused to see the committees or to hold any conference with them. The committees returned to Chicago and reported the failure of their mission.

On Thursday a report from Chicago was mailed to all the local unions, with the recommendation that the

THE WEATHER.

Washington, November 8.—Forecast for Saturday and Sunday:

Georgia—Fair Saturday and Sunday; light winds, mostly south.

Lowest temperature	50
Highest temperature	70
Mean temperature	60
Normal temperature	64
Rainfall in 24 hours	.00
Deficiency since first of month	.07
Deficiency since January 1st	14.12

Reports From Various Stations.

Stations and State of Weather.	Temperature 7 p. m.	Temperature High	Rain. 12 hours inches.
Atlanta, clear	64	70	.00
Abilene, pt. cloudy	58	64	.00
Augusta, clear	64	74	.00
Boston, clear	50	54	.00
Buffalo, cloudy	44	48	T.
Baltimore, rain	46	50	.01
Charleston, clear	62	76	.00
Charlotte, clear	60	70	.00
Chattanooga, clear	66	72	.00
Chicago, clear	44	48	.00
Cincinnati, clear	54	64	.00
Corpus Christi, clear	74	78	.00
Detroit, clear	44	50	.00
Dodge City, clear	50	58	.00
Galveston, clear	70	78	.00
Huron, clear	48	58	.00
Jacksonville, clear	66	76	.00
Jupiter, pt. cloudy	72	76	.00
Kansas City, clear	50	56	.00
Key West, clear	70	78	.00
Knoxville, clear	64	68	.00
Los Angeles, cloudy	68	72	.00
Memphis, clear	70	74	.00
Mobile, clear	68	74	.00
Montgomery, clear	68	76	.00
New Orleans, clear	70	80	.00
New York, rain	46	52	.01
North Platte, clear	50	62	.00
Norfolk, clear	56	66	.00
Omaha, clear	46	52	.00
Palestine, cloudy	70	78	T.
Portland, Me., cloudy	46	52	.00
Raleigh, clear	58	70	.00
Rapid City, clear	46	56	.00
Savannah, clear	62	76	.00
San Francisco, clear	70	78	.00
Seattle, clear	48	52	.00
St. Louis, pt. cloudy	50	54	.00
St. Paul, clear	42	46	.00
Tampa, clear	66	76	.00
Thomasville, clear	60	78	.00
Vicksburg, clear	70	78	.00
Wilmington, clear	60	68	.00

T indicates inappreciable rainfall.

J. B. MARBURY, Section Director.

Try them for lunch and you will have them for dinner.

Uneeda Biscuit

The most nutritious staple made from wheat.

5¢ In moisture and dust proof packages.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

locals declare the strike off so that the men could return to work.

The men will not apply for work in a body, but will go one or two at a time. They have been advised to have no trouble with the men already at work, and to show by their efficiency and faithfulness to duty what good work they are capable of. It is believed these instructions will be obeyed.

Cause of the Strike.

The strike was the result of some trouble between a telegraph company and an operator, the union asking the reinstatement of the man. The telegraphers did not act with undue haste, but investigations were made by the locals before any definite action was taken. With them it was simply a matter of principle, they declared, and they believed unless some action was taken a blow would be struck the union which was not fair and just. The strikers also wanted an eight-hour day, 15 per cent increase in pay and the companies to furnish typewriters.

In Atlanta the telegraphers walked out on a Sunday afternoon, many carrying their typewriting machines with them. For a time they received financial aid from headquarters of the union. Then came an order from President Small, the head officer of the union, declaring the strike off because of financial reasons. Small was denounced and efforts made to remove him from office. He declared that he was doing what was best for the strikers.

The telegraphers hope in time to be all reinstated.

Memphis Operators Go Back.

Memphis, Tenn., November 8.—The Telegraphers Union here voted today to "suspend" the strike.

Strike Declared Off.

Washington, November 8.—An order declaring off the strike of commercial telegraph operators in this city was issued tonight by President A. S. Groves of Washington local No. 24.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

SERIES OF LECTURES BY DR. SMITH BAKER

Rev. Smith Baker, D.D., of Portland, Maine, who is, at present, supplying the pulpit of the Central Congregational church, corner Ellis street and Carnegie pace, will on Sunday evening deliver the first of a series of lectures to young people.

The subject of this lecture will be, "The Stupid or Ambitious Young Man. Which?" and it will be followed on succeeding Sunday evenings by "The Young Woman as Daughter and Sister," "The Foolish and Disgusting Young Man," "The Young Woman as Lover and Wife," "The Useless and the Useful Young Man," and "The Selfish and the Helpful Young Woman."

Dr. Baker is one of the most noted pulpit orators in the country and is said to be particularly pleasing and instructive in this series of lectures.

The public, and particularly the younger portion of it, is invited to attend these lectures. The services begin at 7:45 p. m., and special music is rendered by an excellent choir.

Horgan Defeats Hewston.

St. Louis, November 8.—John G. Horgan defeated Thomas A. Heuston in tonight's game of the national three-cushion billiard tourney, 50 to 47. Horgan's high run was 5, average .87; Heuston's high run was 4, average .86. This afternoon Jesse Lean defeated Frank Day 5 0to 35.

RUSSIANS ARE ANXIOUS TO AID UNITED STATES

St. Petersburg, November 8.—The talk of the possibility of a war between the United States and Japan, which throughout has been taken seriously in Russia, is bringing many volunteers to the American embassy, who say they are anxious to serve in the United States army in case of hostilities. A report is also circulating in military circles here that the American army in the Philippines needs instructors, especially for the artillery and engineer corps. Five or six Russian officers of these branches of the service apply daily at the embassy for commissions, and are disappointed by the assurances that there is no likelihood of Japan and the United States going to war.

KAISER WILL SEE BILL WHEN TAFT IS IN GERMANY

Berlin, November 8.—Emperor William will see Secretary Taft on the Isle of Wight, during the former's visit to England. A message conveying this information was sent through the German embassy at Washington, it being understood that Mr. Taft has finally decided to return to the United States by way of Europe. It is regarded as likely that Mr. Taft also will seek an audience of King Edward, as for the American secretary of war to visit the German emperor on British soil without paying equivalent respect to the king might be regarded as discourteous.

So much has been said about Mr. Taft planning to see the emperor that some of the other governments have seemingly become curious in regard to whether anything is intended by the step taken by the American government. Ambassadors Bryce and Jusserand, it is asserted here, already have made inquiries on the subject at the state department at Washington, and it is further asserted that there is a feeling at the foreign offices of London and Paris that Mr. Taft would be slighting King Edward and President Fallieres if he did not ask to see them on his way home, or if he stopped only at St. Petersburg and Berlin while on his way back to the United States.

Washington Doubts the Visit.

Washington, November 8.—So much has come from foreign capitals concerning Secretary Taft's tour of the world that officials of the war and state departments are becoming confused concerning the schedule. It is not believed, however, that the secretary of war has sought an interview with any European ruler. It was stated officially and reiterated that Mr. Taft is not on a diplomatic mission to Europe and has no official business to transact for the United States at any European capital.

The itinerary for the trip was arranged before Secretary Taft left Washington and so far as is known in either the state or war departments the only change that has been made is the delay of one week at Manilla and the consequent delay of the same length of time at other points where he originally intended to stop. Before he left Washington, the secretary had been invited to stop at St. Petersburg and Berlin to meet the czar of Russia and the emperor of Germany. No other invitations had at that time been received. The large amount of business which demanded the secretary's long stay in Manila and the press of business which awaits him in Washington, raises grave doubts in the minds of officials here whether he will have time in Europe to meet any of the sovereigns. If it were possible for him to meet Emperor William at Berlin, it is believed the secretary would stop. As pointed out by the Berlin despatch, however, there is danger of European sovereigns feeling that they had been slighted if the secretary should discriminate in favor of any of the capitals.

There is no disguising the fact that officials of the state department would prefer that Secretary Taft's trip through Europe should be made without him engaging in any court functions. There is no disposition on the part of President Roosevelt or Secretary Root, according to information obtainable on this subject, to interfere in any manner with Mr. Taft's wishes, but it is felt that he cannot visit one court and not others without jeopardizing the friendship of the United States with those governments. As he cannot see them all it is believed here that he will not visit any, unless it is the czar of Russia.

IKE'S HUNT FOR A DOCTOR AT NIGHT WITH A SACK

At 2 o'clock in the morning, Ike Tompkins, an old darkey who lives at 49 Daniel street, was found by Patrolmen Barton and Hannah opposite the wood and coal yard of Carroll & Hunter, on Decatur street.

Ike had a large crocus sack swung over his shoulder, and he was standing dangerously near a place where the wood and coal yard could be entered through a hole in the fence. The policemen had been requested to keep an eye on the yard because of recent stealings, and that was why they caught Ike.

"Hello, nigger," remarked one of the policemen. "What you doing out at this time of the night?"

Ike tried to hide his crocus sack, and muttered:

"Gwine atter de doctor."

"Who's sick?"

"I jes' done lef' mer wife at home berry sick, an' she sont me atter de doctor ter git her some med'sin."

"What are you going to do with that sack?"

"I foun' hit in de street atter I lef' home."

The officers sent Ike to the police barracks for being a suspicious character, and then went to his home to make some investigations. They found Ike's wife perfectly well, and when she was asked where her husband was she replied that she did not know, as he was in bed by her side when she went to sleep. The officers found a lot of wood in the house which corresponded exactly to some that was in the yard of Carroll & Hunter.

Ike was arraigned in the recorder's court yesterday morning, and when the story of his midnight hunt for a doctor near a wood and coal yard was told, the recorder remarked:

"I suppose you had that sack, Ike, to carry the medicine in; or maybe you had it to tote the doctor in. Bagging a doctor at midnight would be a novel game."

Ike was fined $5.75, and not having the money, he was sent to the city chaingang for eleven days. At his special request he was allowed to carry his sack with him.

Very Strong Ones.

(From The Baltimore American.)

"Have you any grounds for your real estate boom theory?"

"I have my own I want to sell."

RAILROAD MEN ARE GIVEN TIME

Though Senator Lusk Opposed Showing Smith Any Courtesy.

PROHIS WIN IN COMMITTEE

House Committee of Alabama Legislature Reports Favorably the Bill to Make Prohibition Constitutional — Motion to Adjourn Defeated.

Montgomery, Ala., November 8.—Over the protest of Senator John Lusk, the senate committee on commerce and common carriers voted today to give the railroads as much time as they like to discuss bills that are up for passage for the control of the lines in the state.

Mr. Lusk said that as President Smith, of the Louisville and Nashville, had tried in every way to discredit the session, the governor and the state administration, he did not think any courtesy was due him. However, he was in the minority.

Chairman Overton announced that the traffic men would be given all the time necessary. Sidney J. Bowie, former congressman, appeared for the Louisville and Nashville. President Smith was also at the capitol. Joint sessions of the two committees have arranged to begin the hearings tomorrow morning.

Railroad Bills Introduced.

Railroad bills introduced in the legislature today provide for reclassifying the railroads, fixing the rates on something over one hundred commodities flat and abolishing the principle of classification of commodities for the sake of simplicity.

The effect of the bills if passed will be to vitiate other bills, provide penalties for putting off passengers who offer statutory rates and for refusing to accept rates prescribed for freight.

Constitutional Prohibition.

The house committee reported favorably on the bill to make prohibition constitutional, though Mr. Goodwyn protested that snap judgment had been taken on those members of the committee which had not been specially in favor of the idea. The bill provides for a vote at the next general assembly on an amendment.

Speaker Carmichael has a bill to give the governor the power to punish violators of the prohibition laws, and to prevent the sale of liquors in clubs if the state should become prohibition.

The cotton seed meal law was the subject of a senate bill, it being desired to make seven and a half per cent ammonia standard, seven common and below that low grade. All can be sold for fertilizer if tagged with the amount of ammonia.

Refused to Adjourn.

Mr. Spraggins, in the senate, offered a resolution to adjourn after today to the first of February, in view of the financial flurry. He did not think Alabama legislation had anything to do with it, but thought it would be well to take the recess until the business world gets back to normal. It was overwhelmingly voted down.

A long petition for state prohibition was received from Bullock county where an injunction on the part of the whisky men delayed a vote on the prohibition question.

Negro Question.

The negro question, ever present in the state, is about to be the cause of the repeal of the act to prevent trial of children under fourteen in the courts. It is said that in the black belt the negroes are becoming unbearable and that boys of twelve and over are being used by parents to steal and break the laws.

Many Indictments Returned.

Macon, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—At today's session of the Bibb county grand jury a large number of indictments were found. There were more on this occasion than on any former day of the session of the body, and the indications are that the members of the jury will push their work to a hard finish. The jury will not be in session tomorrow, and the committees who will have the various duties assigned will be sent to work later.

AMERICAN NEGRO DEFENDS THE FLAG.

Manila, November 8.—A Japanese and an American negro had a fight at Olanbapo over the right of the Japanese to place his national flag higher than the American ensign on the birthday of the emperor of Japan. The negro was arrested and the Japanese was sent to the hospital.

WORLD'S QUEEREST FREAK DIES IN POVERTY.

Norwalk, Conn., November 8.—John Harding, to whom P. T. Barnum offered $800 a week to exhibit himself, is dead here. Harding's pride would never permit him to place himself on show, and so while he might have amassed a considerable fortune, he did poor. Harding was 43 years old, but he was no bigger than a normal 2-year-old baby. His arms and legs were gnarled and twisted, and from the moment of his birth they were in unceasing motion.

A DIVERTING NOVEL

When Kings Go Forth to Battle

By William Wallace Whitelock

An exciting and highly dramatic story of intrigue, conspiracy, rebellion, and fierce fighting, with numerous striking and strongly outlined characters in an engrossing setting of faithful and warlike adventures.

Illustrated in Color

AT ALL BOOK-STORES

J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO. Philadelphia

Catarrh

One of the most common of blood diseases, is much aggravated by the sudden changes of weather at this time of year. Begin treatment at once with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which effects radical and permanent cures. This great medicine has received in two years, which prove its wonderful efficacy in purifying and enriching the blood. Best for all blood diseases.

40,366 Testimonials

In usual liquid form or chocolated tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1.

NEW YORK BANKS WORK BRAVELY

Continued From Page One.

which is fulfilled in London by the Bank of England and in Paris by the Bank of France, as the ultimate resources in emergency.

The gold that is being rendered to the situation is indicated by the fact that the total engagements of gold have now reached $40,000,000. The total was materially increased today by the announcement of several purchases which had not heretofore been made public. Of the amount engaged, $21,311,000 has already arrived, including $12,361,150 brought by the Lusitania this morning. This gold will afford the basis of nearly $200,000,000 in loans and will materially assist the New York banks' efforts to meet the pressure for currency.

The fact that practically $60,000,000 in currency disappeared from the New York banks within a week, as indicated by the last bank statement is considered sufficient evidence that New York is doing its best. The total drain of last week is computed upon the basis of an actual loss in cash of about $30,000,000 in face of the fact that $50,000,000 of public money had been poured into the New York banks. It is not possible to determine what proportion of this $60,000,000 went west and what proportion went into hoards in New York. It is estimated in some quarters that about half of the amount was shipped to western banks but other banks put the proportion somewhat lower.

Discounts Forced Higher.

A prominent bank official today said that the New York situation had convulsed all the principal money markets of Europe and forced their discount rates to points higher than they have reached in a generation in order to obtain gold to sustain credit in this country.

The treasury has nominally an available cash balance of about $17,000,000 but this does not indicate the actual cash in the general treasury fund.

The amount of cash on hand yesterday was $119,233,639, but against this are charged a number of demand liabilities like outstanding checks, the national bank note redemption fund and balances of disbursing officers. The latter item alone stood for $68,206,397, but it has been materially reduced by skillful bookkeeping at the treasury in order to release cash without creating an apartment deficit.

One of the measures which has been a subject of some consolation between Secretary Cortelyou and leading bankers here has been the sale of a block of Panama Construction bonds.

The manner in which this would benefit the market would be by enabling bonds to be used as a basis for national bank note circulation, Several steps are required, however, which depart a little from usual treasury practice.

Whether relief could be obtained with sufficient promptness to justify all the steps involved in this process is a matter which has not been fully decided upon at the treasury department.

WORK GREATLY CONGESTED

Handling of Securities Gives Treasury Department Extra Work.

Washington, November 8.—There is a noticeable congestion in the treasury department in handling of securities offered by banks in substitution for government bonds now being deposited as security for additional circulation. The correspondence on the subject is almost unprecedented and although the officials apply themselves unremittingly to the work until late at night, the volume of work increases rather than diminishes. The amount of additional national bank notes being shipped is daily increasing and the treasury officials are greatly encouraged in the belief that the crisis in the money stringency has passed and that a gradual relaxation in the tension that has existed three weeks may confidently be expected.

Engages $200,000 in Gold.

Portland, Ore., November 8.—The First National bank, of this city, yesterday engaged $200,000 in gold in London. This makes nearly $1,000,000 that this bank has secured within the past few days.

Teutonic Brings Gold.

New York, November 8.—The White Star liner Teutonic, which got in yesterday from Southampton, had in her strong room $1,600,000 in gold coin and bars for New York and Canadian banks.

Gold Comes From Mexico.

New York, November 8.—One million dollars in gold imported by Lazard Freres, from Mexico, reached this city today making the total so far reported $49,250,000.

SOLD BRASS FOR GOLD.

Hirschfield Took Advantage of the Flurry in Gold.

New York, November 8.—Influenced by the premium on gold, Samuel Hirschfield entered the financial district today and, according to the allegations which later led to his arrest, disposed of a bag of brass filings for $1,000. The purchaser was Reuben Ritzele, who subscribed himself as a broker, and, until his awakening today, a friend of Hirschfield. The latter was held in $3,000 bail.

Will Recommend Dividends.

New York, November 8.—It was learned today that the directors of the American Steel Foundry Company will recommend to the stockholders at the next meeting that 4 per cent debentures, payable in fifteen years with a cash dividend of 3 per cent at the end of the first six months, be given for the accumulated dividends on preferred stock amounting to $20 per share. Both proposed distributions are to be made on condition that the holders of the preferred stock exchange their present holdings for a like amount of new noncumulative preferred stock.

$200,000 Fire Loss.

Muncie, Ind., November 8.—A four-story brick building occupied by Joseph Goddard, a wholesale grocer, burned today. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

TAFT IS GIVEN ROYAL FAREWELL

Brilliant Reception Is Tendered Him by Gov. Gen. Smith.

CALLS GOMEZ A GOOD FRIEND

Protests Against Seating the Well-Known Agitator Seem to Be of No Avail, as He Will Have Little or No Opposition.

Manila, November 8.—A brilliant farewell reception was given to Secretary Taft tonight at the residence of Governor General Smith. It was characterized by extreme democracy, representatives of nearly every class of residents of Manila being present. Secretary Taft and wife were greeted practically by every one in attendance.

The secretary's last day in Manila was marked by many busy features. He received and conferred with many prominent Filipinos, heads of bureaus, members of committees, business men and delegations from various provinces and cities. He told one delegation which was petitioning for free trade of sugar and tobacco to send representative men as delegates to Wasnington to help the fight in congress to secure tariff concessions. After a conference with General Gomez regarding political matters, he referred to that well-known agitator as a good friend.

The indications are that the protests against seating Gomez will be of no avail, as a canvass of the assembly has disclosed the fact that only two members are opposed to giving him the seat to which he was elected.

DIVIDEND IS DEFERRED.

North American Company Acts in View of Financial Situation.

New York, November 8.—The board of directors of the North American company, in view of the disturbed financial conditions now prevailing have decided to defer the declaration of dividends on the company's stock for the present. In explanation the directors said that the company had loaned $3,612,938 to the various companies in which the North American company is interested and had relied on the repayment of these loans to provide funds for its own dividends. The other companies were unable to sell their own mortgage bonds except at a great sacrifice, and the North American company, therefore, defers the dividend payment.

SHORT STORIES OF LOCAL FIELD

THE MEN'S LEAGUE OF THE CAPITOL Avenue Baptist church will meet Thursday night at 7:45 o'clock. President F. J. Cooledge, of the Atlanta Baptist Laymen's League, will be the guest of honor, and will make an address. This is the first time President Cooledge has visited this, the oldest league in the city, and he will be greeted by a large audience. The Capitol Avenue male quartet will sing during the evening, and there will be other features of interest. All men are invited.

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL SERVICES will be held at the Capitol Avenue Baptist church Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service. The Baptists of the state have done a wonderful work during the past few years in educational lines. Mercer university, Bessie Tift and Shorter have been immensely enlarged and strengthened, and have become the leading denominational institutions of the entire south. The Capitol Avenue church, always awake to Baptist doings, will make the Sunday services an educational rally. Addresses will be made by Rev. B. J. W. Graham, D.D., and Rev. Julien S. Rodgers and Pastor John E. Briggs. There will also be special music, led by Professor J. Halsey Thompson and chorus. All the members of the church are asked to be present.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING OF THE Epworth Leaguers of the city and vicinity will be held at Nellie Dodd Memorial church on Tuesday night, November 12. This will be the regular monthly meeting at the Epworth League Union, and a large attendance is expected. Important business will come before the meeting, and all leagues are urged to send large delegations. An interesting program has been prepared, and the time will be spent most enjoyable. Take South Pryor car, and get off at Washington street.

PAUL W. SPINK, SUPERINTENDENT OF the Transportation Club, is quite ill with typhoid fever at the Presbyterian hospital. Mr. Spink has been ill for several days, and his many friends have been very anxious about him. They earnestly hope that he will be out again in a short time completely restored to health.

THE ATLANTA BAPTIST SUNDAY School Association will hold their regular monthly session Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock, at the Inman Park Presbyterian church. Dr. A. T. Spalding and Professor M. L. Brittain will be the principal speakers, and will be followed by other short and interesting talks. President John M. Green will preside as usual, and as this is the first session following recent election of officers for the next year, a large representation is urged from all the Sunday schools in the city.

MAIL CARRIER WAS KILLED

He Was Shot From His Horse by an Assassin.

Knoxville, Tenn., November 8.—James Coffee, a rural mail carrier whose route was a connecting one between Tazewell and Lone Mountain, Tenn., was found dead in a public road near the latter place a an early hour Friday morning.

The mail carrier had been shot from his horse by an assassin, but the motive for the crime is not known, as the mail bags were not disturbed. News of the tragedy was telephoned he federal authorities here.

Hurricane Does Big Damage.

Marseilles, November 8.—A hurricane swept this city tonight causing immense damage to docks and water front property. The gas works were flooded and the city was plunged into darkness. Several persons were killed by collapsing houses, but in the confusion and darkness it is impossible to determine the extent of the casualties.

The whole South France continues to suffer from floods.

The coal mines at Graissessac have been flooded and work has been suspended.

BROKEN EYEGLASSES.

Our factory is so completely equipped that we can duplicate any lens or repair frames in the shortest possible time compatible with first-class work. A. K. Hawkes Co., Scientific Opticians, 14 Whitehall st. and 125 Peachtree (Candler bldg.)

"Correct Clothes for Men"

For The Thinking Man Overcoats

Whatever you want in Overcoats, you'll find ready here for you—and right for you in make, material, fit, style and price.

And if you haven't made up your mind as to what you want, the immense variety shown in this store will help you in your selection. Every weight, every good style of fabric and fashion.

$15.00 to $45.00

These garments made expressly for us by Alfred Benjamin & Co., America's foremost tailors.

ESSIG BROS.

"Correct Clothes for Men"

26 Whitehall St.

SHOT HERSELF THROUGH HEAD

Prominent Alabama Young Young Lady Uses Brother's Revolver to Kill Herself.

Sheffield, Ala., November 9.—Miss Emmie White committed suicide during Thursday night at the home of her mother in this city by shooting herself in the head with her brother's revolver.

The family believe she was temporarily insane. Miss White was 25 years of age and a daughter of Col. Walter White, once auditor of Alabama.

MORTUARY

W. A. Fllmore.

W. A. Filmore, aged 65 years, an old soldier, died at a private sanitarium yesterday. The funeral services will be held this morning at 11 o'clock, at the chapel of Harry G. Pople, interment following at the national cemetery at Marietta.

Mrs. Lula Roberts.

Mrs. Lula Roberts, aged 25 years, died at her residence yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the chapel of Greenberg, Bond & Bloomfield.

L. C. Glass.

L. C. Glass died yesterday afternoon at the residence, 188 Tyler street. The deceased is survived by a wife and one child. Funeral arrangements will be announced later, but will probably occur at the residence of S. C. Glass, a brother, 109 West Harris street.

Miss Ethel Mason.

Miss Ethel Mason, aged 32 years, died at Decatur yesterday. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Decatur.

Judge William Mims.

Judge William Mims died at his residence in West End last night. Judge Mims was one of the oldest citizens of Atlanta. He served through the civil war in the confederate army. He was a member of camp 159, United Confederate Veterans. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

J. P. Bedell.

J. P. Bedell, a former sheriff of Cherokee county, died at his home in Canton yesterday. The funeral and interment will take place in Canton.

Mrs. Annie McDonald.

Mrs. Annie McDonald, wife of Hugh A. McDonald, of the McCord-Stewart Company, died yesterday. She is survived by her husband, three sons, Hugh, George and John, and two daughters, Marguerite and Edith. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mrs. Charles Humber, Eatonton, Ga.

Eatonton, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Charles Humber, after a few days' illness, died yesterday at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. H. Garrard, at Dennis station, this county. The burial took place today at the Ararat cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Gus Ernest. Mrs. Humber had been with her mother only a few weeks, having come from Oklahoma for a visit. She leaves a husband and six children. Mr. Humber, the husband, is now in Mexico.

Death of Mrs. C. I. Humble.

Macon, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Friends and relatives of Mrs. C. I. Humber were pained today at the news of her death at Dennis, Ga. She was the wife of C. I. Humber and is survived by a husband and six children. She was widely known and loved as a lady of exemplary Christian character. She was the daughter of Mrs. E. H. Garrard, and was — years of age. The funeral occurred this afternoon, Rev. Mr. Ernest officiating, and the remains were interred in the family burying grounds.

Diseases of Men

Stricture
Varicocele
Blood Poison
Nervous Debility

To those who appreciate the best results we offer the large and valuable experience of the oldest established and most reliable specialists in the South. BOOK FOR MEN, BOOK FOR WOMEN, BRAIN AND NERVE EXHAUSTION, HEALTH, sent free on request.

Office Hours, 8 to 8. Sundays 10 to 1

DR. HATHAWAY & CO.

33 Inman Building, 22 1-2 S. Broad Street

ATLANTA, GA.

Complies with all the requirements of the National Pure Food Law, Guarantee No. 2041. Filed in Washington.

Arbuckles' is a tremendous organization that results in economy, and gives coffee drinkers in the United States the cheapest good coffee in the world.

We have our own offices in Brazil, charter our own vessels that bring the coffee to our own docks in Brooklyn, own our own stores where the green coffee matures and improves.

Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee is not touched by human hands—it is cleaned, sorted, roasted, packaged and weighed by ingenious machinery, mostly constructed by our own machinists in our own shops.

The package is for your protection, that you may be positive that you receive the genuine Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee every time—no matter where you buy it or what price you pay. We will tell you where you can buy Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee if you have trouble in finding it.

ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

MISSION LEAGUE HAS CONVENED

Georgia Students' Missionary League Meets at Athens.

MANY DELEGATES PRESENT

Chancellor Barrow Welcomed the Visiting Delegates to Athens. Dr. Ainsworth, of Savannah, Delivered the Missionary Address.

Athens, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The second annual convention of the Georgia Students' Missionary League was called to order this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the University of Georgia chapel. Quite a large number of delegates have already arrived and others will be here tomorrow. Every indication points to a most delightful meeting.

After a service of song and prayer, the enrollment of delegates took place and then came the annual report of President Charles R. Forster. This was an interesting report, showing a large number of new memberships, quite a number of colleges and high schools having joined the league since its last meeting in Macon. After hearing the report of the treasurer, the committees were appointed and the meeting adjourned until tonight.

The chapel was well filled with delegates and citizens at the meeting tonight. Chancellor Barrow in his most delightful way welcomed the visiting delegates to Athens. Rev. Luke G. Johnson, pastor of the First Methodist church, speaking for the Athens churches, extended a most cordial welcome.

Dr. W. N. Ainsworth, of Savannah, delivered the missionary address tonight on the subject: "The Christian Conquest and Its Call."

The program for tomorrow and Sunday contains quite a number of interesting addresses from eminent ministers and from talented students of the various institutions represented. Judging from the enthusiasm displayed in this work, it is quite certain that this movement has in it the elements of success.

W.C.T.U. MEETS IN CONVENTION

National Convention of the Order Convenes at Nashville.

PRESIDENT MAKES ADDRESS

Between Five and Six Hundred Delegates Were Present When the President Rapped for Order. The Recording Secretary Makes Her Report.

Nashville, Tenn., November 8.—At 9:30 o'clock this morning the thirty-fourth annual convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union was called to order in the First Presbyterian church, this city, by its president, Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, of Portland, Me.

Between five and six hundred delegates were in their seats when the president rapped for order. They are here from every state in the union, several colored women being among the number. The last W. C. T. U. convention held in Nashville was twenty years ago this month. After organization, the report of the executive committee and appointment of committees, the president delivered her annual address, which was in part as follows:

Mrs. Stevens' Address.

"Two decades ago we came here, actuated by the same spirit, inspired by the same hopes, upheld by the same faith which are ours today.

"Today we rejoice that it cannot be said, as of yore, 'King Alcohol is enthroned in the realm of King Cotton.'

"Each triumph over the liquor traffic gained in the southland is of national value, and the temperance victories in Tennessee have gladdened the hearts of good men and women everywhere.

"Georgia's struggle, Georgia's achievement, will help Massachusetts, Illinois, California and all other license states to break away from the bondage of the legalized liquor traffic.

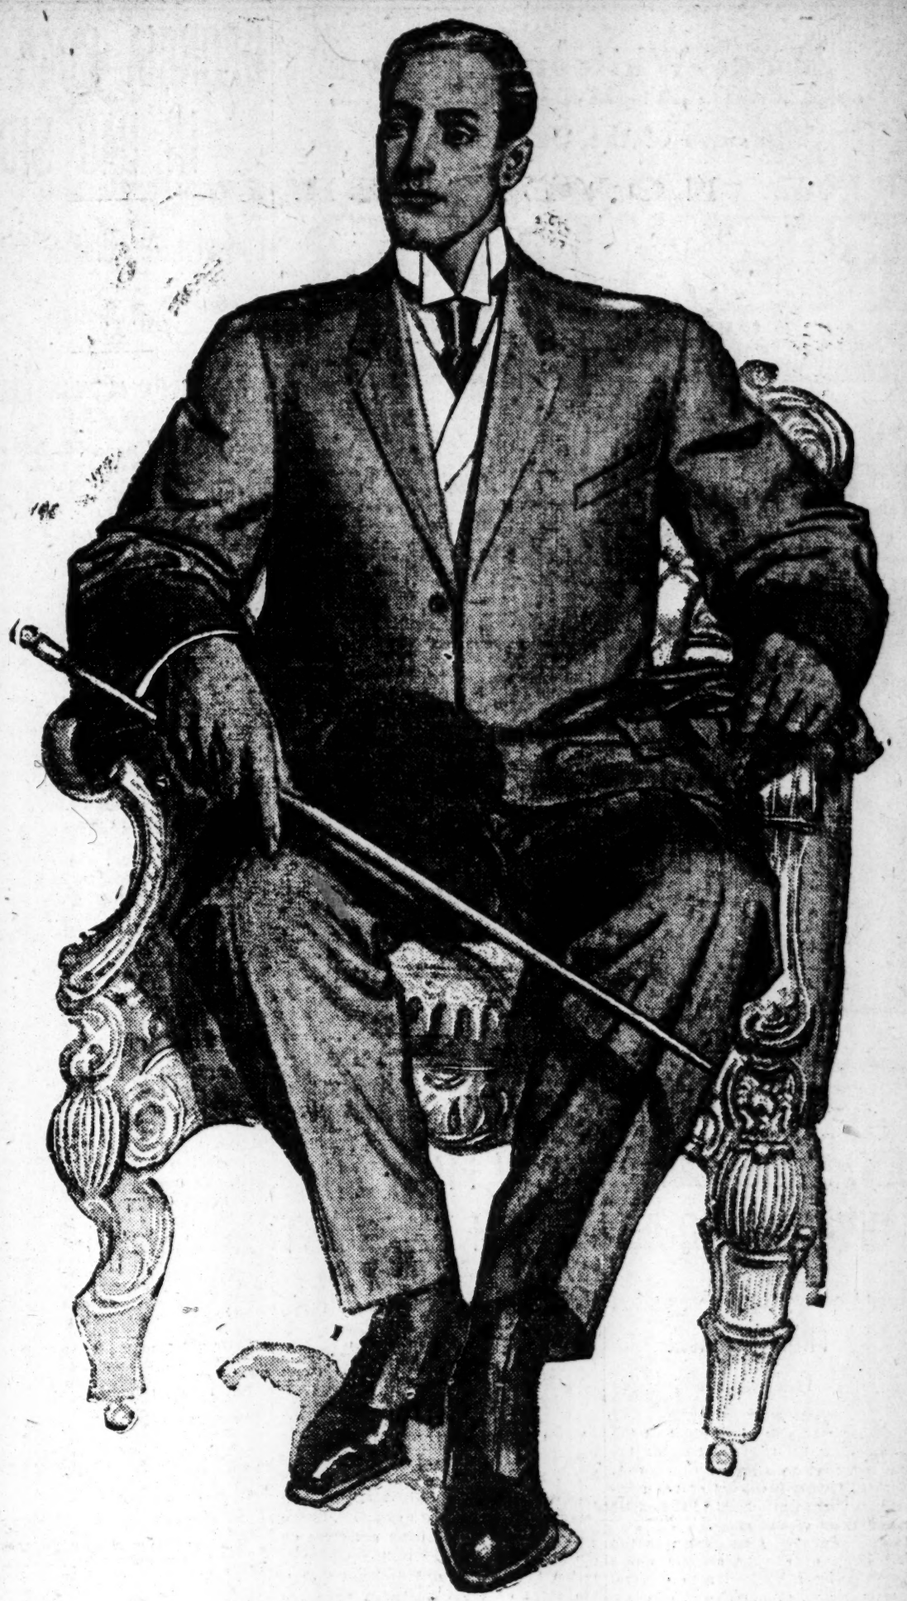

Oklahoma's triumph is of greater import than we can easily comprehend. All hail to the new state which enters statehood life free constitutionally from a legalized liquor trade!"

Following the delivery of the president's address there was an evangelistic hour held, presided over by Miss Elizabeth W. Greenwood, national evangelistic superintendent.

Afternoon Session.

The session this afternoon was devoted principally to the hearing of committee reports and reports of the corresponding secretary and treasurer. The district reports were of a highly encouraging nature.

Mrs. S. M. D. Frick, recording secretary, reported that there has been a gain in membership during the past year of 10,064. Reports from 27 states show 300 unions organized, 52 reorganized, with 8,359 active and 2,682 honorary members.

Were we to name this style as we do our shoes and hats, we'd term it the "Aristocrat." The reason is obvious. Dignified, effective and toneful in cut. We have it in such a splendid array of patterns that no man is in danger of "meeting himself" at every turn. Now, don't you think we are justified in the pride we feel at being the store to father such garments ready to put on; and especially when range of prices is considered? The coat has a deep front which gives it a long lapel and longer appearing skirt. Materials are fancy novelty patterns; worsteds, cheviots and velours.

$15.00 to $45.00

MUSE'S

3, 5 and 7 Whitehall St.

TENNESSEE CO. TO CHANGE HANDS

Transfer of Big Block of Stock Is Steel Corporation Is Made.

New York, November 8.—Deposits of 75,000 shares of Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad stock have already been made with J. P. Morgan & Co. in accordance with the terms of the transaction by which the United States Steel Corporation obtained control of the property. The stock turned in is considerably more than a majority, but it is estimated that at least 75,000 additional shares, or a total of 250,000 shares, will soon be deposited. John W. Gates, Leonard C. Hanna, Grant B. Schley and Colonel Oliver H. Payne are among those who have already delivered their stock.

The governing committee of the New York cotton exchange at a special meeting yesterday authorized the listing of $30,000,000 United States Steel Corporation sinking fund 5 per cent bonds, which, or most of which, is to be used in paying for the Tennessee stock to be acquired by the steel corporation.

The directors of the Tennessee Coal, Iorn and Railroad Company will hold a meeting tomorrow to transfer the physical control of the property to the United States Steel Corporation.

Tug Trouble at an End.

Montevideo, Uruguay, November 8.—There will be no trouble between Uruguay and Argentina over the seizure of a tug in Uruguayan waters by Argentine officials. The Uruguayan cabinet, at a meeting, decided to protest against the act and to reaffirm Uruguayan rights of jurisdiction but not to demand satisfaction of Argentina. This settlement of the dispute is unsatisfactory to the minister of foreign affairs, Senar Acevando, who declares that he will resign.

FLAMES KILL AND HURT SEVEN

Three-Story Building in Chicogo Is Gutted by Fire.

Chicago, November 8.—One person was burned to death, six others were severely hurt and several were rescued in a fire that destroyed a three-story building at 399 West Fourteenth street early today. Two policemen who carried several children from the building were slightly affected by the smoke.

The dead:

ABRAHAM GELLET, 16 years old.

The injured:

Mrs. Dora Levin, 25 years old, jumped from third story window.

Mrs. Ray Benjamin, 27 years old, jumped from a second story window.

Fireman Frank McMahon, fell from ladder while attempting to rescue a woman.

Mrs. H. Caplin, burned about the face and overcome by smoke.

Benjamin Levi, burned about face and hands in rescuing Mrs. Caplin.

A. Ormski, burned about face while rescuing several children.

Policemen Egan and Miller were overcome by smoke.

Gellet lived with Mrs. Benjamin. The fire, the cause of which has not yet been learned, broke out in the first floor of the building and spread so rapidly that none of the occupants had an opportunity to escape. Most of the inmates of the second and third floors were carried down ladders. Mrs. Caplin gave birth to a child yesterday. She was overcome by the smoke and was prevented from leaping to the street by Levi, who carried her down.

WILL PROBE ALL LAND FRAUDS

Roosevelt to Avenge Murder of Secret Service Agent Walker.

Washington, November 8.—The following self explanatory letter addressed jointly to the attorney general and the secretary of the interior under date of November 5, was made public at the White House today:

"My attention has been called to the dispatches in reference to the murder of Secret Service Agent Walker, while in the performance of his duty investigating certain coal land frauds in Colorado. I trust every effort will be exerted by your department to prosecute vigorously every violation of the land laws which Walker was investigating. (Signed) THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

NEW ELECTRIC LINE PROPOSED

Line Will Run from Marietta to Macland and Austell.

Marietta, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—An enthusiastic mass meeting was held here Wednesday to promote a new interurban line from Marietta to Macland, then to Powder Springs, Austell and on to Atlanta.

The line is said to be backed by prominent capitalists of Atlanta and other places.

The country along this line is thickly populated and besides being a paying proposition it will be a great benefit to the citizens along the line. The new agricultural school of the seventh district is located at Macland, which is one of the most thriving communities in Cobb county.

All the citizens along the proposed route will donate the right of way and a great many are going to take stock in the new enterprise. This line will connect with the Atlanta Northern Railway Company at Marietta and will form a complete circle from Atlanta to Mableton, Austell, Powder Springs, Lost Mountain and Marietta, then to Atlanta over the present street railway.

Application for incorporation will be made in the next few days and the line will be called the Marietta-Macland Railway Company.

President P. S. Arkwright, of the Atlanta Northern railway Company, has stated positively that he has no knowledge of the proposed new road. He declared that his company had no extensions under contemplation.

$5.000 FUND FOR COLLEGE HELD UP BY COURT ORDER

The County Commissioners of Pike County Are Served With Order From Judge Reagan.

Barnesville, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The commissioners of roads and revenues of Pike county, at their November meeting, were served with an order signed by Judge E. J. Reagan on the petition of a number of citizens of the county restraining them from paying to the sixth district agricultural college, located in Barnesville, the $5,000 which the Pike county grand jury recently recommended should be paid.

The treasurer of the county was also served with a copy of the order. Judge Reagan set a hearing for the matter at McDonough for November 18, at which time it will be fought out. This is the second time a Pike grand jury has recommended that the county appropriate $5,000 towards the erection of the college, but up to the present time the money has not been forthcoming. It is badly needed, as the buildings are incomplete and there is a balance due on the contract. The college is scheduled to open on January 8.

SALISBURY SUFFERED MOST DISASTROUS FIRE

Famous Old Mansion Block Was Burned—Loss Will Be About $50,000.

Salisbury, N. C., November 8.—(Special.)—At 3 o'clock this morning fire broke out in W. H. Huff's grocery store and destroyed the famous old Mansion block, part of which was built before the revolutionary war, along with a number of stores, the loss being about $50,000. At 10 o'clock this morning the fire was under control.

It was in the Mansion block that Mrs. Elizabeth Maxwell Steele entertained General Greene, and at least on one occasion George Washington dined there.

A policeman, attempting to wake Mr. and Mrs. Sneider and Miss Russell, on the second floor, was overcome and carried down with Mr. Sneider. Mrs. Sneider and Miss Russell were rescued from the flames by firemen with ladders.

For a time it looked as if the entire business section of the city would be destroyed.

Only One "BROMO QUININE," that is Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 2 Days

E. W. Grove on every box. 25c

LOWRY National Bank of Atlanta

ESTABLISHED 1861

Capital, Surplus and Profits Over $1,500,000.00

(THE LARGEST IN GEORGIA)

DESIGNATED DEPOSITORY OF THE UNITED STATES

DIRECTORS:

THOMAS J. AVERY, JOHN E. MURPHY,
THOMAS EGLESTON, THOS. D. MEADOR,
SAMUEL M. INMAN, JOSEPH T. ORME,
ROBERT J. LOWRY, WILLIAM G. RAOUL,
MELL R. WILKINSON.

FOUND BY RAILROAD TRACK

Young Georgian Found Dead in Florida—Fell From Train.

Eatonton, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Intelligence has just reached here of the death of T. J. Hazlip, of this county, which occurred near Jacksonville, Fla. He had just recovered from a case of typhoid fever, and had gone to Florida to spend a season with a relative.

His body was found by the side of the railroad, and it is supposed that he came to his death by falling from a moving train.

His father left today for Florida to get the body of his son. Mr. Hazlip was just 18 years old.

A MAN IS A misfit in business when he is bilious.

½ Glass Hunyadi János Water Before breakfast overcomes Biliousness completely.

A NATURAL LAXATIVE WATER.

Bottled at the Springs.

Avoid substitutes.

AGED WOMAN IS FOUND DEAD

Skull Was Crushed and Murder Is Suspected by the Authorities.

New York, November 8.—Lying face downward in a pool of blood, the body of Mrs. Grace Cesaro Vigil, elderly and well-to-do, was found at the foot of the main stairway of her home in West 158 street today. Her skull was crushed in and there was a pronounced odor of escaping gas in the hallway.

While the police suspect a murder, they can find no motive for the crime. The sideboard had been ransacked, but no silver or valuables were taken, and there was no sign of a struggle.

Of Mrs. Vigil little is known except that she was a Cuban by birth. She purchased her home twelve years ago for $20,000 and had lived there alone with the exception of servants ever since.

CORTELYOU WON'T TALK.

Says Everything Is Being Done to Relieve the Situation.

Washington, November 8.—At the conclusion of the cabinet meeting today Secretary Cortelyou stated that the discussion of the financial situation had occupied an important place during the session, but said there was nothing to be given out beyond the fact that the treasury department was doing everything in its power to relieve the situation, and that conditions seemed to be improving, especially in New York, which fact, he indicated, would result in relief in every section.

CANNOT COLLECT THE TAX

Court Decides That Dr. Thomas W. Evans Was a Parisian.

Philadelphia, November 8.—The orphans' court of this city has decided that Dr. Thomas W. Evans, the famous dentist who died in Paris several years ago and over whose estate there has been much litigation was a Parisian and that the state of Pennsylvania has no right to collect the collateral inheritance tax on the property located in France.

The proceedings brought by Register of Wills Irwin, raised the question of residence of the dentist and involved the collection of the five per cent state tax on upward of $1,000,000 of the $5,000,000. Dr. Evans was originally a resident of Philadelphia and Register Irwin contended that he had never announced his intention of permanently residing in Paris.

FEAR OF THE INDIANS CAUSES PROMPT ACTION

Troops Sent to the Reservation Will at Once Establish Winter Headquarters.

Omaha, Neb., November 8.—A report received today at the headquarters of the department of the Missouri from Major Sibley, commanding the troops at the Cheyenne agency in South Dakota, states that preparations will at once be made for the troops who have been sent to the reservation to establish winter quarters. The army officials here take this to mean that Major Sibley considers the recent trouble with the renegade Utes of sufficient importance to require the presence on the reservation of troops for some time to come.

Daniel Water For the Stomach

Recommended for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, inactivity of the liver, Constipation, Acidity and Catarrhal condition of the stomach. The analysis shows this water to contain in natural solution the minerals most often prescribed for disorders of the stomach and bowels, neutralizing the excess of acids, and dissolving the mucus from the glands of the stomach.

Daniel Water is a superior water for weak stomachs and poor digestion.

Delivered in cases of 6 half gallon bottles to any part of the city. Phone--2434.

James Whitcomb Riley contributes the best and longest poem he has written in years
The Boys of the Old Glee Club
THE NOVEMBER READER MAGAZINE
At All Newsdealers

BRYAN and BEVERIDGE debate the TARIFF

The best summary of the Tariff-for-Revenue principle. The most definite and practical plan of revision.

Entertaining Fiction Great Feature Articles
Beautiful Pictures in Color and Black and White

THE BOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY, INDIANAPOLIS

GEORGIA ROAD IN BAD SHAPE

Commission Orders Repairs in Ten Days.

WAS PERSONALLY INSPECTED

Following the Report of the Expert Who Went Over the Road, Commissioners Hillyer and Hill Spent the Day on the Line.

Through the office of the governor there was given out for publication yesterday a detailed report of the condition of the Georgia railroad, recently inspected by a civil engineer and railroad expert; on Thursday personally inspected by Commissioners Hill and Hillyer, accompanied by an order from the railroad commission ordering the railroad to replace all rotten crossties, broken and bent flanges, misplaced bolts and nuts, misplaced angle bars as reported in the detailed inspection, and to remedy "the little things" which it is alleged caused so many railroad wrecks.

The investigation, the second made by the commission, follows the complaint made to the commission by Bowdre Phinizy, of Augusta, who complained that the road was unsafe, and the two reports filed with the commission on this subject bear him out.

In the report filed with the commission by the expert every foot of mile between Atlanta and Augusta covered by him on foot is set down, with every misplaced nut, bolt, plate, rotten crosstie and its exact location noted. It is a complete report, and highly praised by the commission. Commissioners Hill and Hillyer spent all of Thursday investigating some of the chief points of imperfection stressed in the expert report, and commend it highly. On only one point, a difference in percentage on inferior crossties, is there a demarkation between the two reports.

After declaring the road "to be in the worst condition reported by the inspector," the commissioners elaborate upon their findings and attribute so many wrecks to just such imperfections.

After ordering the work to commence in ten days, the commission orders a report on this work within thirty days.

The report is as follows:

"Atlanta, Ga., November 8, 1907.

"Mr. Jacob Phinizy, President Georgia Railroad and banking Co., Augusta, Ga.

"Dear Sir: I beg to hand you herewith copy of order this day passed by the Georgia railroad commission, which explains itself.

"While the condition of the Georgia railroad is not all that it ought to be, it is gratifying to the commission to know that active work is being done in the direction of its improvement. Yours very truly,

"S. G. McLENDON, Chairman."

Commissioners' Report.

"Mr. Chairman: Asked by the commission to inspect certain portions of the Georgia railroad reported by the special inspector as needing immediate attention, as to the safety of the road bed and track of said road, the undersigned members of the commission have done so, and beg leave to submit the following report:

"We made personal visitation and careful inspection of the road bed and track of said road reported to be in the worst condition by said inspector, and find that wherever he has reported bolts, angle-bars, and broken angle-bars, or half angle-bars, the conditions are exactly as reported, and show a careful and intelligent inspection, except that at the point visited we found two angle-bars broken not reported by the inspector, which is accounted for by the fact that they were on the opposite side from that on which he walked, and could not be visible except to a person walking on both sides of the track.

"As to the highest percentage of rotten crossties reported by the inspector, we desire to say that we visited the track at that point and made careful investigation. We do not think that the estimate, and it was only an estimate, is justified by the actual conditions. We think the percentage of rotton crossties which need immediate replacement is less than reported. We think that 15 per cent would cover the ties that should be replaced at once, and while we cannot say that the road is actually dangerous at this point at the present time, not only from our inspection of the track and observing heavy and fast trains passing over it, yet we recommend that the commission order said road to have replaced at once the missing and broken bolts and angle-bars, as reported by the inspector, and that the rotten crossties as indicated be replaced as hereafter ordered at the various designated points.

"We deem it not inappropriate to add from interchange of views amongst ourselves, that it is the fixed policy of the commission to give thorough and, so far as may be, effective attention to improvements in the roadbed and equipment of the different carriers. The alarming increase of accidents resulting in very great loss of life and injury to persons and property make this imperatively necessary. A very large percentage of these accidents are directly traceable to defects in the tracks and roadbeds of the different companies.

"We do not understand that it was the purpose of the commission to single out this particular road as believed to have been in especially worse condition than others in the state. On the contrary, from considerable knowledge of the subject, we are led to believe that its general condition is far above the average. The defects pointed out in the report of the inspector, and as observed by us, are of a character easily susceptible to immediate remedy, and, indeed, it would seem from the number of crossties already provided, as well as angle plates and other materials, that it is the purpose of this particular company to make a large part of the repairs needed.

"In conclusion, we recommend the adoption by the commission of the following order.

"GEORGE HILLYER,
"H. W. HILL,
"Commissioners."

Commission's Order.

"Atlanta, November 8, 1907.

"It is ordered, by the railroad commission of Georgia, that the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company shall, within ten days from the date of this order, replace all missing bolts in the main line of its road, and particularly at such places as are indicated in the report this day made to this commission and copy thereof transmitted to said Georgia Railroad and Banking Company, or within that time to show cause why it has not done so.

"It is further ordered, that within ten days from this date the said Georgia Railroad and Banking Company shall remove all half angle plates in its main line track, and shall replace them with whole angle plates properly adapted to the rails in use on said main line. Especially shall this replacement be made at the points indicated in the report, copy of which has been furnished, or within that time to show why it has not done so.

"It is further ordered, that within thirty days from this date a sufficient number of new ties shall be placed in the road bed at all points on said road where it is necessary in order to render said main line track safe for the transportation of persons and property, or within that time to show cause why it has not done so.

"It is further ordered, that in any event within thirty days from this date the said Georgia Railroad and Banking Company make report to this commission of its actings and doings in compliance with this order, or within that time show cause why it has not done so.

S. G. McLENDON, Chairman.

"By order of the board:
"GEO. F. MONTGOMERY, Secretary."

Will Review Battleships.

Washington, November 8.—It was announced at the White House today that President Roosevelt will review the Atlantic battleship fleet in Hampton roads December 16, the day of the sailing of the fleet for the Pacific. No further details of the review are obtainable at this time.

SYNOD AT MACON HAS ADJOURNED

Choosing College Site Proved Very Perplexing Question.

HELD OVER FOR NEXT SYNOD

The Final Report on Establishing a College Was Adopted, and the College Is Now Assured. Question of Site Held Over.

Constitution Bureau, Brown House, Macon, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The question of selecting a site for the new Presbyterian college for Georgia has come to be a far more perplexing one than was at first thought. Since it has become an assured fact that one will be established, the members of the synod have been working hard to settle this question; but so far there have been no good results. Every minister attending is happy at the outcome. The long need of a college at which the young men of the denomination can study for the ministry has been generally felt and there will now be strong efforts to establish one that will suit all the needs of the Presbyterians in the state. The final report on the college matter was made by the committee and adopted this morning. The old committee was retained until the next synod meeting, at which time it is hoped the question of a site will be determined.

Rev. W. A. Nisbet, of Savannah, preached the holy communion sermon this morning in the presence of a large congregation. The holy communion was administered and the ministers present assisted in the observance. A short business session was held this afternoon. Following this the synod adjourned until the next annual meeting in Athens. Numbers of the ministers will remain over until Sunday and will be heard at the morning services in the city churches.

173 MEMBERS ADDED TO CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Dr. Allen Wilson's topic last night was, "Confessing Christ." His text was Rom x, 9: "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." The preacher stated that some people seem to think that we do not require heartfelt religion in admitting members to our fellowship; but such are greatly mistaken. In taking our stand on New Testament doctrine we cannot be satisfied with a mere verbal confession; the candidate must not only confess with his mouth, he must also believe in his heart. Some have objected that the confession we require is too short and too simple; but we answer it was the confession owned by Christ when Peter made it and declared by Christ to be the rock on which He would build His church. Short and simple as it is, it will, when examined, be found to contain all the essentials of the Christian faith, and sufficient to serve as the mainspring of his conduct as a disciple.

At the close of the service several confessed Christ, the total number of such accessions up to the date being one hundred and seventy-three. At the preaching service tonight the subject will be: "Jesus of Nazareth passeth by."

MOBILE LADY WAS KILLED

Laborer Threw Off Coat Containing Pistol, Which Was Discharged.

Mobile, Ala., November 8.—Mrs. J. Carter Wright, wife of a prominent resident of Mobile, was killed this afternoon by the accidental discharge of a revolver.

A negro laborer employed at her home threw his coat containing the revolver on a rear gallery, and the weapon exploded, causing instant death.

DUCKWORTH MADE ADDRESS

Farmers' Union Held an Interesting Meeting Yesterday at Dallas.

Dallas, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—A county meeting of the Farmers' Union was held here today. President R. F. Duckworth and State Lecturer Wm. Coker each addressed the large gathering of farmers.

The object of the meeeting was for cooperative work. Much good is expected of this meeting.

JAPANESE COLONISTS.

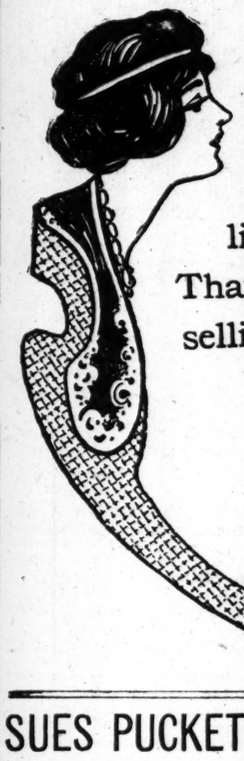

Consul General Comes to Brunswick to Inspect Them.

Brunswick, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Consul General of Japan Koinke arrived today from New York to inspect the colony recently established near this city. The twenty colonists will grow rice and will be joined in the spring by fifty more.

Old Catholic Church Burns.

Montreal, November 8.—The Roman Catholic church at Longue Pointe, built in 1729, burned last night, the loss being $75,000, covered with $16,000 insurance. The church contained a valuable sacramental service in silver brought over from France at the time the church was built, and this was lost in the flames.

TURKISH TROPHIES
CIGARETTES

If you've wondered why they're so popular, just smoke a few, and like everybody else, you'll want more. That's what has made them the largest selling Turkish cigarette in the world.

10c for 10
Why Pay More?

S. ANARGYROS, Manufacturer
New York

SUES PUCKETT FOR DAMAGES

Justice of Peace Named in Suit as One Defendant.

A bulky package was filed in the clerk's office of the superior court yesterday morning in which J. B. Baker brought suit against J. H. Cowsert, D. B. Patch, E. L. Lumpkin, an attorney, R. M. Dillard, H. W. Finch, O. H. Puckett, a justice of peace, and W. A. Payne, a constable, to cover $2,000 damages.

The suit borders somewhat on the sensational, due to the fact that charges of illegal and malicious uses of legal processes by the defendants in the suit are made. The six men combined are accused of injuring the complainant to the amount of $2,000. The whole matter, it seems, hedges itself around one of those frequently discussed matters, a garnishment against Baker.

According to Baker he was formerly employed by the Standard Oil company as a laborer, paid a weekly salary, and was served by Constable Payne with a notice to appear in Justice Puckett's court in regard to a garnishment proceeding taken out against him for the amount of $12.16 by Cowsert and Patch, these parties, it is alleged, being engaged in running a store and claiming to have a debt against the complainant for the sum named. They put their claim in the hands of Attorney Lumpkin, so the petitioner says, for collection, resulting in proceedings before Justice Puckett. After several postponements of the trial, Baker claims he was told not to appear in the May term of this year, and, therefore, thought the suit was dropped, but was later served with a second garnishment, losing money and time.

The petitioner says he lives in the 1026th militia district, and the suit should have been taken out there, instead of in the 469th district, Justice Puckett's court. He is represented by Judge Robert L. Rodgers.

In the lengthy document accusations are made, the most important being that as he was a laborer Baker was not subject to the garnishment law or to have his salary held up indefinitely by such procedure. Another item is an allegation that the garnishment bond was signed by A. W. Finch, whom he claims is not a fit person to go on bonds, for his name does not appear in the tax digest of Fulton county.

MOTHER OF E. C. BRUFFEY VERY ILL IN WASHINGTON

Telegrams to E. C. Bruffey, of Atlanta, received yesterday afternoon, advised him of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. M. J. Bruffey, at the home of her son, George Thomas Bruffey, 73 New York avenue, N. E., Washington. Mr. Bruffey left at midnight last night for his mother's bedside.

Covington City Court.

Covington, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The November term of the new city court of Covington adjourned yesterday after a two-and-a-half days' session. Judge W. H. Whaley presided and Colonel R. W. Milner, who was on Tuesday appointed solicitor to succeed Colonel J. P. Cooley, deceased, looked after the interests of the prosecution. Seventy-odd cases were on the docket and most of them were disposed of. The city court will meet the first Wednesday in every other month, the next session being the first Wednesday in January next.

Perkins Seriously Ill.

Chicago, November 8.—Private advices received today from Boston say that C. E. Perkins, former president of the Burlington railroad, is seriously ill, and that his condition is such as to cause the gravest anxiety to his family.

Glidden to Go in for Balloons.

Boston, Mass., November 8.—Chas. J. Glidden, the wealthy Boston globe-trotting automobilist, says that his present ambition is to make balloon ascensions in as many countries throughout the world as passible. He is an insatiate traveler and already holds the world's record for mileage traveled in an automobile, by which he has reached almost every known accessible country.

New Game Causes Death.

San Sebastian, Spain, November 8.—The first death as a result of the new game of Diabolo is reported from Pampeluna. A boy who was playing the game threw the shot very high. He misjudged its position as it fell and it struck him on the temple, inflicting an injury which caused death.

40 GOVERNMENT EXPERTS ARE WORKING IN GEORGIA

Giving Farmers Instructions in Forestry, Dairy, Seed Selection, Culture Methods, Crop Rotation and Soil Survey.

Quietly and successfully government experts, assigned to Georgia by the United States agricultural department, are mingling with the farmers of the state, giving them instructions in forestry, dairy work, seed selection, culture methods, crop rotation, road building and soil survey.

There has been so little said of this work in the newspapers that Georgians living in the cities of the state have hardly been aware of the movement but the farmers in many sections have already felt the good effects, for the number of experts placed in the state by the government has increased so rapidly that there are now in the neighborhood of forty men engaged in this work.

Five experts have been at work during the past week in the Seventh district, teaching soil survey, road building, seed selection and dairy work. In this district the government has already used a great deal of improved machinery showing how road building should be conducted.

Work will begin on Monday at Georgetown, Ga., and in surrounding territory. The state is being worked by congressional districts.

The experts go to the farmer and ask him to set aside so much land, three or four acres, and then try the methods they advocate in that part of their farm and watch the results. The improvement in the crops is manifest to the farmer, of course, and the chances are the next year he will be trying the new method exclusively.

The number of experts to be put at work in Georgia is not definitely known, but parties in close touch with the work say that by this time next year there will be at least one hundred government employees teaching the farmers.

This agricultural education school, in which the farmer stays at home, and the teacher goes to him, was started by the government some six or seven years ago in Texas and was successful from the start. Last year government workers entered Alabama for the first time. Work in Georgia began about October 28. The whole state will be covered, but of course, it will take some time, probably a year or more, to reach every section.

The federal workers have persuaded a large number of farmers in those counties they have already visited to try their methods. It is their intention to pledge about fifty farmers in each county.

FRED ABELL FOUND FROZEN

Was a Professor of Modern Languages in High School.

Rochester, N. Y., November 8.—Fred H. Abell, professor of modern languages at West High school, escaped from the sanitarium of Dr. Graham some time after midnight Thursday, and was found dead near the Highland park reservoir today. He had frozen to death.

Hopes for Permanent Peace.

New York, November 8.—Dr. Policarpo Bonilla, former president of Honduras, who is one of the republic's delegates to the Central American peace conference to open at Washington next week, is staying at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Dr. Bonilla said today that he hoped the Washington conference would result in a permanent peace in Central America and that Honduras would do all in her power to facilitate that hoped-for consummation.

VALDOSTA CERTIFICATES.

Valdosta Clearing House Follows Example of Other Cities.

Valdosta, Ga., November 8.—(Special.) The Valdosta clearing house today decided to follow the example of many other Georgia cities and issue clearing house certificates to relieve the money stringency in this city and section. The tightness of money has not been felt to any great extent in this city up to the present, but the bankers realize that if their foreign connections are not able to furnish currency to move the cotton crop that some steps must be taken to provide for this. It is understood that the certificates will be in general circulation in a few days, and there is not the least doubt that they will be readily received by all classes.

False Passports Seized.

Libau, Russia, November 8.—The police yesterday searched the houses of several agents of the line of Russian steamers running from Libau to New York, resulting in the seizure of several false passports and the arrest of the agents and many emigrants who were intending to embark for the United States.

DR. WILLIAM ZELLERS DEAD

He Represented Campbell County Twice in the Legislature.

Palmetto, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Dr. William S. Zellars, one of Campbell county's oldest and most prominent citizens, died at his residence here last night at 11 o'clock. In his early manhood he was a successful practicing physician, but retired from the practice many years ago.

He represented Campbell county in the general assembly of Georgia twice, once in 1868 and again in 1880.

He is a brother of Captain T. E. Zellars, of Grantville, Ga., and Captain Simeon Zellars, of Palmetto. Besides these and other prominent relatives he leaves one grandson, Willie Cook Zellars, of Long Cane, Ga. His only son, Dr. W. A. Zellars, died seventeen years ago, and his wife died about two years ago.

He was buried here this afternoon with Masonic honors.

EXPERTS AT DAHLONEGA.

They Were Listened To By a Large Audience.

Dahlonega, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—In company with Congressman T. M. Bell, four experts from the national department of agriculture visited this county and lectured in the college chapel.

The lectures were as follows: Roads, by Mr. M. O. Eldridge; Soils, by Mr. W. G. Smith; Seed Selection of Cotton and corn, by Mr. E. B. Boykin; Forestry, by Mr. H. A. Winkenwerder.

A large audience, mostly of farmers and students of the college, attended the lectures, which were full of interesting information. The lecturers were then served a splendid luncheon, prepared by Miss Ellene Glenn's class in domestic science.

Music was furnished for the occasion by the college band.

GEN. ANDERSON GIVEN BANQUET

Silver Loving Cup Presented by Fifth Regiment Officers.

A dinner was given last night at the Etowah Cafe by the officers of the Fifth regiment to General Clifford A. Anderson, formerly colonel of the regiment, but now in command of the entire military body of the state.

The feature of the banquet was the presentation of a very artistic silver cup, given by the officers to General Anderson. Rev. C. B. Wilmer, chaplain of the regiment, made the presentation speech, which was followed by one in acceptance and thanks by General Anderson. The occasion was one of much merry-making, and the evening passed with great pleasure to all who attended. The honored guests were, General Scott, General Obear, Lieut-Col. Barker, retired; Major Harry Henderson, retired, and Captain Burton Smith. Lieutenant-Colonel Shearer acted as toastmaster.

Those at the dinner were: Lieutenant-Colonel Shearer, Major Preston, Major E. E. Pomeroy, Major J. W. Duncan, Captain C. B. Wilmer, Captain O. H. Hall, Captain D. Dunwoodie, Captain S. H. Green, Captain O. Palmer, Captain Fickett, Captain Catron, Captain Spratt, Captain Meikliam, of Lyndale; Captain Traywick, of Cedartown; Captain Morris, of Marietta; Captain White, Captain Smith, Lieutenant Lilly, Lieutenant Etheridge, Lieutenant Hendricks, Lieutenant Mills, Lieutenant Cochran, Lieutenant Parker, Lieutenant Marshall, Lieutenant Weaver, Lieutenant Schilling, Lieutenant Groves, Lieutenant Schmidt, Lieutenant Morgan, Lieutenant Kemp, Lieutenant Shearer, Lieutenant Lindrome, Lieutenant Fife, Lieutenant Thomas.

SLOW FREIGHTS WITH THE PAST

Commission Warns Roads That Delays Must Cease.

When the railroad commission met yesterday morning, with a complete board present, and while there were a number of general freight agents represented in the audience chamber, Chairman McLendon read them a lecture on the subject of quicker freight transportation in Georgia, and declared that if the rules of the commission were not obeyed one way, another way would be found to compel them.

He then read a formal complaint addressed to the commission from a merchant, who stated that a car of bagging and ties for his gin were thirty-two days in transit from Savannah to an interior town, and that this caused him a great loss.

Similar complains, he stated, were coming in daily, and the remedy had to be complete and immediate.

"The rules of this commission," he stated, "are just, fair and reasonable and impose a charge for delays of this kind in the nature of a penalty. These rules must be obeyed and if the commission cannot have them obeyed in one way it will endeavor to find another which will bring about their observance. The railroads are requested to take fair notice that these intolerable delays in short movements are being and will be fully investigated and full justice done to all parties at interest."

The statement in full is as follows:

Nearly every railroad subject to the jurisdiction of the railroad commission being represented, we wish to call attention to some complaints that are coming into the commission office daily. These relate almost wholly to delays in the shipment of goods, and particularly in the shipment of bagging and ties. In one of these complaints, which is typical of all the others, the writers say:

"When we are without bagging, our gins are stopped, the labor employed at the gins is idle and on expense. In addition to this inconvenience, the farmers who rely on us to do their ginning suffer great loss by their cotton not being ginned. This loss does not only fall on the ginners, but falls heavily upon towns and points where these gins are located when the ginners are unable to secure bagging and ties. If the farmer cannot get his cotton ginned at one place, he will haul his seed cotton to other points to have it ginned. You will at once see what hardships and loss we suffer by the careless handling of these articles while in transit."

The writer of this letter had a shipment of bagging and ties out from Savannah to an interior point in Georgia which was 32 days in transit. The rules of this commission are just, fair and reasonable, and impose a charge for delays of this kind in the nature of a penalty. These rules must be obeyed, and if the commission cannot have them obeyed in one way, it will endeavor to find another way which will bring about their observance. If they are unreasonable, the commission will repeal them, and while no formal order is necessary at this time, the railroads are requested to take fair notice that these intolerable delays in short movements are being and will be fully investigated and full justice done to all parties at interest.

Shipments from Liverpool to and across the American continent and to Hong Kong, a distance of nearly 12,000 miles, are made in less time than some of these shipments are made from one point in Georgia to another point.

KILLED AT PLANING MILL

Plank Struck C. J. Hardisty in the Breast, Killing Him.

Statesboro, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—C. J. Hardisty, an old citizen of Statesboro, was instantly killed here today. He was operating a button saw at the Davis Planing mill, when a plank flew, striking him in the breast, knocking him several feet into a pile of lumber.

He was raised up by his fellow workmen, and gave one long sigh and died. He was fifty-eight years old, and leaves a wife and two sons: Freeman Hardisty, who is attending the university at Athens, and Edward Hardisty, residing in Alabama.

Be Sure

Do not trust too much to your own judgment in medical matters. Consult your doctor frequently. He knows best.

Hard colds, hard coughs, severe bronchitis, weak throats, weak lungs. We wish you would ask your doctor if he knows of anything better for these troubles than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. We believe it is the best medicine you could possibly take. But ask your doctor, and thus be sure to make no mistake. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

The Hollow Bones

of the arms and legs are tubes like a piece of gas pipe. The hollow centre is filled with soft red fatty material called marrow. This is the place where new red blood is made.

Scott's Emulsion

feeds bone marrow. The rich fat and the peculiar power in SCOTT'S EMULSION gives new vigor and new nourishment. That is why pale people improve on SCOTT'S EMULSION. It has the power to produce new red blood.

All Druggists; 50c. and $1.00.

Michaels-Stern Fine Clothing is the smartest styled and best wearing clothing in the country, and the prices are moderate.

Ask the wearer.

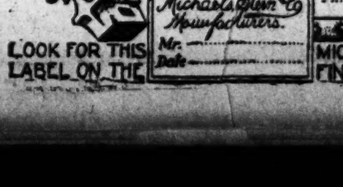

Almost half-a-century of experience and progress has combined to place our clothing in the front rank, and it is now sold by the best class stores everywhere.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS,
$12 to $35.

Garments of your size warranted to fit as if made-to-your-measure.

Write for Booklet "Styles from Life," which includes a correct "Dress Chart" and an interesting chapter on "The Etiquette of Cards and Invitations."

MICHAELS, STERN & CO., Manufacturers, Rochester, N.Y.
New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco.

LOOK FOR THIS LABEL ON THE MICHAELS-STERN FINE CLOTHING

All-wool; and all right

Copyright 1907 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

If you're looking for clothes that will give good service and hold shape through long, hard wear come here and get into these Rogers, Peet & Co. or Hart, Schaffner & Marx garments.

They're all-wool, hand-tailored, perfect-fitting and shown in the handsomest patterns and colorings you'll see anywhere.

Suits--$15 to $50; Overcoats--$15 to $60.

Boys' clothes here, too

And our boys' clothes are as good as our clothes for men. They're from Rogers, Peet & Co., and Ederheimer, Stein & Co.

You'll see no handsomer styles anywhere, nor better workmanship. We can fit any boy who comes—the wee youngster of 2 1-2 years, or the big fellow of 17.

Suits and Overcoats, $4 to $15.

Your hat's here

Come in and let us cover your head with one of our handsome hats ---the Miller at $5, or a Stetson at $3 to $6.

Shapes and shades to suit all faces; sizes to fit all heads.

Shirts: underwear: ties: sox

New Manhattan Shirts at $1.50 to $3.50; and the best $1.00 Shirts you'll find.

All sorts of Underwear--cotton, wool and cotton, wool and silk, silk, linen--50c to $6 a garment.

And there's no need to go elsewhere for Neckwear or Hosiery; you'll find all the good kinds here.

Daniel Brothers Co.

L. J. DANIEL, President

45-47-49 Peachtree---Opposite Walton St.

CRIMINAL ACTION IS NOW FEARED BY BANKS

New York Banks Suspected of Causing Present Trouble May Have to Answer Criminal Prosecutions.

New York, November 8.—Reports that criminal prosecutions as a result of conditions disclosed by the present banking situation in this city are imminent gained wide circulation in financial circles today. It was said that both of the comptrollers of the currency, who have thoroughly investigated the affairs of two national banks which have been prominently mentioned in connection with the present trouble, found conditions which led them to make unusually minut ereports to their superior. Just what tht nature of their reports was has not been disclosed.

When the reports of prospective criminal action were taken to United States District Attorney Stimson, he said that no decision had yet been reached to prosecute any one in connection with the recent bank troubles. He said, also, that any such decision would be made here, and not in Washington. Mr. Stimson said:

"Since the banking troubles in this city became acute in the last three weeks, my office has followed them with the same care that it always tries to give to all matters within its jurisdiction. As yet, there has been no decision or determination arrived at to prosecute any individual whatever, and any statement to the contrary, whether in a newspaper or elsewhere, is wholly false."

CENSUS REPORT SHOWS DECREASE

Amount Ginned Up to Nov. 1 Over 700,000 Bales Less Than 1906.

Washington, November 8.—The census bureau today issued its bulletin showing the total coton crop of this year's growth ginned up to November 1 to be 6,167,000 bales, as compared with 6,906,395 bales for 1906.

The figures are the result of the investigation of the special agents of the bureau, which in addition to the figures given show that there were 26,135 ginneries in operation, as compared with 27,370 for 1906. In the computaeion round bales are counted as half bales. The result by states for the yresent year is as follows:

Alabama, 608,922 bales; Arkansas, 263,541 bales; Florida, 28,687; Georgia, 1,195,895; Indian Territory, 191,750; Kentucky, 494; Louisiana, 277,536; Mississippi, 629,485; Missouri, 11,589; North Carolina, 326,437; Oklahoma, 179,139; South Carolina, 733,045; Tennessee, 109,225; Texas, 1,579,496; Virginia, 2,549.

School Shoes

The importance of correct shape, correct fit, good quality, and moderate price—enters into our handling of the school shoe proposition.

Send or bring the boys and girls to us. We guarantee to shoe them to your satisfaction—and theirs.

Shoes and Hosiery.

Knott & Awtry Shoe Co.,

25 Whitehall St

CHOATE ELECTED TO PRESIDENCY

Reform League Commends Roosevelt for Civil Service Laws.

Buffalo, November 8.—The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the National Civil Service Reform League practically ended this afternoon. A brief informal session will be held tomorrow, after which the delegates will visit Niagara Falls. Joseph H. Choate was elected president today, and resolutions were adopted commending President Roosevelt for determined and effective enforcement of civil service laws and rules, and expressing satisfaction that congress gives evidence of stronger support of the merit system.

At the afternoon session, William Dudley Foulke, of Richmond, Ind., read a paper on "Restriction of the Political Activity of Officeholders." Fullerton L. Waldo, secretary of the Pennsylvania Civil Service Association, read a paper on "Civil Service Reform in Philadelphia."

At the banquet tonight the principal speakers were Richard Watson Gilder, of New York; Attorney General Bonaparte and William Dudley Foulke.

GRAIN ELEVATOR BURNS; THE LOSS IS $2,000,000

Duluth, Minn., November 8.—Fire tonight destroyed the Great Northern Elevator "A," in Superior together with six hundred thousand bushels of grain, principally wheat. The elevator was owned by the Great Northern railroad, but was leased to the A. D. Thomson Grain company of Duluth. The sparks soon ignited the Grand Republic mill on Tower Bay slip, the Great Lakes Dredge and Rock company dock and the Duluth Superior Storage company. At midnight it looked as though all would be completely demolished entailing an estimated loss of two million dollars.

The fire started at the southwest corner of the elevator "A." dock. Four fire tugs, owing to the intense heat, were driven from the slip, and then devoted their energies to saving adjoining property. The steamers W. A. Parent and W. A. Rogers were in the eevator "A." slip loading wheat. The steamers Utica, Alva and Chill were on the opposite side of the slip at a merchandise dock. All were pulled out by tugs to save them from destruction. The Globe Elevator, owned by the Peavey company, was on fire for a time, but the firemen succeeded in extinguishing the flames. The blaze also spread to the sawmill property of the Peyton, Kimball and Barber property, but this likewise was extinguished.

GEN. BOOTH BIDS SOLDIERS GOODBY

Most Remarkable Scene Is Watched by Salvation Army.

TRIP NEARLY KILLED HIM

Aged Commander, However, Hopes to Recuperate and Return to America Before He Dies—A Message to the American People.

New York, November 8.—At a monster open-air demonstration in which the stereopticon reproductions of various scenes connected with his life and work formed novel features, General Booth, the founder of the Salvation Army, who is to sail tomorrow for Europe, tonight bade his soldiers and the American people generally farewell. General Booth made his final address from the steps of the city hall. He was surrounded by hundreds of followers. His voice was somewhat husky, showing the strain of his many recent speeches.

Thousands of friends and adherents of the Salvation Army, bearing flags and torches, paraded from the army headquarters in Fourteenth street through the East Side to City Hall park. When a near approach to order was secured, General Booth addressed the assemblage, three megaphonists standing before him, repeating his words in unison. He said:

"My Beloved Comrades and Friends: We have had a mighty time. I leave you with confidence in your loyalty and perseverance in the war. Be true to your commander; she is worthy of it. She has the love of my soul. Be true to your general. Salvation for the president. Salvation for the government. Salvation for the people. Salvation for the police. Salvation for the United States. Salvation for poor old England. Salvation for the world. Win the world for Jesus. Fight the whole of yourselves. Meet me in heaven. Glory to God in the heaven. Glory to God in the highest, and on the earth, peace, good will to men.

"You have nearly killed me, but I shall recuperate on the steamer.

"Friends of everybody, enemies of none, goodby; I'll come to see you again if I live, and if I die, I'll be carried over here, if theyll let it be so."

Here Commander Miss Booth interposed:

"Careful, father; you are killing yourself," whereupon the general concluded his address with the words:

"God be with you till we meet again."

God Be With You.

The hymn of this name then was thrown upon the screen and the crowd sang it, after which the Salvationist leader and his staff were taken to the steamer St. Louis. After the meeting General Booth dictated to the Associated Press the follwing farewell words to the people of America:

"Farewell, America, you have given me a right generous welcome. On this visit I have seemed to come nearer the heart of the nation than on any other occasion.

"In fact, your confidence and sympathy have made me hope for your hearty cooperation in carrying out the great program to which I have consecrated my life. That program contains the highest happiness and the truest welfare in this world and the world to come.

"With every assurance of my prayers and toil in all that concerns the honor and righteousness of your flag, and confident of the future triump of the principles on which the army is founded, I remain,

"Yours in the bond of faithful friendship,

"WILLIAM BOOTH."

FUNERAL NOTICE.

WEBB—The relatives and friends of Mrs. M. H. Webb, H. R. Webb, John R. Webb, A. C. Webb and Mrs. M. Clements are requested to attend the funeral of H. R. Webb Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, No. 23 Gresham street. Interment Hollywood.

WARNER IS MADE THE RECEIVER

Williamstown Manufacturing Company Is in Financial Straits.

Pittsfield, Mass., November 8.—Announcement was made that Henry E. Warner, who on Wednesday was appointed receiver for the Arnold Print Works, of North Adams, has been appointed receiver for the Williamstown Manufacturing Company, of Williamstown, Mass., and of the firm of Gallup & Houghton, of North Adams. Both concerns were affiliated with the print works and with the North Pownal Manufacturing Company, of North Pownal, Vt., which yesterday passed into the hands of Mr. Warner as receiver. About 6,000 persons are employed in these mills.

The mills involved are the Eclipse, directly under the management of the Arnold Print Works and employing 1,500 hands, and the Beaver, under the direction of Gallup & Houghton and employing 500 hands, both mills being in this city, the Williamstown Manufacturing Company, a separate corporation, but with Arnold Print Works officers in control and employing 500 people, and the North Pownal Manufacturing Company, also controlled by Arnold Print Works officers, with 500 hands.

The immediate control of the Arnold Print Works, and through that concern of the various other companies, is in A. C. Houghton and William Arthur Gallup, his son-in-law. The affairs of all the companies are exceedingly intimate, so that the appointment of a receiver for the Arnold Print Works on petition of Charles D. Houghton, a nephew of A. C. Houghton, and a creditor of the Arnold Print Works, was followed by receiverships for all the other involved concerns. The effect of this action is to prevent attachments upon any of the property and any waste in the assets. Under the order of the court the business of all properties must continue in the usual course, under the receivership.

The aggregate liabilities are estimated at nearly $10,000,000.

Crane Made Co-Receiver.

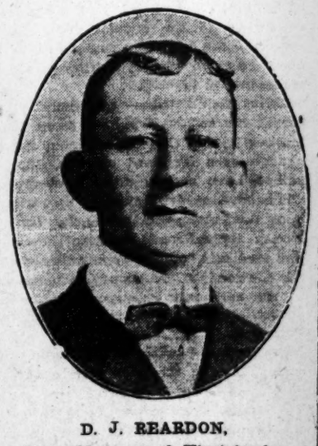

Boston, Mass., November 8.—United States Senator Winthrop Murray Crane, of Dalton, was today apponted co-receiver of the Arnold Print Works, of North Adams, by Judge Lowell in the United States circuit court on petition of counsel for the creditors. His bond was placed at $100,000.

The Main Thing.

(From The Baltimore American.)

"She has the face of a seraph" declared the enthusiastic friend.

"That's all right," said the practical manager, "but has she the backing of an angel?"

D. J. REARDON,

State Manager of Virginia for

Heralds of Liberty

is in the city, and will pay tonight in Red Men's Hall, 87 Central avenue, at 7:30 p. m., a New York draft for $500.00. Everybody is invited to be present.

NEW BILLS HELP SOUTHERN ROAD

Alabama Roads Are Divided Into Four Classes.

L. & N. GOES IN GROUP ONE

Group 1 Can Charge 5 Per Cent Advance on Rates in the Rate Schedule—Group 3, in Which Is Southern, 25 Per Cent.

Montgomery, Ala., November 8.—(Special.)—In the opinion of the men who have been watching the situation, the administration has played its trump card in the introduction of bills that seek to make rates on a given list of commodities, presented in eight bills, with three groups in each one of them. In these bills the principle of classification of commodities is abandoned and every item given a rate for its own use, without regard to where it has in the past been placed by rate making associations.

It is thought that the idea in the measures is the removal from the litigation in the federal courts of rate bills that have been held up. The other bills, about which the railroads have complained, have been enjoined, among them being senate No. 16, known as the 110-commodity act. This bill repeals that act and makes it without force and effect, a result of which will be, it is figured, to render the acts now in court void, thereby relieving the state of the duty of fighting further along that line. In other words, the bills repealed will be the bills killed, and to take their place will be the acts just sent in.

Roads in Four Classes.

The new acts classify the railroads into four classes. In the first group is the Louisville and Nashville, the Western of Alabama, the Frisco and the Atlantic Coast Line. They may charge 5 per cent advance on the rates in the rate schedules. In the second group are the Seaboard Air Line, Central of Georgia, Atlantic and Birmingham and Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis. These may charge 20 per cent over the list.

Tho third group takes in the Southern and allied lines, the Illinois Central, Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City, Chattanooga Southern and the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic. These may charge 25 per cent over the list rates. The fourth group, which may charge 50 per cent over the list, includes the various short lines of the state, most of which are built for lumber service.

Good Showing for Southern.

It can be seen that the bill makes a good showing for the Southern and its connections. It is given a great advantage over the Central of Georgia for instance, and there are many who say that the Alabama Great Southern, one of the best lines in the state, is lucky to get the good showing allowed in its being rated in the third class, taking 25 per cent over the rates. It is supposed that in all cases where possible the Southern is favored on account of its putting in the old rates.

As a whole the rates in the bills just sent in are higher than those of the 110 commodity measure, though there is not a great deal of difference. In the case of joint rates the old law took the sum of two locals and 20 per cent off; this one takes the local rates with 10 per cent off them. The railroad commission has the right to raise or lower any rate in the list by affirmative vote. Also all laws or parts of law in opposition to this are repealed. The new law becomes effective December 1, if it passes.

Penalties Provided.

Another bill that is far-reaching in its effect increased the powers of the railroad commission in many instances not given in the old bill. It will make it possible for the commission to do many things not now within its power. Bills are also in the proviso for penalties for refusng to accept rates made by the state or the commission, making such refusal grounds for damages and in every way safeguarding the state to enforce the new acts and play as far shy of the legal breakers of the past as possible.

FIRST OPENING NIGHT IN ATLANTA HISTORY

Miss Grace George Appears in the Title Role of Sylvia of the Letters, by English Author and Playwright, Jerome K. Jerome.

Go way Broadway. For once in history ePachtree sounds more fashionable, more theatrical, for tonight Atlanta will have the pleasure of seeing the "first night" performance of "Sylvia of the Letters" at the Grand.

Of course, Atlanta may have enjoyed first nights before, for many things have happened in her history. But never before has she had the opportunity to pass judgment on the first efforts of a trinity to compare with "Sylvia of the Letters," the play; Miss Grace George, the leading woman, and Jerome K. Jerome, the author.

The members of the Grace George company and others who have read the new play say that it will be a go from the start, and all are enthusiastic in their praise of the new production.

Miss Grace George has for a number of years ranked as a clever actress, and each year is adding something to her already fine reputation. It is believed she will make an admirable and a bewitching Sylvia.

Jerome K. Jerome is probably the leading humorist in the world today. Certainly he is one of the best. His "Three Men in a Boat" has for many years been highly praised and widely read. Atlantans had a chance while the Fawcett Stock Company was in the city to see one of his plays in the charming "Miss Hobbes."

And a fourth element in this new production, which must be duly considered, is the man who stands behind the performance, William Brady, one of New York's most resourceful managers. His name is generally considered a guarantee of artistic scenery and good companies.

It is generally customary to call for the author at the conclusion of the second act, and it is understood that this custom will be followed in Atlanta tonight.

BALLOON ASCENSION BY AUGUSTA REPORTER

Augusta, Ga., November 8.—(Special.) W. B. Seabrook, a reporter on The Chronicle, this afternoon made a successful balloon ascension and parachute leap. It is said the young man went up about half a mile before cutting loose.

He had a narrow escape from a dangerous wetting in the canal, missing the banks but a few feet. One of the professional aeronauts fell into the canal a day or two ago and narrowly escaped death. No one knew of Seabrook's intention except the owner of the balloon, who had been coaching him for several days.

A THRILLING TALE OF THE ADIRONDACKS

The* Affair at Pine Court

By NELSON RUST GILBERT

A truly American novel of love and mystery, with scenes at the Adirondack lodge of a New York millionaire. A story of living people against a background of October-painted forests, azure lakes, and limpid trout-streams.

Illustrated in Color

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE

Publishers J. B. LIPPINCOTT CO. Philadelphia

$1 A Week

VICTOR

It never worries you

The small weekly payments on a Victor never embarrass you. They are easy and soon finished; the pleasure keeps right on—fresh every day.

3,500 pieces of the choicest music to select from. Every kind of music and every kind of fun. Come in and see us about it.

Phillips & Crew Co.

37-39 Peachtree St.

The Constitution.

PUBLISHED DAILY, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY

CLARK HOWELL.....Editor
ROBY ROBINSON.....Business Manager

Entered at the postoffice at Atlanta as second class mail matter.

POSTAGE RATES.
United States and Mexico.

8 to 12-page paper 1c
12 to 24-page paper 2c
24 to 36-page paper 3c
36 to 56-page paper 4c

TERMS TO SUBSCRIBERS.

DAILY, one year $5.00
SUNDAY 2.00
Both, as above 7.00
TRI-WEEKLY, one year 1.50
WEEKLY, one year 50c
DAILY AND SUNDAY, by carrier delivered per week in Atlanta 12c
Outside of Atlanta 15c

For six or three months at same proportionate rate as above.

NICHOLS & HOLLIDAY, Constitution building, sole Advertising Managers for all territory outside of Atlanta.

THE WASHINGTON BUREAU of The Constitution is located at No. 1417 G St., N. W., opposite the Treasury Department; Mr. John Corrigan, staff correspondent, in charge.

THE CONSTITUTION in New York: Visitors to New York wishing to obtain The Constitution will find it at Hoteling's Newspaper Agency, corner of Broadway and Thirty-eighth street, in the very heart of New York's hotel and theater district. It will be found there every day. If not, please drop a line to The Constitution.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Our traveling representatives are C. B. DONNELLY, W. W. BLACKBURN and C. S. MOORE. O. B. ATKINSON, W. H. OVERBY, W. F. STOKES and W. D. BRUMBELOE.

Be sure that you do not pay any one else. CONSTITUTION PUBLISHING CO.

ATLANTA, GA., November 9, 1907.

The flim-flam artist is abroad in the land. Count your change.

It is now coming to light that currency famines are not so uncommon in individual cases.

Theodore F. Burton is probably more convinced than ever that Cleveland has "too much Johnson."

A New York woman who waited for fourteen hours in a line of anxious depositors found her account overdrawn $23.

The Sante Fe, which has just been fined $330,000 by Judge Olin Wellborn, will read the president's Thanksgiving proclamation with deep distrust.

The Washington Post remarks that until the conscientious Georgian gets rid of his mint bed, he will not rest easy. We might remark also that he will give up his nightcap.

Various contemporaries are now discussing "the ethics of kissing." Here, as with most things, practice is better than theory, and the subject should be taught by object lessons.

The experience of Jamestown has not served to dampen the enthusiasm of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition promoters. P. S. The government has been asked for a small loan.

The Athens Banner wishes Grover Cleveland to give the democratic party some advice on the platform and candidates for next year. In a multitude of advice there is un-wisdom.

It appears that the only citizens immune from membership in the original Ananias Club are those who say the president didn't mean it when he said "irrevocable" regarding the third term.

The esteemed Washington Herald prints an editorial severely scoring Judge Hargis, the famous feudist. It will be remembered that Washington is not in gunshot distance of Breathitt county.

Seventeen Illinois counties went dry in Tuesday's elections. Delaware reports that three-fourths of the state has gone dry. There is nothing tardy about the way the prohibitionists are voting out slow gins.

The Lusitania owners are going to charge a small admission to board the ship which brought over $10,000,000 in gold. The holder of a ticket will not, however, be entitled to participate in the distribution of the grand prize.

The Houston Post started a new alliterative craze and now we have such nicknames as Wonderful Washington, Desolate Dallas, Hollering Houston, Marvelous Manhattan, Comfortless Charleston, Ripsnorting Richmond, Devilish Denver and Estimable El Paso.

The Chicago News remarks that "the Illinois senate is in the hands of as brazen a set of political ruffians as ever defied honest public opinion from the stronghold of a legislative body perverted to evil uses." This reminds us of what the editor of The Billville Banner said of the town council for adopting an ordinance preventing hogs from running wild in the streets.

The malice of the paragrapher of The Charleston News and Courier has never been revealed more plainly evidenced in his animadversions on our gentle friend of the Houston Post, than when he thus gloats over brethren in distress: "Is it true that Atlanta, Birmingham and Knoxville men have simultaneously invented an apparatus for the wireless transmission of cocktails?"

GEORGIA'S ORGANIZED WOMEN.

Georgians who have followed the page devoted in The Constitution each Sunday to the interests of the club women of Georgia will be more gratified than surprised at the sum of practical good being accomplished by the women of the state through their organization, witness to which is borne by reports from the annual convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, now in session at Tifton, Ga.

So gradually and unostentatiously has the scope of the federation expanded itself, that the general public is hardly familiar with the helpful functions it discharges with respect to the civic, moral and educational life of Georgia. Some years ago the term "new woman" conveyed to the average man a meaning blended of disfavor and ridicule. Opponents to the movement were sure that it meant the losing of the gentler predominating feminine traits, and the substitution of a viewpoint too masculine and intrusive to chime with the traditional conception of womanhood.

That was in the days before the "new woman" and her mission found themselves, and for a time both were in danger of being discredited by the rampant, brawling female suffragist, or the bifurcated advocate of "woman's rights," declamatory, protesting and totally unconvincing.

In its eleven years of organized work in Georgia, the federation has shown the people that the "new woman" is simply the sweet, wholesome "woman" of cherished history and tradition, sacrificing none of her femininity, but rather vindicating its true mission in the constant performance of sensible and profitable deeds.

Just what these women have wrought for the good of philanthropy of the sort that inculcates the principles of self-help, for education that bears the sign manual of practicability and that finds its principal field in channels hitherto neglected, for the beautification of the home, the enforcement of health laws, the systematic relief of suffering, the broad advance of general culture—cannot be told in brief editorial compass.

They have, however, demonstrated beyond peradventure that women have a mission in public life and endeavor hardly less important than that of the man, and that it is being materialized through those same characteristics that make the mother and the wife, the daughter, the sister and the sweetheart the regnant forces behind civilization.

A Star and a Moral.

The abrupt disappearance from New York of Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, and his equally abrupt return, has been the means of creating one of those striking instances in real life wherein the man and the opportunity unite in almost dramatic coincidence.

Up to the date of Hitchcock's flight, one of the most obscure members of the cast playing "The Yankee Tourist" had been Wallace Beery. He was considered the merest mummer, one of those pieces of living stage mechanism as necessary to the theatrical profession as the submerged human cog is to every other line of endeavor.

He had given no indication of exceptional histrionic talents. Apparently his only claims to distinction were his tall, swaying frame and his shambling gait, recalling some of the more pronounced physical characteristics of Hitchcock himself.

Yet at a moment's notice he assumed the role formerly held by that comedian of national reputation. The next morning Broadway and the newspapers were using exclamation points over the discovery of a new star in the theatrical firmament. He is said to equal if not excel, Hitchcock, and predictions of his future are of the most lavish description.

It was an accident, or fate, that brought him his opportunity. The man could hardly have foreseen it. And yet he was prepared when it knocked at his door. His companions had probably imagined he was lost in or crushed by the drudgery that fell to his lot, but developments prove that all of the time he was silently, arduously, conscientiously equipping himself for the emancipation which his self-confidence told him must come sooner or later.

The moral—that of hard work and preparedness—is so obvious as to make elaboration banal. The value of both, however, have been demonstrated in such spectacular fashion in the current instance as to drive home the lesson to young men of ambition and ability, tempted by indolence or pessimism to adopt such an indifferent attitude towards their work as to render them helpless in the face of opportunities when the latter actually put in an appearance.

Commercial and industrial life throughout America holds its substantial rewards for men with Beery's energy and foresight, though that fact may not often be demonstrated in so dramatic a manner as in the case of the fortunate young follower of the stage.

Hitchcock has returned and Beery once more resumes his original and unpretentious role. From the manner, however, in which he demonstrated himself equal to the opportunity, it is not difficult to predict that he will not remain long in obscurity.

"Commonwealth" and the "Average Man."

In a recent communication to The Constitution, the Hon. Henry R. Goetchius, of Columbus, Ga., commends several consecutive editorials in this paper which sought to show the dominant rule in national life played by the "average man," and his tremendous responsibilities in the premises, adding: "I believe the press has it in its power to do greater good than even the pulpit and men high in public esteem, as are Mr. Bryan and the president, in driving the thought in your editorials into the minds of the people."

The incident recalls the keen sympathy this sterling citizen of Columbus has for many years manifested in the recognition of the individual no less than the mass, and closer relations between employer and employee, capitalist and the most obscure private in the army of toil. His sentiments were expressed at a meeting of the Georgia Cotton Mill Association several years ago, when he said, in part:

If I were asked what, in my opinion, was the most important question to be first considered by all managers of corporations, I would answer that it was to have a care, that the individuality of the employee was not lost. When the man in the great railway system, or the cotton mill, or the mine, or the foundry, becomes no more than the bolt in the rail, or the shuttle in the loom, or a pick in the hand, or a pulley in the shaft, not only the man who employs him suffers, but all society suffers. Individuality gives moral tone to one who promotes and makes men, and we must have men if we would have an ideal state. . . . . I have always maintained that it is capital well invested for employer and employee to know and understand each other. One of the chief causes of the conflict between capital and labor lies in the disappearance of the friendly intercourse which formerly existed between master and men.

Mr. Goetchius stresses the importance of the unit of citizenship, the individual, the "average man," and his reasoning suggests two deductions of particular timeliness.

That the individual, the average man, should himself recognize his responsibility in the formation of the great political and industrial policies of the nation, not drifting into the indolent habit of letting others do his thinking and solve the problems of the age and the moment; and that closer cooperation between him and the recognized leaders of political and economic thought will vastly facilitate settlement of the questions that harass every expanding nation.

It is the citizen-in-the-mass, the man whose name never gets into the papers, the farmer, the mechanic, the clerk, the general employee working for wages or salary in skilled or unskilled occupations, who is most vitally interested in the maintenance of prosperity, the progress of development, the purity of national or local government, high or low prices for food, clothing and all commodities. His opinion of and his support or opposition to measures of relief, or policies which in any wise affect the state or the nation, must be, in the final analysis, the deciding factor.

It is, therefore, eminently to the interest of the men who nominally control the policies of the country, and on whose beck and call its wealth and industries and resources are supposed to wait, to cultivate the most candid and friendly relations with this average man; and it is to the interest of the latter to evince such an intelligent concern and such a liberality of spirit and of fraternity as will enable both factors to work in harmony toward the achievement of the mutual good.

In spite of spurious or artificial distinctions, the word "commonwealth," with the mutuality of interest it implies, defines the sociological and economic foundation of America. As a rule, what hurts or helps the man higher up, hurts or helps the "average man." The imperative wisdom, therefore, of close and sympathetic relations is very evident.

Goobers Forever!

Do you think you could live on "goobers," or pindars, or peanuts, whichever you elect to call them, for two months, laughing and growing fat on the unusual diet?

That is what President Thomas J. Allen, of Aurora college, Illinois, has agreed to do, and from present indications he will accomplish the feat with flying colors—or peanut shells.

One of the health officers in Aurora was sufficiently indiscreet, a few weeks ago, to declare that a man had come to his death through eating peanut taffy. President Allen, who is an enthusiastic vegetarian and an especial lover of the succulent goober, grew righteously wrathful over the aspersion.

So he expressed his determination to subsist for sixty days on a lone diet of peanuts, expressing the conviction that the expiration of that time would witness his having gained in health and flesh.

Three other gentlemen came in on the deal, one guaranteeing to uphold the supremacy of sauer-kraut, another that of green onions and the third that of baked beans. The green onion man has given up the fight, while the others continue to demolish quantities of sauer-kraut, goobers and beans—with the professor several miles to the good.

There is one signifiant fact that makes us entirely confident as to the outcome. Professor Allen has singled out the Georgia goober to make good his gastronomic boast. We have enjoyed extensive observation anent this seductive nut, at circuses and fairs and on numerous private occasions, and require no testimony regarding its staying qualities.

If the ethics of gambling did not forbid a wager on a certainty, our surplus cash would go with a rush to the munching and debonair professor.

"Just From Georgia"

The Puzzled Inhabitant.

I.

Weather is mighty perplexin', winters are powerful long;
It's 'way in the deep o' the summer 'fore you're hearin' a mockin'bird's song;
Can't tell when to look for the flowers; the weather, so powerful gray,
Plays with the p'ints o' the compass an' frightens the flowers away!

II.

Weather is mighty perplexin', 'pears like we're changin' about;
The lilies are lost by the wayside, an' never know when to come out!
An' I'm thinkin' the way it's a-goin', there'll soon be no springtime or fall,
An' we'll come to the place in this country we'll thank God we're livin' at all!

* * * * *

Of course, the weather man misses it sometimes, but the wise citizen never leaves home without his blizzard-fender, and fails not to use his umbrella as a walking cane.

* * * * *

The Georgia Mule.

All that glistens isn't gold—
So we read in books,
Neither is the Georgia mule
Stubborn as it looks!

* * * * *

Fine Summers All.

During the recent heavy rain a political office was washed into the river.—Kentucky Exchange.

Let rains descend and rivers rise
Beneath the heavens dim;
The candidates who seek the prize
Like swiftest ducks can swim!

Let every office sweep to sea
And hold itself aloof;
The candidate at least will be
Triumphant on the roof!

* * * * *

Cyrus Townsend Brady has written twelve novels in three years. That's a sample of the rate at which we're making literature in this country!

* * * * *

When an author's books are not popular he consoles himself with the reflection that he is writing for posterity.

* * * * *

His Song of Trouble.

Oh, de days er man
Is mighty full er pain!
I got de rheumatism
An' de rattlin' er de brain;
An' I bleege ter lef' de big road,
An' I'll never turn de lane,
Trouble—trouble in de mawnin'!

Oh, de days er man
Full o' trouble, fur an' wide;
I got de chill an' fever
An' de mis'ry in my side,
An' I 'bleege ter hunt fer kiver,
An' I fail ter stem de tide,
Trouble—trouble in de mawnin'!

* * * * *

In the Billville District.

"How far is it to the next town?"
"Right smart piece."
"How many yards?"
"Well, there's my yard, and the Widder Jones' yard—that's all."
"You're smart, ain't you?"
"No; I'm Brown!"

* * * * *

On the Shelf.

"How's your husband now?"
"Poor man, he's laid up at home, with the rheumatism. All he is able to do now is to mind the baby, split the kindling, answer the door bell an' run errands to the grocery store!"

* * * * *

The Happy Time.

Wouldn't give the country in the winter fer the town,
Juicy cane mills goin' an' the apples comin' down;
'Taters in the ashes an' the 'possum bakin' brown!

Summer had its troubles whar we blistered in the heat,
But we saw the winter comin', with the brown leaves at his feet,
An' we knew he'd bring our partners with rosy lips an' sweet!

* * * * *

A "literary" bureau advertises for plots for novels, but a man with a good plot in hand won't sell out.

* * * * *

Word from Br'er Williams.

Even ef coal is beyond de sinner's reach in dis worl', he got de consolation er knowin' it'll all be free ter him hereafter.

F. L. S.

An Appeal to Reason.

Editor Constitution: In your issue of November 6 you publish an editorial entitled, "The Railroad Death Mill," which, while both startling and true, is defective in not giving the real cause of the evils complained of and thereby showing the remedy.

All these evils have existed for years, existed before the wave of confiscatory legislation swept over the country. The "reformers" could not get the ears of the populace to work themselves into office by advocating the proper remedy of requiring the railroads to improve their equipment, roadbed and service, but took advantage of the popular ill-will and promised the masses cheap rates, with about as much wisdom as they promised cheap money in 1896.

Unfortunately these "reformers" have forced the railroads to cut down their incomes so that they cannot make money enough even for fixed charges, and, of course, have nothing for improvements.

This adverse legislation has also frightened the people who ordinarily furnish money for railroads so that they dare not lend any, and it is now impossible for the roads to get money to make any of the necessary improvements for the protection of life and property in transportation.

Surely the pendulum has swung far enough during the past year in one direction to be ready to swing back.

With the shop forces of the railroads all over the country cut down and in many instances suspended altogether, with the lumber interests of the south paralyzed, with the banks on the verge of having to close their doors, with many of the railroads in danger of receivership when January interest shall become due, surely we have had now object lessons enough to convince the most stupid, if not to convert the most stiff-necked.

Let us hope that conservatism and justice will reassert itself before the next sessions of the legislatures of Georgia and other states, and that in the meantime railroad commissions and governors will be sobered by the ruin they and the legislators have wrought. Then we can hope for such regulations as will enable the railroads to earn sufficient income to be able to do what is needed, and that they be required to do what is needed in the way of safeguarding the lives and limbs of passengers and employees, and improving the general efficiency of the service along the lines you suggest.

Nothing that is cheap is ever worth having. You never get more than you pay for. This is just as true in the matter of service of public utility corporations as in buying groceries or clothes. We must pay good, honest prices for good, honest service.

Restore the rates and improve the service. You cannot cut down your horse's rations and increase his work at the same time. If you try it you will soon have no horse. Every man capable of reason has seen the result of cutting down the rations of the railroads. Will the powers that be have sense enough to restore and rehabilitate in time to prevent death?

Some people, of course, are too stupid to even admit their errors; some have gall enough to charge their own sins to the other fellow, but the majority of the people are sensible enough to learn by experience and honest enough to correct their errors. Let us hope that these latter will soon assert themselves.

JOSEPH HANSELL MERRILL.
Thomasville, Ga., November 7, 1907.

CAPITOL GOSSIP

Under the recently enacted Dick law, by which the state troops of Georgia come under the national guard, there is provided for the appointment of assistant adjutants general in Georgia.

The first of these is announced as First Lieutenant Rodney Cohen, of company H, Second regiment, and detailed for duty in Augusta with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

The order creating this office and making this appointment is as follows:

Special orders, No. 197. Extract.

Atlanta, Ga., November 6, 1907.—Special Orders, No. 197. Extract: Under the provisions of Section 2, General Orders No. 11, current series, the officer hereinafter named is detailed, November 1, 1907, assistant adjutant general of Georgia, with the rank of lieutenant colonel and shall have all the rights and privileges of said rank, without forfeiture of his regular commission in the national guard.

"First Lieutenant, Rodney S. Cohen, company H, Third infantry, N. G., Georgia, Augusta, Ga.

"This officer will perform the regular duties pertaining to his regular commission and assignment, and when on duty with the governor or upon other occasions, the uniform of lieutenant colonel, assistant adjutant general of Georgia, will be worn.

"When the above duties conflict with that of the regular commission, the regular commission will be discharged unless otherwise directed.

"By order of the governor,
"(Signed.) A. J. SCOTT,
"Adjutant General."

Field Battery of Georgia.

Adjutant General A. J. Scott, of the national guard of Georgia, is in receipt of a letter from the United States war department in which he is advised that the field battery of four cannon, valued at $65,000, for which he has been working for the past three years, has been ordered shipped to him.

These batteries are made up of four 3-inch cannon of the most approved style, and will be the pride of the state national guard. There are two applicants for this cannon—the Chatham Artillery at Savannah and the Governor's Light Artillery of Savannah. Until their arrival at the arsenal at the state capitol no disposition of them will be made.

Deserters Ask Pensions.

Commissioner of Pensions John W. Lindsey is in receipt of a letter from Brigadier General F. C. Ainsworth, U. S. A., in charge of the military records at Washington, in reply to his query about certain applicants for pensions in Georgia.

Each of these 126 applicants for pensions from the state of Georgia, for service in the Confederate army, stated that at the time the war closed he was a prisoner in some federal prison. The record kept by General Ainsworth shows every prisoner in every federal prison all during the war, and is of invaluable service for instances of this kind.

In his reply he stated that of 126 mentioned it was shown that 16 had deserted the cause of the Confederacy, while in prison, and had sworn allegiance to the Stars and Stripes, and that of the 16 thus sworn 9 reenlisted in the Federal army to fight against the south.

Every year similar applications come to the commissioner, who sifts each to the bottom before approval. He has about completed the 1908 pension list, and states that the $950,000 appropriated for the payment of these pensions, which are to be paid quarterly instead of annually, as heretofore, will be enough without the state borrowing.

No License in Locker Tax.

In a letter written to Tax Collector T. F. Thompson of Chatham county, Comptroller General Wright declares that the $500 tax imposed upon clubs having lockers in no sense of the word is to be construed as a license to sell liquir, but simply as an occupation tax.

He writes: "You will therefore receipt for this tax as an occupation tax, and designate the same in your returns. This in nowise has even the semblance of a license by the state for the conduct of the business."

Telephone Hearing Postponed.

Inasmuch as the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph officials are to appear before the Alabama railroad commission on Tuesday, the hearing before the railroad commission which has been in progress in Atlanta this week will be postponed until a week from next Tuesday, when it will be resumed and concluded. Today is "routine day" with the commission, and a mass of matter will be taken up for consideration and action. Next week brings on another busy week for the commission.

LAYMEN ARE TO GATHER.

Laymen's Missionary Movement to Meet at Eatonton.

Eatonton, Ga., November 8.—(Special.) Extensive preparations and interesting programs are being prepared for the laymen's missionary movement, which convenes here on November 17, at the First Methodist church.

Among the out-of-town speakers will be Dr. Marion McHenry Hull, of Atlanta; Dr. W. W. Gaines, of Decatur; Hon. C. A. Rowland and Colonel C. W. Smith, of Inman Park.

Literary News and Comment

Mrs. Wharton's Powerful Novel.

THE FRUIT OF THE FREE. By Edith Wharton. Mrs. Wharton may have had no deeper motive in writing "The Fruit of the Tree" than to exercise her skill in the sharp, clear delineation of character, in which she has succeeded wonderfully well. But the analytical mind will find keener pleasure in this absorbing volume than the gratification produced by well-laid scenes and the thrill of following a stirring narrative. Mrs. Wharton conducts her readers through a psychological clinic. The disclosures made by the scalpel are softened by sympathy, but motives and passions that might elude the careless are patent to the discriminating reader. It was inevitable that Mrs. Wharton's pronounced success in depicting the complex character of Lily Bart and in tracing that young woman's pathetic footsteps through "The House of Mirth" would arouse special interest in the next serious product of her remarkable pen.

The disclosures of coldness and selfishness ingrained in the characters who live and move in "The House of Mirth" are tempered and softened in this later volume. John Amherst, inspired by ambitious plans for the social betterment of the operatives employed in the mill of which he is assistant manager, meets the beautiful young widow of the owner and unfolds to her his plans. The opposition which the mill company's officers entertain for the young man's "dreams" are set at naught by the sentimental interest aroused by Amherst in Bessy Westmore. This man to whom this work is the breath of life, marries the beautiful, petulent, spoiled woman, to whom the mills are only a source of income.

The humanitarian interest developed under the spell of Amherst's earnest appeals crumbles with the decreased revenues which the work entails. Temperamentally, socially and by all traditions totally unsuited, these two violent natures are driven apart. While Amherst is absent in Africa, Bessie, in open defiance of his request, goes horseback riding, is thrown and suffers a dislocation of the spine, with injury to the spinal chord. Justine Brent, who has been her girlhood friend and the governess for her young daughter, Cicely Westmore, becomes her nurse, and the head of the house at Westmore. By training a nurse and by frequent association with John Amherst, an admirer and strong friend, Justine's position is a dangerous one. Believing Bessie's case hopeless, having her fears almost fully confirmed by all the attending physicians save one, Justine in pure compassion administers an overdose of morphine.

Dr. Wyant alone had hopes of a successful outcome of the "case." He knows Justine's secret and profits by it in blackmailing her when she becomes Justine Amherst, second wife of John Amherst. Her husband has received a half interest in the mill under Bessie's will. They continue to live in the house Bessie's generosity had provided until Dr. Wyant's disclosures to her husband impel her to leave him to continue the mill work in behalf of his stepdaughter.

The inception and culmination of Justine's act, forbidden alike by Christianity and science, is traced by the author with relentless hand. The terrible revulsion of feeling on the part of Amherst, the blow to Bessie's father, the disintegrating effect of concealment upon herself. Finally the household is reunited and Justine becomes a mother to her devoted little friend, Cicely. Her punishment is severe, for she lives in an atmosphere from which the pure sunlight of happiness can never dispel the shadowy phantoms of fear.

Mrs. Wharton's work is sure to invite discussion. Some peculiarities of her characters which the author does not do more than advert to will appeal to the discriminating reader. Finally Dr. Wyant, the morphine fiend, who has by his disclosures wrecked the happy home of the Amhersts, is permitted to drop out of the story with hardly a ripple of the waters. Mrs. Ansel's final display of compassion and friendliness is a bit inconsistent, but otherwise the plot is developed with a sure, steady and masterful hand. (Publication by Charles Scribner's Sons, New York.)

Of Interest to the South.

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF OLIVER OTIS HOWARD, major general, United States army, dealing with many of the epochal battles of the civil war, and more particularly with the operations in the Carolinas, through Georgia and around Atlanta, the autobiography of General Howard will be received with extreme interest in the south no less than in other sections of the country. The work is in two large, well printed and handsomely bound volumes, and the author has developed a succinctness of style and a grace of narrative which lend charm to each of his chapters. One gets a more graphic idea of the momentous events of such a dramatic mile post in history as the four years' struggle from the testimony of an eyewitness, and General Howard has enlivened his descriptions of military and strategical movements with human incidents of a thoroughly refreshing nature. The chapters referring to Atlanta and its environs are particularly vivid, depicting the battle and the siege through the eyes of a man "on the other side," yet sufficiently removed from the event itself to let no bitterness nor heat of conflict warp his viewpoint. (Publication by the Baker & Taylor Company, New York.)

A Doggy Dog.

A DOG DAY. By Walter Emanuel. This little book is dedicated to W. W. Jacobs, the best humorist England has to offer us, and is thoroughly worthy of the dedication. It purports to be the confessions of a very doggy canine, of the sort that a man loves to have greet him when he comes home from a day's work, while a twinkle in his eye and a comprehending wag of his tail. The illustrations are by Cecil Alden, and, speaking in all sincerity, are more enjoyable than the text. For they show us the human nature in the dog, if such a comparison may be allowed. Mr. Alden has done his subject justice. Many of us have seen such a dog in every-day life and straightway let him entangle our affections, to our own good and the detriment of his digestion. The book is short, but deserving of a long patronage. (Publication by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.)

Just a Woman—and Why?

THREE WEEKS. By Elinor Glyn. The purely sex relations between man and woman will, of course, continue to feed literature to the end of the chapter, for reasons which those of us past the wisdom teeth stage know well enough. It continues, however, to be an everlasting puzzle why writers will use no more varnish than they do in exploiting them. Mrs. Glyn has built a fairly interesting story, ostensibly showing a man crude, babyish, conventional in every instinct and mental convolution, wakened into a vastly different and more aspiring creature by "love" for a lady who suddenly discovers a marvelous affinity for him. Students of human nature more discriminating than the author would call the attraction between the principal characters in the book by a less noble name, while seriously doubting whether anything marvelous could be evolved out of the very commonplace personalities which both possess. The theme—development of character and greatness out of love which civilization brands as illicit—is one teeming with dramatic possibilities. It has, in this instance, fallen into hands too weak to materialize them. (Publication by Duffield & Co., New York.)

Hot Stuff for the Kids.

FIVE LITTLE PEPPERS IN THE LITTLE BROWN HOUSE. By Margaret Sidney. The Pepper children have become national property almost as decidedly as Buster Brown and the wayward Katzenjammer Kids. In this new story they perform the usual cavortings, amusing to the "little boy and his papa" in about the same degree. Well illustrated, the make is apt to retain and strengthen the hold the winter enjoys over juvenile affections. (Publication by Lothrop, Lee & Shepard Co., Boston.)

Everyman's Library.

ANCIENT HEBREW LITERATURE. Arranged by the Rev. R. Bruce Taylor. The work under the foregoing caption takes the form of four well edited volumes, the contents of which are indicative of conscientious and able study. They are, however, only part of a series which cannot be otherwise than helpful to the average reader with ambitions toward that literary battlecry of today—self-education. The works already offered under this title cover 265 volumes of the best known authors and the classics. As the publishers express it:

"The true university in these days,' said Carlyle, 'is a collection of books.' The main idea of this new series is to make it easy for every one to obtain such a collection, and get at small cost all that is good, all that has worn well in English literature. It will not offer only the classic authors, it will reprint the Victorians with the Elizabethans, comparatively new authors with the old famous ones, and books for pure pleasure as well as for wisdom and knowledge. Arranged in sections, as of history, philosophy, belles lettres and so forth, it will make clear the relations of one kind of book to another, show the debt of a romance like 'Ivanhoe,' to a romantic historian like 'Froissart,' or set the poets side by side with a book of creative criticism like Coleridge's 'Biographia Literaria.' Thus for a small amount, the reader may have a whole bookshelf of the immortals." (Publication by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.)

For the Thrifty.

HOW TO INVEST YOUR SAVINGS. By Isaac F. Marcosson. Safe and sane counsel along financial lines is especially valuable to the man and woman of small means at the present writing. The advantage of economy, of savings and of small investments is being agitated as never before in American history. The writer of the volume under discussion wrote the series, "Your Savings," in The Saturday Evening Post, and is also responsible for several other series of like nature. He displays pronounced penetration regarding the financial trend of the day, and if he errs, does so on the side of conservatism. His advice is plentifully sprinkled with the red danger lights of "what to avoid"—hints as valuable at this day and age as what not to avoid. (Publication by Henry Altemus Company, Philadelphia.)

With the Pharaohs.

THINGS SEEN IN EGYPT. By Clive Holland. Books of travel multiply with tedious regularity. The author of this volume, however, has given us the genius of modern Egypt, squalid and pitiful in comparison with its ancient splendors, in compact compass and with startling vividness of image and speed of action. There is a rare sense of viewing things in the first person, a happy illusion that is heightened by the use of photographs which fitly illustrate the text. (Publication by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.)

Juvenile Fiction.

The crop of fall fiction for the nursery and for the rompers outside its boundaries is plentiful and variegated. Four interesting books which will accomplish amusement and edification in this direction are "Helen Grant, Senior," by Amanda M. Douglas; "Treasure Seekers of the Andes," by Edward Stratemeyer; "Dorothy Dainty at Home," by Amy Brooks, and "Kitty-Cat Tales," by Alice Van Leer Carrick. They run the range of childish adventure and motive, fresh, ingenuous and appealing, meeting the diverse needs of the boy and the girl whose taste for reading is in the formative state. (Publication by Lothrop, Lee & Shepard Company, Boston.)

Salome the Wicked.

SALOME. By Oscar Wilde. It is needless to speak in detail of this salmagundi of dullness and dramatic intensity, sublime beauty of poetic imagery, the sheer triumph of beautiful metaphor and simile, the exaltation of the passions that riot in the basest elements of human nature, the daring and sometimes blasphemous liberties taken with scriptural interpretation. This work of Wilde is familiar in theme and development, to readers of current events. It was scourged from the stage of New York, though it has been rapturously accepted in Paris and Berlin. The play has been attractively printed with an adequate introduction. (Publication by H. M. Caldwell Company, New York and Boston.)

A Good Holiday Story.

PETER: A CHRISTMAS STORY. By Mrs. Edwin Hohler. It is not easy to write a story adapted especially to Christmas and record a luminous success. The effort to write around a subject more or less trite and worn is almost as difficult to the trained writer as to the school boy essaying the unfamiliar composition. Mrs. Hohler has, however, succeeded in producing a rattling good holiday tale for children, brisk, rollicking with action, breaching the spirit of Yuletide. Her juvenile characters are convincing in their naivete, and the adventures into which they are being constantly catapulted do not lack in spirit and the rare charm of versatility. (Publication by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.)

Where the Lungs Breathe Free.

RED TOP RANCH. By Minna Caroline Smith. Another "juvenile" of unique interest is the book under the foregoing caption. Here childhood is put under an attractive setting—the big, virile plains of the west, where the wind sweeps without an obstacle and all of the world is the "out of doors" so dear to the high-beating heart of youth. (Publication by E. P. Dutton & Co., New York.)

MADDOX-RUCKER BANKING CO.
CORNER ALABAMA AND BROAD STREETS.
Capital $200,000.00
Surplus and Undivided Profits $600,000.00
Commercial accounts invited.
4 % Interest paid and compounded twice a year in our Savings Department.

COMPRESSED COTTON RATE TALKED FOR SECOND DAY

More Testimony and Argument Heard by the Railroad Commission — Harvie Jordan Speaks

No Decision.

Havie Jordan, president of the Southern Cotton Association, amended his petition before the railroad commission yesterday morning, in regard to two classifications for cotton, compressed and uncompressed, when that subject was continued.

He stated that acting as president of the association he would ask for that which his association was on record as wanting: "Same rate for cotton of equal density of compression to be paid by the railroads to small compresses of the state as now paid the big compresses of Georgia," and he further read a letter from the Continental Gin Company of Texas in which it was stated that this was being done in that state and was meeting with universal satisfaction.

This is practically the same suggestion as proposed by Commissioner Callaway at the session on yesterday, and it was pointed out by Attorney Little, representing the Georgia Ginners' Association that this would be in the nature of a rebate when a shipper or cotton buyer owned an interest in the compress.

Lincoln Green on Stand.

The feature of morning session testimony was the evidence of Lincoln Green the state expert for the Southern when questioned by Commissioner Callaway.

The compress at Toccoa is owned by the cotton firm of Inman, Akers & Inman, is it not?" asked Mr. Callaway.

"I think it is," replied Mr. Green.

"Well, don't they buy and sell cotton and compress it, too?"

"Yes, they do," replied Mr. Green.

"And don't your road pay them for this?"

"I think they do," replied Mr. Green, "but I am not sure."

"Well, isn't that something like a rebate?"

"I think that it is, and if it is so it must stop. The law is clear on this question."

It was pointed out that similar conditions applied to the compress at Elberton said to be owned by shippers and buyers.

After Mr. Hanson was examined and Mr. Green the commission settled itself to hear the arguments in the case as made by Attorneys Little and Yeomans in opposition to the proposed change and Mr. Jordan in support of it.

The arguments were in each instance an elaboration upon the evidence as submitted by the witnesses on yesterday and today.

The commission reserved its decision on the question until later.

ROUTINE OF SESSION

When the commission assembled at 9:30 o'clock to open this case Commissioners Hill and Hillyer, the absentees on Thursday were in their seats.

Mr. Jordan, the author of the petition which brought about this interesting hearing was the first to address the commission and stated that he wished to amend his original petition by asking that the small compresses of the state be paid for compressing cotton to the same density as the large compresses, the same rate as now paid by the railroads.

After him came Lincoln Green, the Southern railroad rate expert, who stated that he was in sympathy with the intentions of Mr. Jordan which looked to better handling of the great southern staple, but that his method had more to do with interstate movements than intrastate. He further added that all roads were against concentration for the simple reason that it meant congestion and lost motion.

He was followed on the stand by Mr. Hanson, the president of the Atlantic Compress Company, the owner of several large gins and the secretary of the Georgia Ginners' Association.

Jordan Questions Hanson.

Mr. Jordan cross questioned Mr. Hanson at length.

"You are interested in the Gulf Compressing Company of Mississippi, are you not," began Mr. Jordan. To which an affirmative answer was given.

"Is it not true that a recent decision of the court in Mississippi imposed a heavy fine upon you all and gave you a specified time in which to get on an independent basis on the ground that you were operating a public monopoly?"

"It is not," came the quick reply of Mr. Hanson. "We were not fined and that is not the decision of the court."

"Well what was it?" continued Mr. Jordan.

Here Mr. Little, counsel for Mr. Hanson, interrupted and asked the commission if this had any bearing on the question at issue. It was ruled out and the hearing continued.

At the conclusion of the examination the arguments were undertaken. Mr. Little spoke first and for two hours he went over the testimony. He cited any number of decisions with bearing on the question; showed the chances for rebates and declared that it would mean simply the survival of the fittest.

He declared that testimony had proven that the small ginner would go and the big one would stay.

As he concluded the commission adjourned until 2:30 when Attorney M. J. Yeomans argued for a half hour in opposition to the proposed change and Mr. Jordan, acting as his own lawyer, spoke in defense of his project. He declared that it was an economic fact that should be recognized that where, by compression, you would haul twice as much in the same space as formerly there should be a reduction in the rate on each separate article in the car which took up only half the space as formerly. He made a strong plea for his petition.

A New Brooch For a Gift

Something distinctive, smart, well worth bestowing, and quite sure to be charmingly welcomed by the recipient, would be one of the new brooches, of which we are showing a superb line just now.

They possess all the taste, skill and grace in their making that the modern master of jewel-craft knows how to lavish on an artistic production.

The variety is exceedingly broad, with a corresponding range of price. All tastes and all purses may be satisfied.

From Three Dollars Upward.

Maier & Berkele

HIGHER RATES GIVEN SANCTION

How Commission Confirmed Increase It Sought to Prevent.

What seems to have defeated its own end was the General Order No. 6, issued by the railroad commission of Georgia on Monday, whereby the "schedules, tariffs, rules, regulations and charges of all terminal companies, wharves, docks, etc., are at once made the schedules, charges, etc., of the commission and can not be changed without the consent of the commission."

It was stated that this order was directed to forestall a proposed increase from 1 1-2 to 3 cents per hundred on all shipside movements at the Georgia ports.

At the hearing before the railroad commission on the subject of a differential rate on compressed cotton it was stated that effective on September 2 the "shipside rate" of 1 1-2 cents per hundred pounds had been abolished by the railroads at the ports and in lieu thereof a rate of 3 cents a hundred pounds "handling charges" had been substituted.

This being the case the order of the commission "adopts as its own" this higher rate, "which cannot be changed without the consent of the commission."

In speaking of this matter Lincoln Green, the rate expert of the Southern, said: "I know this abolition of the shipside rate of 1 1-2 cents a hundred by the Southern became effective on September 2. We had to make this change on account of the great risk imposed upon us as carriers when it was in effect.

"The 'handling charge' of 3 cents a hundred is universal and by this change the risk is lowered and the commodity is put under 'warehouse risk' instead of the much heavier 'carrier's risk.'

"I am advised that the Central of Georgia, which owns the major portion of the terminal facilities at Savannah, made this change October 2. They handle for us and we pay them."

He further stated that this applied in almost every instance to interstate shipments, which were beyond the province of the railroad commission of Georgia. This rate has been posted with the interstate commerce commission and could not be changed within sixty days. He states that all cotton shipped to Savannah for local consumption is simply charged the flat rate of freight and not the "handling charge" of 3 cents.

AUTUMN GLORY

Can be captured with a kodak. All kinds and sizes, $1 to $35. Supplies and finishing. A. K. Hawkes Co., 14 Whitehall and 125 Peachtree (Candler bldg.)

FROM MOBILE TO CUBA.

Negotiations Already Under Way for Laying the Cable.

Mobile, Ala., November 8.—A cable from Mobile to Cuban ports is what is proposed by J. H. Waterbury, general superintendent inspector of the Western Union Telegraph Company, who is in Mobile today. Mr. Waterbury says that negotiations are already under way for the laying of the cable, but further than this he will say nothing. At present the cable business to Cuban ports from Mobile goes by way of New Orleans.

CHOLERA ON THE DECREASE

Cold Weather Is Putting the Dread Plague to Flight.

St. Petersburg, November 8.—Cholera is everywhere on the decrease in Russia, owing to the influence of the cold weather, and the danger this year is regarded as being over. It is considered certain, however, that cholera will break out again in localities next season, and a conference has been called to meet in St. Petersburg to discuss preventive measures.

Charged With Selling Whisky.

Valdosta, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—C. M. DeLong, steward at the Elks' Club, in this city, was arrested by the police today on a charge of selling whisky in violation of the prohibition law. He was placed under a bond of $100 for his appearance before Mayor Roberts next Monday morning. It is understood that probably fifty members of the club will be summoned to testify in the case.

CARMACK MAKES A FINE ADDRESS

Tennessee Orator Pays Visit to Atlanta.

TALKS OF GOVERNOR'S RACE

Will Run on Prohibition Platform. He Is a Man of Striking Personality—Lecture Interested and Pleased Large Audience at Tabernacle.

Senator E. W. Carmack, of Tennessee, whose term in the United States senate recently expired and who is a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of his state, arrived in Atlanta yesterday morning, and last evening he addressed a large audience at the Baptist Tabernacle in a lecture on "The New Age."

Yesterday morning a large number of prominent citizens called upon Senator Carmack at the Piedmont hotel, and in the afternoon he was entertained by Hon. John Temple Graves and Chief Henry Jennings.

Senator Carmack's lecture was for the benefit of the Police Relief Association, and quite a handsome sum was realized. The senator is a gifted orator, and his subject was one that interested and pleased the audience.

His subject, "The New Age," was well handled. His discourse was based on the idea that the civilization of the past was on a false foundation and that the only true and lasting government must be that which holds to the fundamental principle of the brotherhood of mankind. He took the position that the doctrines of the Christian religion have been gaining ground through all the centuries, but its influence has been held in check by the passions and sentiments generated by war. He believed that at last this influence will lose its force and that we are now in sight of the time when war will be a thing of the past and when the influence of the Christian religion will be left free and untrameled to do its perfect work.

The senator has never been on the lecture platform. The lecture he delivered in Atlanta last evening had been made only two or three times before.

Of a Striking Personality.

Senator Carmack is a man of striking personality. His genial smile makes one wish to have him for a friend, but there is in his clear gray eye, that looks straight and honestly at you, an expression which lets you know that it would not be safe to play him false.

His hair, slightly curly, is of that reddish brown which painters would probably call Titian. His mustache is of the same color, tinged with gray. His eyebrows stand out from his forehead and shade the deep-set eyes, which would make a traitor uncomfortable. He dresses with the long Prince Albert coat, light trousers, a plain, unjeweled black necktie, a very high standing collar and an Alpine hat.

He talks slowly, and his sentences are all well rounded. His laugh is hearty, and his frown disconcerting.

When seen by a representative of The Constitution at the Piedmont yesterday morning, he was in his room jotting down a few notes for his lecture. He said he never wrote out his speeches, and depended solely upon headnotes. In answer to questions asked him by The Constitution reporter, the senator said:

Talks About Governor's Race.

"Yes, I am a candidate for governor of Tennessee, and I will be opposed in the democratic primary by the incumbent, Governor Patterson. It is true that one of the planks of my platform is prohibition, but that will not be the only issue in the campaign. I do not care, however, at this time to go into the details of my race. So far, I feel highly encouraged, and my friends think I will have a safe majority for the nomination. The reports from all over the state are very favorable."

He said that the democratic primary would take place some time next summer, the matter being in the hands of the state executive committee.

He served six years in the United States senate, his term expiring this year. He was on the committee on the Philippines, and took an active part in all the measures affecting that annex to the United States. He was a member of the interstate commerce committee, and helped to frame the rate bill. In the debates about the Brownsville affair he was a noted speaker.

He made one of the most notable filibustering speeches ever heard in the United States senate. In opposition to the ship subsidy bill he spoke two days, and held the floor of the senate until the hour of final adjournment.

Senator Carmack's home is in Memphis, where he once edited one of the leading dailies of that city. He is popular with the people, and has many warm friends both in private life and in politics. It is said of him that he never forgets a friend and is always ready to face an enemy.

He made a most agreeable impression on those who met him during his visit to Atlanta, and there are now a many Georgians who will be happy to congratulate him on his election as governor of Tennessee.

The senator will return to his home this morning.

Tribute to Graves.

Senator Carmack was introduced by Hon. John Temple Graves and in opening his address said:

"I thank and blame my honorable friend for the cruel kindheartedness which has induced him to present me to this audience in such a way as to raise expectations which cannot be realized. It is a trying ordeal at best for one to make his first appearance in the city which has heard so often the silver tongue of the immortal Grady, and which still keeps, though it must soon lose, my eloquent and distinguished friend. While I join with you in a feeling of deep regret that we shall lose his genial presence, we know that his heart will never wander far from its home, and that no northern winter can chill the ardor of his southern blood. I rejoice in the hope that he has found a wider field for his genius and his usefulness and in the knowledge that he will set the impress of his southern character and his southern sympathies upon the great journal with which he is to be connected. While we grieve that he must go, yet we must feel that he is right in going: for if the missionary would do his full duty he must go where the heathen live."

No human hand touches

DR. PRICE'S WHEAT FLAKE CELERY FOOD

from its first process of manufacture until it is served for the table. It is composed of Wheat, Celery and Salt. Not a trace of any other substance. Its daily use has a tonic and laxative effect. 38

10 cents a package.
For sale by all Grocers

POSITIONS SECURED OR MONEY BACK
CONTRACT given, backed by $300,000.00 capital and 18 years' SUCCESS
DRAUGHON'S PRACTICAL Business College
ATLANTA, 122 Peachtree St., and Jacksonville.
Bookkeeping, Banking, Shorthand, Penmanship, Telegraphy, etc. Indorsed by business men. Also teach by mail. Write, phone, or call for catalog.
30 COLLEGES IN 17 STATES

Fiber Trunks

Rawhide bound, fine bronze hardware, Yale lock; absolutely the finest and most durable trunks made; retains an aristocratic appearance through any kind of usage. Prices reasonable, considering quality.

Rountree's Trunk & Leather Goods Store.
W. Z. TURNER, Manager.
77 Whitehall Street.

Eiseman Bros.
Baltimore, Md.

The Old Reliable Manufacturing Clothiers
ATLANTA

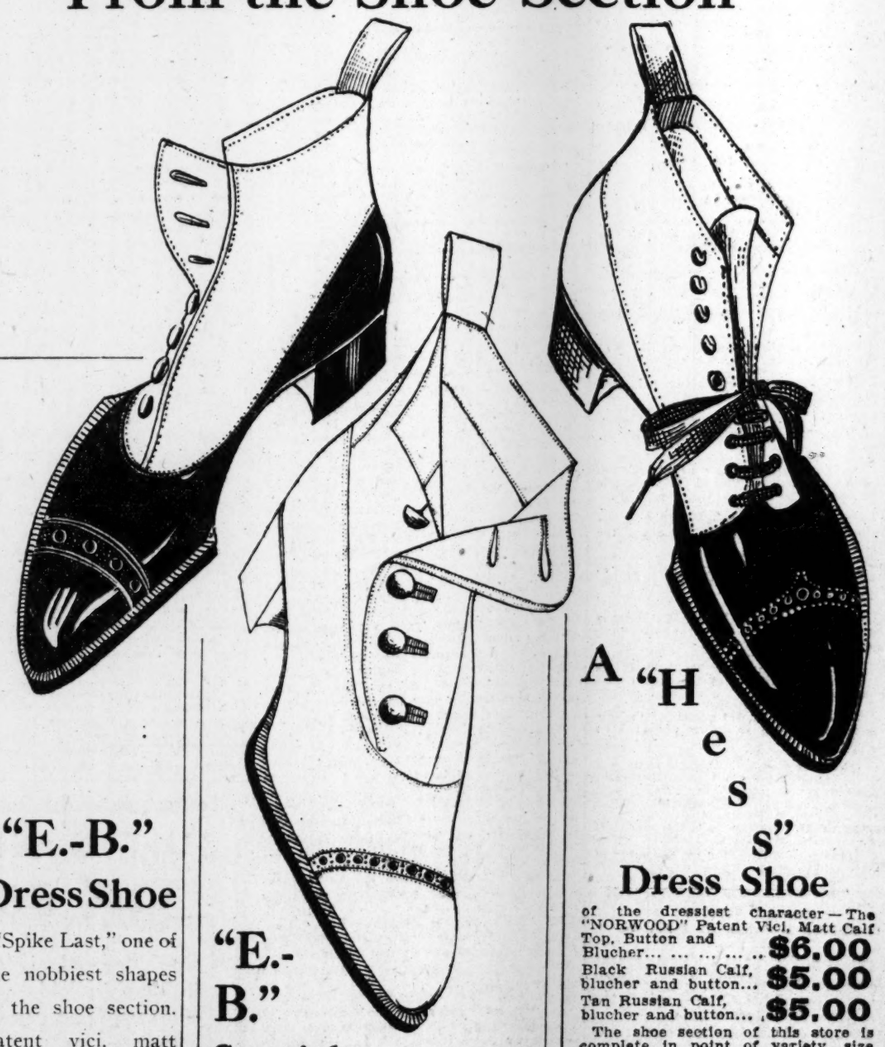

Eiseman Bros.
Washington, D. C.

The "Telescope" style harmonizes becomingly to youthful faces, and the shapes and combination possible in this type of headgear converts them in a trice from the "sedate" to the "swagger" as befits the disposition or the occasion.

Our line embraces all the most popular shapes in all the modish colors. Tans, fawn, brown, gray, pearl and black.
Style authoritative—Quality the best.

A Triumphant Trio From the Shoe Section

"E.-B." Dress Shoe
"Spike Last," one of the nobbiest shapes in the shoe section. Patent vici, matt kid top, button,
$5.00

"E.-B." Special
A semi-conservative last of modish design. Tan and black; button and bluchers.
Gun metal, blucher and button....$4.00
Gun metal, blucher and button..$3.50
Patent colt, blucher and button...$3.50
Patent colt, button and blucher, patent lace stay... ... ...$4.00
Tan Russian calf blucher $4.00

A "Hess" Dress Shoe of the dressiest character—The "NORWOOD" Patent Vici, Matt Calf Top, Button and Blucher... ... ...$6.00
Black Russian Calf, blucher and button... $5.00
Tan Russian Calf, blucher and button... $5.00
The shoe section of this store is complete in point of variety, size and style, and as for quality, no stock is a higher representative than the line we sell.

SPECIAL
We are now prepared to supply you at all times with the famous
"E. & W." COLLARS
In ¼ Sizes

SHIRTS

Our big shirt stock embraces the celebrated E. & W. and Manhattans in a veritable wealth of variety. Exclusively choice patterns in dots, stripes and figures in the new modish colors and combinations.

The "E.-B." Special $1.00 Shirt
Our own make, the E.-B. Special Dollar Shirt, is a marvel for quality, fit and finish, and is the most perfectly made garment in the $1.00 shirt class. Complete range of sizes and combinations for fitting every stature in big variety of patterns and colors.
Check your shirt stock and replenish for Sunday.

HABERDASHERY
Our immense stock of NECKWEAR embraces all the popular shapes in a regular maze of modish colors—all the apparel incidentals that round out the niceties of a man's wardrobe are found in great abundance and variety in this department.

UNDERWEAR
Medium and heavy weight garments in cotton and wool textures and their combinations.
Sole agents in Atlanta for Dr. Deimel's Linen Mesh, and the Stuttgarter Sanitary Underwear.

TRUNKS
Traveling Bags, Suit Cases Travelers' Requisites Generally
We wish to call particular attention to this very complete department of the "BIG STORE."
Railway and Steamer trunks—all varieties of Hand Bags and Suit Cases—Hat Cases—Toilet Outfits and individual Toilet Articles of necessity and convenience to the traveler.

EISEMAN BROS. 11, 13, 15, 17 Whitehall St. ATLANTA

SOCIETY

To Mrs. Peeples.

A happy affair of yesterday was the afternoon tea given by Misses Martha and Bessie Woodward, when they invited a limited number of guests to meet Mrs. Howell Peeples, who has recently arrived in Atlanta from her wedding trip.

Mrs. Peeples, as Miss Nan Payne, has been much admired and made many friends in Atlanta on the occasions of her several visits with Mr. and Mrs. J. Carroll Payne, and she was cordially welcomed yesterday. She was looking particularly pretty in a pale blue chiffon gown flowered in violets, and her charming hostesses wore becoming toilets of white, Miss Bessie Woodward's gown of crepe de chine and Irish lace, and Miss Martha Woodward's of chiffon cloth.

In the parlor, where they received their guests, and in the library, where punch was served, there were tasteful decorations of palms with vases of pink chrysanthemums. Tea and a variety of dainty sandwiches were served in the dining room, where the table, with its candles in pink and white, had a centerpiece of pink chrysanthemums and silver candelabra with pink chrysanthemum shades.

Assisting in the entertainment of the guests were a number of prettily gowned young women. They were: Mrs. Andrew Calhoun, Mrs. Jack Hayes, Mrs. Edward Fortson, Mrs. Toulman Williams, Mrs. I. S. Mitchell, Jr., Mrs. Livingston Thompson, Misses Laura Payne, Elizabeth High, Mary Brent Smith, Edith Russell, Claire Guerard, Elizabeth Westmoreland, Lottie Wyly, Emma Belle Lowndes, Katherine Trigg and Katherine Martin, of Chattanooga.

McCandless-Thompson.

An announcement of interest is that of the marriage of Miss Mary Marr McCandless, of Louisville, and Mr. Robert J. Thompson, of Chicago, which took place recently at the bride's home, and which is spoken of as follows in a Louisville paper:

"The marriage of Miss Mary Marr McCandless, of this city, and Mr. Robert J. Thompson, of Chicago, which has just occurred, will be of interest to the many friends of each of the young people. Miss McCandless is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay McCandless, of Louisville. Her father is one of the best known live stock men in Louisville and a director in the Bourbon Stock Yards bank. Miss McCandless finished school at the Chevy-Chase college, near Washington, last winter, is a charming young woman, with a host of friends in this city and the east. Mr. Thompson is the youngest son of Mrs. Henrietta Hill Thompson, of Washington, D. C., is a civil engineer of the Chicago and Alton railroad. He is a southerner and a grandson of the late United States Senator Benjamin H. Hill, of Georgia. The young couple will reside in Illinois."

To Miss Thomas.

Miss Florence Dennis entertained at bridge yesterday morning at the home of her aunt, Miss Annie Dennis, on Linden street, and the occasion was an enjoyable one in honor of Miss Bertha Thomas, of Eatonton.

The house was decorated with handsome palms and ferns and with yellow and white crysanthemums, and the game was followed by a delicious luncheon.

Miss Lillian Harris won the first prize, a sewing apron, and Miss Mildred Harris cut the consolation, a pair of embroidery scissors. Miss Thomas was presented a piece of lingerie.

Miss Dennis was gowned in blue rajah silk, and Miss Thomas wore heliotrope silk with a lace waist.

Cercle Francais.

Mlle. Figuiera has chosen for the talk of her Cercle Francais this afternoon "La Renaissance and the Women of the Court of that Period"—Marguerite d'Angouleme, Diane de Portiers, Catherine de Medicis, etc.

Box Party.

Mrs. John B. Roberts will give a matinee box party at the Grand today in compliment to Miss Aline Patterson.

Silver Tea.

The ladies of St. Luke's Episcopal church are cordially invited to come, bringing their friends, to a silver tea at 176 Angier avenue, the afternoon of Thursday, November 14. Take the Boulevard or Forrest avenue cars. Hot tea will be given by the following committee for their church: Mrs. A. L. Beecher, Miss Blanche Beecher, Mrs. W. F. Williams, Mrs. F. L. Henry, Mrs. J. E. Wilhelm, Mrs. McWhinney, Mrs. J. V. Johnston, Mrs. A. R. Shumate, Mrs. W. Harry Scott, Mrs. C. J. Kamper, chairman.

Berry-Meyer.

Mrs. Ella R. Berry has issued the announcement of the marriage of her daughter, Norburn, to Mr. Carl Frederic Meyer, Wednesday, October 30, 1907, at St. Louis.

Cake Sale.

The young ladies of the First Christian church will hold their regular Saturday sale at the Milton Bradley toy store, 168 Peachtree street, November 9. Homemade brown bread and cakes will be on sale.

Rummage Sale.

The young ladies of the First Christian church will hold a rummage sale at 219 Auburn avenue Saturday, November 9.

Grimke-Boykin.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Florence Carroll Grimke and Mr. Kennedy Boykin, both of Charleston, their marriage to take place at an early date.

Miss Grimke is a charming young woman who is pleasantly known in Atlanta through her several visits to Mrs. Pedder, Mrs. Nash Broyles and Mrs. Lloyd Parks. She is popular in the social life in Charleston, and Mr. Boykin, who is of the prominent family of that name from Camden, is well known in the social club and business life of South Carolina.

Bridge Luncheon.

Miss Emma Belle Lowndes entertained at bridge luncheon yesterday in compliment to Miss Augusta Garrett, and the affair was a beautiful one of twelve guests.

The house had an attractive decoration in handsome palms and pink chrysanthemums, and in the dining room, where an elegant buffet luncheon was served, the table was artistic in pink. The centerpiece was of chrysanthemums, the candlesticks had pink silk shades and the bonbons were in pink.

The first prize, silk stockings, was won by Miss Lucy Harrison, and the consolation, hand-embroidered handkerchiefs, by Mrs. Estelle Garrett Baker. Miss Garrett was presented a silk matinee.

Miss Lowndes wore a gray silk gown and Irish lace, and Miss Garrett wore a blue cloth tailor gown with a lace waist and her walking hat was trimmed with a blue bird.

Dinner Party.

Miss Louise Hawkins' dinner last night at the Piedmont Driving Club was a beautiful affair, at which she entertained Miss Leonora Owsley, Mr. Charles B. Ackley and their bridesmaids and groomsmen.

The party of twenty were seated around a table brilliant in yellow, the centerpiece of chrysanthemums, and the occasion was most enjoyable.

Miss Hawkins was a charming hostess, wearing a white chiffon gown embroidered in pink, and a black velvet hat trimmed with plumes.

Rehearsal Party.

Mr. Jesse Couch will entertain at dinner at the Piedmont Driving Club on the evening of the 19th in compliment to Miss Aline Patterson and Mr. John Milam.

Miss Calloway to Entertain.

Miss Grace Calloway will entertain at bridge Monday afternoon in compliment to Miss Augusta Garrett.

Bridge Party.

Miss Gladys Levin will entertain at luncheon on the morning of the 19th, in compliment to Miss Aline Patterson.

To Miss Patterson.

Miss Louise Hawkins will entertain at luncheon next Friday in compliment to Miss Aline Patterson.

Afternoon Tea.

Miss Frances Connally will give a large afternoon tea on Wednesday in compliment to Miss Morton of Memphis and Miss Laura Bond of Savannah. Two hundred guests will be invited to meet them.

Bridge Party.

Mrs. Howell Cloud will entertain at bridge Thursday morning in compliment to Miss Aline Patterson.

Informal Luncheon.

Miss Elizabeth Gregg will entertain informally at luncheon today, and her guests will be Mrs. Fred Hodgson, Mrs. T. B. Lumpkin, Mrs. Hugh Gordon, Jr., Mrs. Hugh McClellan, Miss Helen Muse, Miss Mabel Taylor, Mrs. John Corrigan, Jr., Miss Augusta Garrett, Miss Martha Boynton.

Miss Van Epps to Entertain.

Miss Minnie Van Epps will entertain at afternoon tea on Thursday in compliment to Miss Augusta Garrett.

Box Party.

Mrs. John B. Roberts will give a matinee box party at the Grand today in compliment to Miss Aline Patterson, and the other guests will be Misses Leone Ladson, Hattie Fannie Gray, Louise Hawkins, Mary Brent Smith and Gladys Levin.

Up-Jinks Party.

Miss Ruth Paden entertained the North Boulevard Club at an Up-Jinks party last night, and the game was followed by dainty refreshments. The prizes were a fan and a burnt-wood box. Yellow chrysanthemums formed an attractive decoration throughout the house. The guests were Misses Sappho Thrash, Pauline Randall, Fay Dobbs, Louise Dobbs, Myra Clark Scott, Janie Zachary, Messrs. Ross Zachary, Luther Randall, Harry Dobbs, Jean Paden, Donald Smith.

Agnes Scott Luncheon.

Miss Louise Van Harlinger's luncheon yesterday was one of the prettiest parties in a gay week; her guests of honor, Miss Leonora Owsley and Miss Shonts, of New York, who were schoolmates of Miss Van Harlinger at Agnes Scott.

The college colors, purple and white, were carried out in the luncheon table decorations, the centerpiece a large vase of white chrysanthemums tied with pupple tulle, and violets filling bowls at intervals on the table. The place cards were hand-painted violets tied to corsage bouquets of violets.

Miss Van Harlinger was a pretty young hostess, wearing a white silk gown embroidered in pastel colors, and her white hat was trimmed with plumes.

Theater Party.

Mrs. Wycliffe Goldsmith and Mr. Hall Miller will give a theater party on Monday evening, the 18th, in compliment to Miss Aline Patterson and Mr. John Milam.

Miss Gray's Bridge.

Miss Harriet Frances Gray entertained delightfully at cards yesterday in compliment to Miss Aline Patterson, and twenty young women were Miss Gray's guests.

The house had an attractive decoration in yellow and white chrysanthemums and in ferns, and the game was followed by a dainty luncheon.

The prizes, a silver picture frame and a small silver loving cup, were won by Miss Elizabeth Rawson and Miss Louise Hawkins. Miss Patterson was presented a bride's bowl.

Miss Gray wore a white and blue checked silk gown. Miss Patterson wore blue checked voile and a blue velvet hat.

Bowling Party.

An enjoyable affair of last night was the bowling party given by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Owens at their home in Inman Park, Miss Charles Owens, and her guest, Miss Morton, of Memphis, the guests of honor.

After a merry hour spent in bowling, a delicious hot supper was served, and the house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white chrysanthemums in the dining room, the pink blooms in the library, and yellow in the reception hall.

Mrs. Owens wore a dainty lingerie gown, and the young ladies who were her guests, wore prettey shirtwaists. The party numbered sixteen.

Social Items.

Miss Ada Beck has returned to Kingston.

Mrs. W. H. Strickland is visiting in Hogansville.

Miss Mabel Harbour, of Rome, is visiting in the city.

Mr. Orlando Long is in the city for a few days.

Mr. S. N. Dykeman is visiting his brother in Indiana.

Mr. Aloysius Doonan left Thursday for North Carolina.

Mr. Julius Furchheimer is visiting his mother in Germany.

Miss Anna Bryant, of Greenville, S. C., is the guest of Miss Cara Hutchins.

Miss Bessie McKiethen, of Montezuma, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. R. Johnston.

Mrs. W. A. Gregg has recovered from a recent illness.

Mrs. C. M. McClung, of Knoxville, will visit Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Adair next week.

Miss Katherine Ellis entertained her card club yesterday.

Miss Agnes Goss, of Athens, passed through Atlanta Thursday on her way to Sherman, Texas.

Miss Antoinette Blount has returned from Nashville, where she visited Miss Kittie Stubblefield.

Mr. John Lusk left yesterday for Charleston, where he will make his home for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hasson, of Jacksonville, Fla., announce the birth of a daughter, Katherine Harriet.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Field, Mr. Robert Eve and Mr. Geo. McCarty have returned from a hunting trip in Rabun county.

Miss Aline Patterson and her bridesmaids will be given a box party at the Grand next Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Hugh Adams landed yesterday in New York after a brief trip to Europe and back on the Lusitania.

Mrs. Claud Shewmake, Miss Julia Rosser, and Miss Annie Caverly will be among those entertaining in compliment to Miss Morton, of Memphis, the guest of Miss Owens.

Miss Edith H. Lazarus left the city last Saturday evening for Memphis, Tenn., where she will spend the winter with friends and relatives.

No Other Food Product has a like Record

Baker's Cocoa

127 Years of Constantly Increasing Sales

48 Highest Awards in Europe and America

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Registered U. S. Pat. Office

It is a perfect food, as wholesome as it is delicious; highly nourishing, easily digested, fitted to repair wasted strength, preserve health, prolong life.

Our Choice Recipe Book, containing directions for preparing more than 100 dainty dishes, sent free on request.

Walter Baker & Co., Ltd.

Established 1780

DORCHESTER, MASS., U. S. A.

"THE DAYLIGHT CORNER."

The most becoming style this season in business suits is our three-button, medium-length sack.

Medium wide lapels, medium loose in the back; in fact it's a happy medium between the freaks and extremes of last year.

Prices to suit all purses, $15 to $40.

EISEMAN & WEIL

1 Whitehall Street.

HEART RIGHT

It Makes a Great Difference.

"About two years ago I became alarmed because my husband had attacks from fainting spells caused by weak heart, from drinking coffee.

At first he did not like Postum. I had not then learned to boil it long as directions say, to get the rich flavor and brown color.

"After it was made right, he liked it, and now for more than a year he has not been troubled with his heart—in fact, his general health is better than for years." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

EDUCATION WAS THEME OF STATE CLUB WOMEN

The Education of Georgia's White Children Was the Key-Note of Yesterday's Session at Tifton.

By ISMA DOOLY.

Tifton, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Activity and enthusiastic interest marked the three sessions closing the eleventh annual meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. The audiences included not only delegates to the convention, but men and women representing every interest in this section.

In compliment to the club women, Superintendent Timmons, of the public schools, closed the schools today, that the teachers and senior pupils might attend the convention. The Women's Club of Valdosta attended the meeting in a body, led by their president, Mrs. West, the wife of State Senator West.

Mrs. Park's Report.

At the morning session a report of paramount interest was that of Mrs. Robert Emory Park, chairman of education of the state federation. She set forth the work being done by Georgia club women in educational matters, and her report will be published in full. Among the things done by this committee was the compiling of a circular explaining the educational needs of the state. This circular has been pronounced by Mrs. Platt Decker, president of the national federation, and by officers of the National Civic Federation of New York as a model of its kind.

Mrs. G. A. Alexander, representing Mrs. Walter B. Hill, made a report relative to the school improvement work in Georgia, explaining the purposes of the work, its relation to state education and its relation to the educational work of the clubs.

Mrs. J. K. Ottley explained in a brief address the work of the model schools established by the club women of Georgia in different sections, the schools being the first in the state to inaugurate a system and methods of education along the more practically industrial lines.

Mrs. E. B. Heard of Elberton, Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb and Miss M. L. Johnson, directors of these schools, gave brief stories of them, showing their operation and success. They brought out the fact of the difficulty there is in getting parents as well as children to subscribe to the new system of education, which seems to adapt the education of the child to his needs and the needs of his environment. Attention was called to an exhibit made by the children of the three model schools, which showed that the hand as well as the head was being trained. The exhibit contained carved wood furniture, baskets, hats and mats wove from native grasses, and not without artistic merits; plain sewing, hemstitching, drawnwork, lacework, preserves, jellies and canned products.

Many Awards Received.

Mrs. Eugene Heard, who as a Georgia club woman installed the exhibit of a model school at the Jamestown exposition, reported that many awards had been received, and that the school was according to the model of the three established by Georgia club women at Danielsville, Cass Station and Floyd county. Professor T. J. Woofter here arose and said that the model school established by Mrs. Heard at the Jamestown exposition was generally noticed to be the best feature of the exposition's educational exhibit. He also thanked the state federation for their cooperation in the matter of separating the idea of traditional and practical education in the minds of the people of the rural districts.

Mrs. Nellie Peters Black, the moters of the free kindergarten system in the state of Georgia, made a fine report, bringing out the influence of the club women in establishing the kindergarten as a part of common school education, her report to be published in full. A paper from Mrs. A. McD. Wilson was a valuable contribution on what has been accomplished by club women on serial service. Mrs. W. P. Patillo gave an interesting report as chairman of club extension.

Child Labor Discussed.

Mrs. A. O. Granger, of Cartersville, general federation secretary for Georgia, talked of the effects of child legislation in Georgia. She said although the present law restricting child labor is not yet entirely in operation, we may well study its effect as well as make the improvements needed in the remedial legislation. The fact that the children under twelve who have been set free from the mills are not all in school does not prove that it was a mistake to take them from the company of wage earners. It only betrays the fact that a large proportion of Georgia's white population is so ignorant that it does not feel the need of education. Those who have been working in educational lines have long known the difficulty of intresting both parents and children in school work, hence our need of a compulsory education law, but in providing for the children do not forget that play is the normal occupation of children.

With the first of next January no children under fourteen years can be employed unless they have attended school for at least three months during the year, this provision being a small compulsory education bill, since it will compel children to go to school in order that they may afterwards obtain employmen. The owners and managers of our great cotton mills are, as a rule, striving to observe the law, but what of other occupations? The law was not a measure to work harm to the mills, but to prepare the childhood of the generation now growing up that they and their successors may come into citizenship in one glorious company, with well rounded physical and mental development.

Law Must Be Extended.

The manufacturers of candy, of crackers, or cigars, or overalls, or bonnets must be compelled to obey the law and the tiny newsboys must be in school instead of at work. The needed improvements in the law are slight, but far-reaching. The exceptions of the law must be for a provision for really needy mothers. No child must work over ten hours a day and none under sixteen should be employed at night. Certificates as to school attendance must come from these school authorities, and inspectors appointed by the governor must be empowered to enforce the law.

It is the work of the women of this federation to help in bringing the speedy passage of laws providing for these improvements. We must also help by voting and protesting against infringements of the law which come under our own observation. If the members of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals do not hesitate to act when they see a docked horse or a cruel checkrein, surely we need not fear to speak for the children of our commonwealth.

Pledge to Raise $2,000.

An incident creating the greatest enthusiasm at the morning session was, when on the appeal made by Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb, Mrs. J. K. Ottley and others, the women of the convention pledged themselves to raise $2,000 for the completion and maintenance of a model industrial school for the mountain children of the district of Tallulah Falls. They will continue their interest in the industrial school at Rabun Gap, as the Daughters of the Confederacy at their last state meeting pledged themselves to help Rabun Gap, and as the attention of the Daughters of the Revolution has been attracted the Miss Berry's school for mountain boys, near Rome, it would seem that at last direct steps are being taken to solve Georgia's white problem among the mountain people.

At Miss Caroline Westmoreland's bridge party of two tables yesterday for Miss Morton, of Memphis, the guest of Miss Charles Owens, the prize, a veil pin, was won by Miss Annie Flynn. Miss Morton was presented a picture.

"Sauer's," the name that guarantees Pure Flavoring Extracts. Be sure the name, "Sauer's," when buying Extracts; our name is being imitated.

THEATERS.

At the Grand.

The appearance of Miss Grace George, in "Divorcons," at the Grand last night, proved conclusively that the local playhouse is just about to finish the greatest week in its history in point of sterling attractions. Miss Adams ended her engagement in "Peter Pan" on Thursday evening. The average theatergoer will make comparisons on plays and portrayers, but the brilliancy of the star of last night was in no wise dimmed by that of the renowned artist who preceded her on the local stage. One who sees Miss George in this play and is not pleased is hopeless. He or she, as the case may be, can not be pleased, no matter what is brought before them. The charm, the personality, the art, the magnetism and irresistible attractiveness of the well-known actress is forcibly shown in the vehicle presented. She was given opportunity in the tragic and in the lighter vein and in one was as good as in the other.

"Divorcons" grows on one. The first act is not very much above the ordinary, but as the play progresses it is realized that it is one of the best, if not the best of its kind, ever seen on a local stage. Miss George is at her best in the second act, when, in the cleverest scene of the play, she is moved to laughter, rippling, bubbling laughter, of the contagious kind, and the audience laughs with her. Then there are tears, but they are the comedy tears, and still the audience laughs. "Divorcons," by the way, is a comedy that begins tragically and ends happily.

In the first act a husband, Frank Worthington, and wife, Miss George, are about to part, believing that a new divorce law will release them from the ties. When the curtain goes down it seems that their paths have already separated and—lo and behold!—in the second act, by clever intrigue, the husband begins to regain the love of the girl who so shortly before had done with him. They fly into each other's arms in the final act, and there you are. The same thing has been seen many times before, but not the persons concerned.

But it is very pretty, that scene between Mr. Worthington and Miss George, when he arouses her jelousy and she discovers after all that she does not want to leave him, and in the end comes to almost despise the man whom she believed was made for her, and then it is that she finds that, after all, her marriage was not an awful mistake.

To return to the company that helps so in the success of "Divorcons," it is one of the most evenly balanced ever coming to the Grand. Mr. Worthington is an actor of no mean ability. That could be easily seen, even though he was playing opposite such a star as Miss George. Douglass Gerrard, who takes the part of the man in love with the wife, is also good, and, in fact, there is no defect in the entire cast. Miss George was called upon to respond to numerous curtain calls after every act, but Mr. Worthington, Mr. Gerrard and Max Freeman, who was the waiter in the cafe scene in the last act, made a big hit, were not neglected by the audience in its applause.

"Divorcons" will be presented by Miss George in a matinee this afternoon, and Jerome K. Jerome's "Sylvia" will be given for the first time tonight.

ALEX LYNN.

"The Chorus Lady."

Rose Stahl's success in "The Chorus Lady" has been a source of genuine delight to the vaudeville world, for during her three seasons as a "headliner" she won the liking of variety performers of both high and low degree. On the night of her debut at the Savoy theater in New York, one year ago, she received shoals of telegrams from "extra attractions," "special features," acrobats, "sister acts" and monologuists, all wishing her the "success you deserve.". These in turn were followed by letters of congratulation.

"George Washington, Jr."

The cast which Cohan & Harris have engaged for their season's tour of "George Washington, Jr.," to be presented here by the Cohan & Harris comedians at the Grand Wednesday and Thursday next, contains the names of most of the original company, while the production, one of the largest and most magnificent ever carried by a touring organization, is exactly in every detail the same as seen during the play's long run of several months at the Herald Square Theater, in New York, and for half a season at the Colonial Theater, in Chicago.

The title role will be played here by Carter De Haven, a young comedian, long and favorably known as a headliner in vaudevile; Fora Parker, a dainty, winsome soubrette, whose talents have been recognized in both musical comedy and vaudeville, will assume a leading character; Willis P. Sweatnam, formerly a minstrel star and now recognized as the best delineator of old negro characters on the American stage, has been cast for a role considered one of the best characters which Mr. Cohan has yet conceived. The other members include Jack Rafael, John A. Boone, Edward Lester, Frank McNish, Jr., John Kauffman, Jos. Leslie, Lee Myers, Elsie Artz, Lola Hoffman and a Cohanesque chorus.

At the Bijou.

Quite an unusual amount of interest and inquiry at the box office oof the Bijou theater has been occasioned by the announcement of the coming of Hanlon's "Superba" to that house for a week, beginning Monday next, with matinees Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

This remarkable pantomine should create a host of new admirers, and to those who have seen it on former presentations it will prove an absolute novelty.

Not since the Hanlons first produced "Superba" have tthey taken such pains and gone to such expense to present their familiar play in an up-to-date form. Not only is the scenery new, but all, or nearly, of the laughter provoking Hanlon tricks and illusions are new.

The transformation and ballets are new, as also are the specialties, little remains of the original besides the title which still draws immense audiences, but all its changes have been improvements.

At the Orpheum.

The bill closing tonight at the Orpheum has been breaking the attendance records, the children filling the matinees, as they are admitted free if accompanied by an elder person with a paid ticket. The trained dogs are drawing the little folks.

For next weeek the bill includes several start acts, Tommy Gillen, the great monologuist. Ty Cobb, the Georgia favorite, will appear on Tuesday night to receive a gold watch given by Atlanta and Georgia admirers. The opening on Monday night will present Emerson and Baldwin, several new feature acts and the highest-priced acrobatic turn ever brought to Atlanta—the Four Casting Dunbars. The whole bill appears more than ordinarily attractive.

SUIT CASES

$5.50

Cowhide-hand riveted inside shirt fold—outside straps and catches—linen lined.

WORTH $7.00

LIEBERMAN'S

The Trunk Store

92 Whitehall St.

"Scribner's is a great and good magazine and should be in every American home."
—WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE.

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE

A GREAT 1908 YEAR

THE NEW SERIAL STORY

The Trail of the Lonesome Pine

By JOHN FOX, JR.

Author of "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," etc.

"The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" is the most ambitious as it is the most successful work of the author. The heroine, JUNE, is most appealing. The pathos of her childhood and the difficulties of her maturity are depicted with that instinctive sympathy which unfailingly guides Mr. Fox's masterly literary skill and shows him not only an artist but a rare interpreter of hearts. The scene is in the Kentucky Mountains. The love story which runs through the novel is a charming one. Mr. Yohn, who made the illustrations for "The Little Shepherd," will also illustrate "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

A Chronicle of Friendships:

Reminiscences by WILL H. LOW Three Articles Illustrated by the Author

Artist Life in Paris and Barbizon in the Time and Circle of the STEVENSONS

Mr. Low's reminiscences of his artist life are remarkable for the friendships chronicled, and for the charming point of view of the author, both as to his friends and to his art. There can be no better picture of the life of an ambitious art student thirty years ago, in the days when Millet was still living at Barbizon. The gayer side of the life among the young students is also depicted, and there are many delightful accounts of Robert Louis Stevenson and his cousin "Bob," the art critic. The life of the students is reproduced by Mr. Low with a spirit and romance which has heretofore seldom appeared except in some famous fiction. The illustrations which will adorn each installment are of unusual biographical as well as artistic value.

Richard Harding Davis

Will be represented by a characteristic short serial.

An Olympic Victor:

A Story of the Modern Games

A three-part serial by JAMES B. CONNOLLY

In this fascinating love story of modern Greece the author has vividly conveyed the spirit and enthusiasm with which in recent years it revived the old classic games. The description of the great Marathon race is one of the finest things of the kind ever written. Mr. Connolly, himself an athlete and a contestant in the games at Athens, gives a masterly picture of the great struggle for victory between the athletes of the world, and of the thrilling scenes along the way and at the finish in the great Stadium.

The West in the Orient

By CHARLES M. PEPPER

Foreign Trade Commissioner, Department of Commerce and Labor.

Four remarkable papers crystalizing his impressions and observations of the remolding of Oriental civilization.

1. Irrigation: An Old Force Newly Applied

Describing the modern application of the old forces of irrigation in Egypt, India and Mesopotamia.

2. Electricity: The New Force in Old Lands

The Trolley Road in Damascus, The Electrical Power Company in the Valley of Kashmir and the Telegraph and Telephone in Thibet.

3. The Transformation of Transportation

Shows how the old caravan trails have been modified by modern electric and steam railways; it outlines the project for a railroad to Mecca, describes the modern terminal facilities of the Bagdad Railroad; and pictures the probable effects of the proposed railway from Afghanistan into Persia.

4. The New Tide of Commerce Through Suez

New impressions of international waterways, with special reference to the Suez Canal and the return currents of the commerce of the Orient.

Profusely illustrated, showing the wonderful strides of the Orient.

Diversions in Picturesque Game Lands

By WILLIAM T. HORNADAY

Author of "The American Natural History"

"Grand Bad-Lands and Mule Deer"

"Golden Days in the Shoshone Mountains"

"The Desert"

Mr. Hornaday writes for both the nature-lover and the hunter. The articles will be illustrated with a series of most unusual photographs.

Articles Written and Illustrated by Artists

RAMMING A DERELICT. By W. J. Aylward

THE OLD BOSTON POST ROAD. By Stanley M. Arthurs

Mr. Arthurs has for a long time been known for his exceptional knowledge of Colonial and later times. He succeeds admirably in bringing out the quaint and humorous human aspects of the old coaching days.

WINTER LIFE AND SPORT IN CANADA. By Birge Harrison

THE MEASURE OF CONTENT. By S. H. Chase

All along the rock-bound coast of Maine the dory fisherman is a picturesque figure. Mr. Chase writes of his life and illustrates it with a remarkable series of sea pictures.

Articles on South America

By ARTHUR RUHL Fully Illustrated

The City of Good Airs (Buenos Aires)

Santiago, The Little Metropolis of the Andes

Across the Cordilleras in Winter

The Charm of Mountain Climbing

By WILLIAM WILLIAMS. He writes of the "Indescribable attraction which the mountains have for some," and of the wholesome and invigorating physical exercise which belongs to the sport. Illustrated with incomparable photographs.

The Mountains By JOHN C. VAN DYKE

An article in the vein of the author's well-known books "The Opal Sea" and "The Desert," illustrated with a most unusual series of photographs of typical mountain scenery.

Short Stories

The Magazine has always been distinguished by its short fiction, and it has for the coming year a number of stories that will well sustain its traditions.

Art and Artists

Scribner's Magazine has attained a standard in its illustrations which has earned for it most favorable comment abroad as well as at home. This standard will be maintained during 1908, and an effort made to surpass the achievements of previous years both in black and white and colored illustrations.

The Publishers Want Agents Everywhere. Liberal Cash Commissions—Write for Particulars

$3.00 A YEAR 25 CENTS A NUMBER

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, NEW YORK

Silverware

No matter what you are looking for in silverware, you will find that selection surpasses all others in its rich distinction and elegance.

CRANKSHAW'S

Charles W. Crankshaw

Diamond Merchant and Jeweler

16 Whitehall St. Century Building

Mrs. Rosa F. Monnish, M. D.

SPECIALTY: Diseases of Women.

Graduate of European and American hospitals and colleges; 26 years' experience. All diseases treated. First-class accommodations for a limited number of ladies during treatment. Offices at residence, 349 Peachtree street, corner Forrest. Bell phone main 1343. Atlanta phone 627.

OF, FOR, BY AND ABOUT WOMEN

Conducted by ISMA DOOLY.

INTELLIGENT COLORED WOMAN PLEADS FOR RIGHT EDUCATION

Editor Woman's Department Constitution: I have read with great interest the articles in your department upon the servant problem.

The opinions expressed therein by the several prominent Georgia women interviewed upon the subject of "Immigration and Its Relation to the Servant Problem" should have brought joy to the hearts of all who are interested in the improvement and uplifting of the negro race.

My thoughts found expression in those words: "Thank God, all have not lost faith in my people."

It means no little to us as a race that six prominent white women of our own state express the opinion that, with proper training, the negro race can and will furnish as efficient and as high-class servants as can be secured from any other race.

But alas! to what source shall the negro look for this training? The cities and states provide such for white children, but, with very few exceptions, there is no such provision made nor any inducement offered to negro boys and girls to fit themselves for domestic service. I am quite sure that Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb, of Athens, struck the keynote when she said: "If each southern state would take hold of the problem, pass a bill for compulsory education, and establish industrial schools for the negro, force them into them (and this would not be necessary), teach them how to work, encourage them to love work, and help them into trades and service, this problem might be solved." I doubt not that by this means not only this problem, but many others that are vexing both races, might be solved.

The truth of the matter is this: A large majority of the negroes who go into domestic service are the poorest and most ignorant of the race. Having been reared in homes where everything is done in a shiftless, irregular way, where neatness and order are unknown, is it any wonder that they are utter failures as house servants? Yet these, lacking means or ambition to secure sufficient education to fit themselves for some higher occupation, resort to domestic service, wholly ignorant of the fact that training is as necessary for efficiency in this work as in any other. This condition of things must be met ere we can hope for improvement. We, as a race, cannot cope with the situation alone. We are a poor people, and so we, like other poor people, must look to the municipal and the state authorities to help us help ourselves, that we may in turn help our employers by rendering efficient and satisfactory service at whatever work we may be employed.

From the Teacher's View.

Having been for a number of years engaged in educational work I had the opportunity to observe that a very small percentage of the children who enter our public schools ever complete the grammar school course. They leave with the little learning that is a dangerous thing and without ever having been taught the use of their hands. This they are sometimes forced to do, being often compelled to support themselves and aid in the support of the family.

Thus the cities have thrust upon them an army of ignorant, untrained boys and girls who are dabblers and botchers all their days, of little help to themselves or anybody else. It is just here that we are confronted with the great and pressing need of an industrial course in the negro public schools. There hundreds of boys and girls could be trained and properly taught that work by which they must eventually earn an honest living. By this means, too, negroes would come to regard domestic service in a very different light. They would no longer think of it as degrading—the mere fact that some special course of instruction is necessary for any work makes one place a higher estimate upon that kind of labor.

The man who knows his business commands the respect of his employer—to that extent. He deserves and can demand better wages. But above all, people trained to do work in the proper way usually love to work; they take pride in doing their best, and are for the most part well behaved and not often guilty of crime.

Could the city of Atlanta see its way to put into the negro public schools an industrial course or build a training school, every year there would go out scores of boys and girls with trained hands, a love for work, and an earnest desire to please those in whose employ they served.

The most speedy relief, however, for this scarcity of trained servants in our city would be a training school for young negro men and women right here in Atlanta. The training should be free upon condition that pupils, as soon as competent, should serve a certain length of time in the employ of the people of Atlanta, with wages as high as those paid to others who render similar service.

If in such a school only one hundred young women and a like number of young men could be accommodated in one year there would be a marked change in labor conditions, and in the course of a few years there would be no lack of satisfactory labor.

I appeal to the women to whom the solving of this problem means so much to plead with those in authority for this training school, and an industrial course in negro public schools along with the literary course. It would result in great good for both white and black.

An Humble Appeal.

When I read of the thousands appropriated by the city for a free library, technological school, industrial training in the public schools, night schools, homes for the friendless and other charities, and of the agricultural colleges now being planted over the state, all to the end that the criminal and pauper classes among whites may be reduced, that all who will may have an opportunity to cultivate the intellect, and above all, to place within the reach of every boy and every girl the means of earning a comfortable living, I find myself saying, "I ask not for all, O Lord, but if only we might have the crumbs that fall from the table." This I know to be the feeling of the better class of negroes throughout the south. This feeling is not born of malice or envy, but of an earnest desire to be somewhat fairly dealt with. All we ask is a little help, a little encouragement. 'Tis true, because of our previous condition we have but little and therefore pay but a small part of the cash that goes as taxes into the public treasuries; yet we live among you, spend our money with you, rent your houses and serve you. Surely in some small way we help to build up the city and its enterprises! A few thousands spent to help the negro into the better way, to save him from crime and pauperism, will be seed sown which will in time not only save millions of dollars to the state, but will produce a harvest so abundant in law-abiding, sober, self-respecting men and women that both races would rejoice at the bringing in of the sheaves.

It will not be necessary to force negroes to avail themselves of any opportunity afforded them for improvement. If such training as has been indicated could be placed within the reach of the negroes who need it, the courts would have less to do, there would be fewer vagrants and the home life of the people would be improved. In preparing to help others they would be led to practice in their own homes the lessons of neatness, order and cleanliness to which many are now strangers.

A boy or girl coming from a home where the mother or father or both have had the advantages of the training school would be far superior in point of service to the majority of those now in your employ. Add to this home training a course in the industrial school, and in time (and not so long a time, either), there would be among us permanently a class who would prepare themselves for domestic service with as much pride and eagerness as do those in other vocations.

CARRIE THOMAS JORDAN.

ARE WARNED AGAINST SOUTH

Emigrants Are Confronted With the Fear of Peonage System.

Vienna, November 8.—The government today issued a warning against the agents who are at present inducing Austrian and Hungarian emigration to the southern states of America.

An official circular on the subject calls attention to the alleged peonage system in that part of the United States and recommends people who contemplate emigrating to be very cautious and not to follow the advice of the emigration agents until reliable guarantees are forthcoming regarding the prospects for emigrants in the southern states.

ALABASTINE

The best of all materials for tinting walls.

GEORGIA PAINT & GLASS CO.,
40 Peachtree Street.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Cures scalp diseases & hair falling. 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists

In Furs, Mink and Lynx Are the Favorites---Ours Are Beauties

The new furs show a splendid variation of shapes and styles ---in boas, scarfs, collarettes, stoles and muffs. Mink, as usual, is a favorite, the Japanese mink being especially good by reason of its rich, dark coloring. It is a most becoming fur. Black Lynx is also being worn a great deal. It is a graceful long fur and we are showing it in all the smart modes.

Sets of Eastern Mink, long shawl Stole, elaborately trimmed with heads and tails; large, soft Muff - - - - - $145 to $175

Mink Neck Pieces, simple Four-in-Hand Ties, "cross-overs," short stoles or shawl effects, trimmed with natural heads - - $15 to $150

Muffs to Match, in soft pillow style, plain or fancy trimmed, $27.50 to $50

Black Lynx Sets, broad Scarf, finished with heads and tails; large, soft, one-skin Muff - - - - - - - - - $75

Lynx Neck Pieces, very attractive, shown in the shapes most desirable for the current season - - - - - - $15 to $60

Lynx Muffs, plain pillow effect, or gracefully trimmed - $20 to $65

White Fox and Ermine, these very dressy furs are the material for some beautiful pieces we are showing. Particularly graceful are the Collars - - - - - - - - - $50 to $175

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.

For Misses and Small Women a Lot of Choice Suits Just In

Friday morning we received a splendid addition to our Suit Stock in the way of Misses' Suits. They are in Cheviots and Serges, Mixtures, Stripes and Plain.

Box Coats and Semi-fitting effects. Pleated and Flared Skirts.

This is a lot of Sample Suits, from a good house. It contains the kind of general-wear garments most desirable for misses and women of small sizes. The demand for them has been unusual and these just fill the bill.

$15, $17.50 and $20

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

THE SUPREME COURT TO DEFINE WHISKY

The Liquor Interests, However, Are Unable to Agree on Test Cases for the Hearing.

(From The Baltimore American.)

Washington, October 28.—Negotiations are now pending between Attorney General Bonaparte and Messrs. J. J. Hemphill and A. S. Worthington, of Worthington, Heald & Co., which will result shortly in a test case of those provisions of the pure food law which apply to the labeling of whisky. Messrs. Hemphill and Worthington represent, as counsel, the Wilson Distilling Company, of Baltimore. They have submitted to Mr. Bonaparte a statement of facts to be made the basis of the test of the law, and Mr. Bonaparte has replied, making some suggestions and alterations. The correspondence is still in progress, but there is every reason to believe that an entirely satisfactory arrangement will be reached this week whereby the question can ultimately reach the supreme court of the United States for a decision.

The rectifying and distilling interests of the entire country have been very eager for a final decision of the legality of the decisions of the department of agriculture ever since those decisions have been promulgated. They have viewed with impatience the long-drawn negotiations between the department of justice and Mr. Warwick Hough, the general counsel for the whisky interests opposed to the decision, which have now lasted nearly six months, and which have been practically abandoned by Mr. Bonaparte as giving no promise to ultimate adjustment.

The Wilson Distilling Company has, therefore, of its own accord, directed Messrs. Hemphill and Worthington, two of the foremost atorneys in Washington, to arrange a test case irrespective of the activities of Mr. Hough, and it is evident that Messrs. Hemphill and Worthington have succeeded in discovering proper methods to pursue for the arrangement of the test case. No criminal prosecution is contemplated in the test case.

Mr. Hough has returned to Washington, and gives assurance that the negotiations which have been pending between himself and Mr. Bonaparte since last May will be settled within a few days. He said today:

Whether there will be a test case to determine the correct labeling of whisky under the pure food law now rests with the attorney general.

I accept his statement of facts and that they

If he insists that the rectifiers shall accept his statement of facts and that they shall also agree that no testimony or other evidence shall be presented to the courts, the probabilities are that the test case as originally contemplated will not be made, because the rectifiers insist upon the right to introduce testimony and contend that the statement of facts upon which the attorney general insists contains statements which they cannot admit to be true and which would amount to an admission upon their part that they have no case.

The club which is being held over the rectifiers is that if they do not agree to the attorney general's terms he will authorize the institution of general prosecutions without waiting for the courts to pass upon the question of "What is whisky?" It seems inconceivable, however, that the attorney general of the United States would take such a position, since it would ruin an enormous business, for which no reparation could be made if the court should finally decide that the attorney general was wrong. There are those who assert that, even though the making of a test case upon an agreed statement of facts should be abandoned, the attorney general will pick out certain cases from those which may be transmitted to him from the department of agriculture and use them for the purpose of a test case to decide the questions at issue, and hold all the other cases in abeyance until the first cases have been decided. This seems the more reasonable course, though the department will not commit itself in advance.

Contrary to the impression which has heretofore prevailed, the rectifiers and blenders have been endeavoring to make a test case since the middle of last June, and the delay in the matter has been due to the unwillingness of the attorney general to accept any of the several statements which were prepared and submitted by their attorney, because the agreement of facts related only to admissions as to what the respective distilled spirits were and how they had been produced. It is now pointed out as a significant fact that the distilled spirit which the attorney general wishes the rectifiers to admit has never been known as whisky is a distilled spirit which the government has been branding as whisky ever since it has been produced whenever it was reduced in proof by the addition of water, so as to make it potable. The pertinent question then arises, "How can one department of the government successfully prosecute a dealer for selling a distilled spirit as 'whisky' when the brand 'whisky' was put upon the package containing it by the officials of another department of the government, pursuant to law and regulations relating thereto?"

At any rate, in view of the technicalities involved in the alleged violations of the pure food law by the rectifiers they can no longer be regarded as flagrant.

It is expected that the matter will be settled by an agreement or disagreement within a day or two.

Vapo-Cresolene

(Established 1879.)
"Cures While You Sleep."

Whooping-Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Coughs, Diphtheria, Catarrh.

Confidence can be placed in a remedy, which for a quarter of a century has earned unqualified praise. Restful nights are assured at once.

Cresolene is a Boon to Asthmatics
All Druggists

Send postal for descriptive booklet.

Cresolene Antiseptic Throat Tablets for the irritated throat, at your druggist or from us. 10c. in stamps.

The Vapo-Cresolene Co.,
180 Fulton St., N. Y.

MANY MARRIAGES ILLEGAL

Five Thousand Chicago Couples Are in a Peculiar Plight.

Chicago, November 8.—Five thousand marriages of Chicago couples which have been performed in Hammond, Ind., within the last five years were declared to be illegal in an opinion rendered yesterday at Hammond by Attorney Bomberger to Ernest L. Shortridge, clerk of the circuit and superior courts.

In his opinion he holds that licenses isued by the superior court of Lake county, located at Hammond, are issued without legal authority, and that the only court of Lake county which is empowered to issue licenses is the circuit court at Crown Point.

"The Vengeance of the Boss"

'SWATTED BY CUPID.

That's the story Jacques Futrelle tells in the NOVEMBER issue of Uncle Remus's Magazine.

And it is a ripping good story that pulls you along with a rush and a swirl, from the very start till the man gets the girl. It will make you wish it were twice as long. Batty Logan, that loquacious slang slinger, would doubtless designate it as a pippinerino. And he'd be right.

Uncle Remus's Magazine.

10 Cents Per Copy. $1.00 by the Year.

AT ALL THE NEWSDEALERS.

Keeping out the cold and keeping in the bodily heat is only the beginning of the good work of Wright's Health Underwear. It stands guard over the sensitive skin, preventing that sudden closing of the pores which causes colds, coughs and congestion in various parts of the body.

Wright's Health Underwear, made by a recent process, of selected high grade wool, is the best on the market. Yet it is in reach of people of moderate means. Not a fad nor a gimcrack. Just a sensible "loop-knit" woolen garment, lined with the fleece of comfort. For men, women and children.

Ask your dealer to show you Wright's Health Underwear. It is on sale at all first-class stores. Write for booklet, "Dressing for Health."

WRIGHT'S HEALTH UNDERWEAR COMPANY,
75 Franklin Street, New York.

Hagan's Magnolia Balm,

A liquid preparation for face, neck, arms and hands. Makes the skin like you want it. Does it in a moment. Not sticky or greasy. It's harmless, clean, refreshing. Can't be detected. Use it morning, noon and night, Winter, Spring, Summer, Fall. Sample FREE. Lyon Mfg. Co. 42 S. Fifth St. Brooklyn, N.Y.

VICTOR FUN

LAUGH AND GROW FAT

for $1.00 a week. It's waiting for you at

PHILLIPS & CREW CO.

37-39 PEACHTREE ST.

TWO SPEECHES MOVE HEARERS

Notable Addresses Made by Mills and Ritchie.

VALDOSTA WAS SELECTED

All of the Old Officers Were Re-elected by Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs — The Session Was Most Successful.

By ISMA DOOLY.

Tifton, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Valdosta gets the next session of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, which closed a most successful session here tonight with the speech of A. J. McKelway on the effects of child labor legislation.

Two Notable Speeches.

Two men of the mountains contributed the stirring addresses, concluding the last session of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, one Enos Mills, the government expert in forestry, who knows the forests in all their grandeur and pleads for their protection; the other Andrew J. Ritchie, of Rabun Gap, who pleads for the children of Georgia forests.

Professor Ackerman, of the forestry department of the State University of Georgia, introduced Mr. Mills, whose direct simplicity of thought, action, and expression caught the ear of his audience at once. As he talked the majesty of his subject became impressed upon his hearers and with the power of the genius he is, he carried them with him through mountains and made them feel the very atmosphere inspiring his subject.

There never was heard sweeter poetry of trees, of running brooks, of the silent places, of nature, of the songs of birds, and of the great world lessons in the deep forests. He spoke straight from his heart to the heart of every woman present and made them feel how great the tie is between nature and human nature, and how necessary one is to the protection of the other.

Spoke First of Sentiment.

Mr. Mills first discussed the forests from the standpoint of sentiment, the lofty influence of life among them, and brought out the fact that the great men and women of ages had loved the trees and reached out for their protection. He spoke at length of the climatic influences of the forests, and the bad effects of their wanton destruction upon our agricultural development. He spoke of the relation of forestry to natural irrigation, and of the present relation of forests and the lumber industry.

He apprehended that unless direct and effectual methods were pursued by the individual, the state and the government in cooperative action to protect the forests that there would be a scarcity of homes. Already, he said, the prices of lumber were increasing beyond the reach of the poor man, the prices of the hardwood of fabulous value. He urged the practical application of forestry in the state, urged public interest in the matter of the proposed natural forest reserve in the Appalachian district.

Should Have State Forester.

He thinks every state should have a state forester and that the principle of planting a dozen trees every time one is destroyed should be put into application, thus perpetuating the forest and the lumber industry as well.

He urged the study of trees in schools, especially in the rural schools, and pointed out that it was one which teacher and pupil could master together. He pointed out the present generosity of the government in giving free literature on the subject wherever it was asked, and of their willingness to lend aid in any way or in any section where the destruction of forests was imminent. He asked the club women of the state, to whom he came as a direct messenger from the government, to aid in spreading information and literature pertaining to forests and to take steps in training children to know and love the forests through nature study.

Mr. Ritchie's Speech.

Mr. Ritchie, in his earnest, straightforward manner, appealed for the mountain people of North Georgia, and asked aid in the conduct and maintenance of the industrial school at Rabun Gap.

He gave a brief history of the mountain people, of their origin, their isolation for generations, their present conditions, and their need of education. He spoke of the struggle to build the school and the difficulty of getting pupils and parents to accept the kinds of education that was practical for them. He referred to the mountain people as an unused, untrained people in our midst, where there was the greatest need for them, and pleaded for the continued cooperation of the club in the work of the school. His simple human story was one of the most impressive features of the convention.

In the afternoon, an interesting feature was the paper read by Mrs. Robert Taylor, of Griffin, on our domestic service problem, which she believed club women could help in solving. Mrs. McCabe's report on library work in the rural district was second to none in importance, and was another indication of the energetic work of club women. An elegant luncheon was the last of the series of beautiful events given by Tifton ladies.

Officers Reelected.

All of the officers were reelected. They are:

President—Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb, Athens.

First Vice President—Mrs. Hugh Willet, Atlanta.

Second Vice President—Mrs. R. T. Humphrey, West Point.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Robert Taylor, Griffin.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Rosa Woodberry, Athens.

Treasurer—Mrs. E. P. Dismukes, Jr., Columbus.

Auditor—Mrs. Mallory Taylor, Macon.

State Editor—Mrs. Oscar Peeples, Cartersville.

IN THE CHURCHES SUNDAY

Episcopal.

November 10, Twenty-fourth after Trinity.

CATHEDRAL.—Corner Washington and Hunter. Very Rev. C. T. A. Pise, D. D., dean. 7:30 a. m., holy communion; 11 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 4:30 p. m., evening prayer and sermon. Sunday school at 9:30. All other days: 7:30 a. m., holy communion; 9 a. m., morning prayer; 4:30 p. m., evening prayer. Wednesday and Friday: Litany at 10:30.

ST. LUKE'S.—Peachtree, between Currier and Pine. Rev. C. B. Wilmer, D. D., rector. 7:30 a. m., holy communion; 11 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; 7:30 p. m., evening prayer and sermon. Sunday school at 9:45.

ALL SAINTS.—Corner West Peachtree and North avenue. Rev. Z. S. Farland, rector. 8 a. m. holy communion; 11 a. m. morning prayer and sermon; 4 p. m. evening prayer. Sunday school at 9:45. Wednesday: Litany at 10:30.

EPIPHANY.—Corner Moreland and Euclid avenues. Rev. C. A. Langston, vicar, in charge. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. Sunday school at 9:45.

CHAPEL OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD.—Plum, near Cone. Sunday school at 9:30.

MISSION OF THE HOLY INNOCENTS.—Woods avenue, near West Peachtree. Sunday school every Sunday at 3:30.

HOLY COMFORTER.—Corner Atlanta avenue and Pulliam. Rev. Gilbert Higgs, D.D., in charge. Evening prayer and sermon at 4. Sunday school at 3.

ST. ANDREW'S.—Corner Glenn and Kent. Rev. Gilbert Higgs, D.D., in charge. Sunday school at 3:30.

ST. PAUL'S.—East Point. Rev. Gilbert Higgs, D.D., in charge. Morning prayer and sermon at 11.

HOLY TRINITY.—Decatur. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. Sunday school at 9:45.

ST. TIMOTHY'S.—South Kirkwood. Morning prayer and sermon at 11.

ST. JOHN'S.—College Park. Rev. Gilbert Higgs, D.D., in charge. Holy communion and sermon at 11.

ST. MARGARET'S.—Carrollton, Rev. R. F. De Belle in charge. Holy communion and sermon at 11 by the Rev. S. S. Spear.

Baptist.

FIRST.—Peachtree and Cain. W. W. Landrum, D.D., pastor. Sunday school 9:30 a.m. Morning worship 11 a. m. B. Y. P. U. 7:15 p. m. Evening worship at 7:45.

SECOND.—Sunday school 9:30 a. m. At the 11 o'clock service the pastor, Dr. John E. White, will preach, his subject being, "A Heritage of Two Worlds." Sunday night Dr. White will deliver the fifth of the series of sermons he has been preaching every Sunday night on "Home Building." His subject for Sunday evening will be, "Home Tragedies and Triumphs." There will be a special song service beginning at 7:45 o'clock. Monday night the Young Men's Missionary Society will meet at 8 o'clock. Wednesday night the regular prayer service will be held, led by the pastor. Friday night the B. Y. P. U. meets.

PONCE DE LEON AVENUE.—Rev. Junius W. Millard, D. D., pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., with subjects as following, to be discussed by the pastor: "The Through and Through Kind" and "The Man Who Said He Would—and Couldn't." Sunday school at 9:30. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

WEST END.—The pastor, Dr. Jno. F. Purser, will preach Sunday morning and evening. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. B. Y. P. U. Sunday evening at 6:45. Ladies' Aid Society Monday afternoon at 3:30. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Lucile Daniel Clarke Society Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

GRANT PARK.—Corner Georgia avenue and Grant street. D. S. Edenfield, pastor. Services 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Junior B. Y. P. U. 3 p. m. Senior B. Y. P. U. 6:30 p. m. Prayer and song service Wednesday 7:30 p. m. The ordinance of baptism will be administered Sunday at 8:30 p. m.

TEMPLE.—Corner Mangum and West Hunter streets. Rev. A. C. Ward, D.D., pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. by the pastor. J. A. Crumbly will preach at night. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Prayer meeting every Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Ordination service at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. H. Bell, presiding. Charge of office, Dr. W. W. Landrum. Presentation of Bible, Rev. V. C. Norcross. Ordaining prayer, Rev. J. F. Purser.

JACKSON HILL.—North Jackson and East car. John D. Jordan, D.D., minister. Residence, 20 East avenue. Bell phone. Service and sermon 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Young peoples' meeting 6:45 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m. Young Women's Missionary and Aid Society Monday 3:30 p. m. Women's prayer meeting 3 p. m. Sunbeams 3:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to all services of this church. Sunday morning subject, "What is a Boy Good For?" At the evening service there will be an opening of the question box and a special musical program.

IMMANUEL.—Corner Fair street and Berean avenue. Rev. J. D. Winchester, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., T. L. Camp, superintendent. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Junior Union 2:30 p. m. Mid-week service Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. B. Y. P. U. Friday 7:45 p. m. Strangers and visitors cordially invited to all services.

WOODWARD AVE.—Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. H. C. Hurley. At 11 a. m. the subject will be, "Working for Numbers." Subject at night, "A Preacher in Trouble." Junior B. Y. P. U. 3 p. m. All the other services of the week will be held as usual.

BROWN MEMORIAL.—Rev. W. A. Babb, pastor. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., by Rev. Hill Robertson. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Ladies' Aid Society Tuesday 2:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

EDGEWOOD.—Sabbath school 9:30 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by V. C. Norcross. All cordially invited.

CAPITOL AVENUE.—A special service of peculiar interest will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, in which Dr. Julien S. Rodgers and Dr. B. J. W. Graham and Pastor Briggs will participate. Evening worship 7:30, subject, "Man's Hiding Place." Sunday school 9:30 a. m., Colonel W. W. Gaines, superintendent. Junior Union 3 p. m. Ladies' Missionary Society Monday, 3 p. m. Prayer and praise, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.

TABERNACLE.—Sunday night Dr. Broughton will again take up the question of gambling and gamblers in Atlanta, and will answer some of the statements and charges made by those who have criticised his position of last Sunday night. He will also preach at the 11 o'clock service. The Lord's supper will be celebrated at the close of the morning sermon, and a full membership of the church is desired.

WESTERN HEIGHTS.—Corner Kennedy and Chestnut streets. T. E. Elgin, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Prayer meetings Tuesday and Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Ladies' Aid Society Wednesday at 3 p. m. Choir practice and young peoples' meeting, Friday at 7:30 p. m. Sunbeam Society Friday at 3 p. m.

Presbyterian.

FIRST.—Rev. Walter L. Lingle, D. D.., the pastor, will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p.m.. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

FOURTH.—Corner Jackson and Chamberlin streets. Preaching every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Newkirk. Regular mid-week prayer service Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

WESTMINSTER.—Corner Boulevard and Forrest avenue. United prayer at the church 9 a. m. Sunday school 9:30. Worship at 11 and 7:30. Morning sermon, "In Touch With God." Night Sermon, "Decision." Junior Workers 3:30. Y. P. S. 6:30. Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30. Teachers' meeting following at 8:15, led by the new superintendent, W. M. Everett.

NORTH AVENUE—Corner Peachtree street and North avenue, Rev. Richard Orme Flinn, pastor. Morning worship 11; evening worship 8 p. m. Preaching by the pastor. Sabbath school 9:30. Young Men's League and Philathea 9:45. Men's Bible conference, Dr. K. G. Matheson, leader. Teacher's training class, Dr. Marion McH. Hull, leader, 10 o'clock. Covenanter band 3 p. m. Christian Endeavor 6:45 p. m. Wednesday, 7 p. m., teachers' training class; 7:45 prayer meeting. Thursday, 6:30 p. m., business women's committee.

BARNETT—Corner Hampton street and Bradley avenue. Services every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school and special song service 3 p. m. Prayer meeting and chorus practice Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

ASSOCIATE REFORMED—Corner Whitehall street and Whitehall Terrace. Services: Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Morning subject, "God's Call to a Slumbering Church"; evening subject, "Excesses For Rejecting Salvation." Sabbath school 10 a. m.; Young People's Christian Union 7 p. m. Subject, "Greed of Gold."

WALLACE—Corner Walker and Stonewall streets. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Dr. Marion McH. Hull, and at 7:45 p. m. by Rev. John S. Keith. At close of morning service a congregational meeting will be held for the purpose of calling a pastor. Sabbath school at 9:30 a. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:45 p. m.

Methodist.

FIRST—Junction of Peachtree and Ivy streets. Rev. J. S. French, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., W. H. Patterson, superintendent. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Junior League at 2 p. m. Epworth League at 6:45 p. m. Mid-week service Wednesday at 8 p. m.

TRINITY—Corner Whitehall street and Trinity avenue. Dr. J. W. Lee, the pastor, will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject, "The Pity of the Lord for Our Failures." In the evening, "A Song of Two Cities, Damascus and Petia." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Weekly prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m.

PARK STREET—Corner of Park and Lee streets, Rev. M. L. Troutman, pastor. Pastor's residence 174 Lee street, Bell 'phone 294 West. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m., followed by a teachers' meeting.

WALKER STREET—Junction of Nelson and Walker streets. Sermon 11 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Will T. Hamby; subject, "Building a House For the Soul." The pastor's sermon at evening services will be "Prisoners of Hope." Meeting of stewards will be held at the parsonage Tuesday evening at 7:30.

ST. JOHN'S—The pastor, H. C. Christian, will preach at 11 a. m., subject, "A Supreme Moment in the History of a Family." The last church conference for the year will be held after the morning sermon. At 7:30 p. m. the pastor will hold revival services. Subject, "The Good and the Bad."

ST. LUKE'S—Junction of Berean avenue and Powell street. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Services for all, subject, "Home," 10:30 a. m. Regular services at 7:30 p. m.

WESLEY MEMORIAL—Corner Auburn avenue and Ivy street, Rev. R. F. Eakes, pastor. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Busy People's Bible Class; Baraca Bible Class; Young Ladies' Philathea Bible Class. Preaching at 11 a. m. by the pastor. Song service 7:30 p. m. Special music by the chorus and orchestra. Preaching at 8 p. m. Epworth League devotional service at 6:30 p. m. Subject, "The Evil of Strong Drink." Woman's Foreign Missionary Society Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. worker's counsel. Prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m.

HEMPHILL AVENUE—R. H. Rabb, pastor. Sunday school 9:30 a. m., W. A. Ansley, superintendent. Preaching morning and evening by the pastor. Morning subject, "Harvest Hands Needed." All invited.

EGLESTON MEMORIAL—Corner of Washington and Fulton streets. Preaching at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m., by the Rev. A. F. Ellington, D.D. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m.

INMAN PARK—Edgewood avenue and Hurt street, Rev. Henry B. Mays, pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The missionary week of prayer will be observed by the two women's societies Monday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3:30, and Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Congregational.

CENTRAL—Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Morning service at 11 a. m. Sermon by the Rev. Smith Baker, of Portland, Maine. Young people's prayer meeting at 6:30 p. m., led by Mrs. D. I. Carson; topic, "The Greed of Gold." Evening service at 7:45. Dr. Baker will deliver the first of a series of lectures especially for young people, the subject being "The Stupid or Ambitious Young Man—Which?"

UNION TABERNACLE—Corner McDaniel and Hightower streets, one block sotuh of Whitehall street. Rev. O. A. Barbee, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Philathea, Junior and Baraca classes meet Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. and Monday night at 7:45 o'clock. Ladies' prayer meeting Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and mid-week prayer at 7:45 p. m. Children's meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Lutheran.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER—Corner Trinity avenue and Capitol place. Rev. E. C. Cronk, pastor. Morning service with sermon at 11 o'clock. Bible school at 9:30 a. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m.

ST. JOHN'S GERMAN EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN—Corner Forsyth and Garnett streets, G. Nussmann, pastor. Preaching in German and English 11 a. m. Sunday school 10 a. m.

Catholic.

SACRED HEART—Peachtree and Ivy. Sunday masses at 7, 9:30 and 11 a. m. Young Men's Apologetic Association at 10:15. At 11 Father Gunn will preach on "Modernism." At 4 p. m., rosary. Instruction and benediction. Masses during the week every morning at 6, 6:30, 7 and 8 a. m.

Unitarian.

FIRST—Spring street corner West Cain. Rev. Alexander T. Bowser, minister. Subject for Sunday, November 10, "Human Nature: Its Kinship With Divinity." Services at 11 o'clock. All seats free. Sunday school meets at 9:45 o'clock, Hon. Hamilton Douglas, superintendent.

Universalist.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH—Corner Peachtree and East Harris. Rev. E. D. Ellenwood, pastor. Residence 40 East Harris, 'phone Main 2906-L. Regular preaching service at 11 a. m., with sermon by the pastor. Subject, "Jesus Christ and Modern Life." Sunday school at 9:45.

Y. M. C. A.

Y. M. C. A.—Dr. C. B. Wilmer, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, will deliver on Sunday afternoon, November 10, the second of his addresses on "Liberty and Freedom." Dr. Wilmer's address last Sunday on "Is Man a Free Moral Agent?" was enthusiastically received by a large audience. The subject of the second address will be "The Liberty of Discretion." There will be a solo by Mrs. W. R. Quillian, soprano, and the association orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion. All men are cordially invited. The service begins at 3:30, closing at 4:30.

HIGH WINDS

Play havoc with insecure eyeglasses. We have a mounting that will hold tight. A. K. Hawkes Co., Scientific Opticians, 14 Whitehall and 125 Peachtree (Candler bldg.)

INSTANT RELIEF FROM CATARRH.

Send for a Trial Sample of This Great Remedy, and Convince Yourself of Its Merit.

When we say that Eclipse Catarrh Cure gives instant relief from that disagreeable, offensive disease from which so many suffer, we are ready to prove this assertion to your entire satisfaction. No matter how long you have been afflicted, no matter how badly stopped up your head may be, the sample which we will send you will give immediate relief, clear up the clogged air passages, throw off the offensive accumulations, and soothe and heal the delicate, irritated membrane.

Eclipse Catarrh Cure is a vegetable preparation of wonderful curative powers. It promptly reaches the remotest air passages, where the disease is located, and effects a permanent cure in even the worst cases.

Mrs. M. C. Black, Anderson, S. C., Writes:

"I write to tell you that I am a thousand times obliged to you for the trial package of Eclipse Catarrh Cure which you sent me a short time ago. The remedy has done me more good than any other medicine I ever used, and I am going to recommend it to all my friends who suffer with catarrh. It is worth its weight in gold to any one who suffers with this disease.

"I feel that I can never say enough in praise of your remedy and will always be your friend for the good it has done me."

Send for Week's Treatment.

We are anxious for every sufferer to try this great remedy and will send for twenty-five cents in stamps a liberal trial treatment and a pipe to all who will send us their name and address. We have hundreds of letters from grateful patients whom we have cured and will send you also our booklet containing these testimonials and full information about the disease. Do not delay, but write today. Address Eclipse Medicine and Manufacturing Company, Atlanta, Ga.

SESSION CLOSES WITH ENTHUSIASM

Last Day of Woman's Baptist Missionary Union.

MANY REPORTS WERE MADE

November 22 Was Adopted as the Day to Send Books to the Mountain School Libraries—Report Made on Ministerial Relief.

Waynesboro, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The last day of the meeting of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Union dawned bright and beautiful, but the crowd was off fully one-third, many of the delegates from distant homes going away on the morning trains. As the program for a whole day was crowded into a half day the business of the session was dispatched with rapidity. More enthusiasm was shown today than at any other meeting.

The devotional services were conducted by Mrs. Carroll, of Naylor. A report on book day for mountain schools, written by Mrs. Mary Tichnor Barnes, was read by Miss Helen Howard, and November 22 was adopted as the day to send books to the mountain schools libraries. It was found that seventeen Baptist schools needed books. This report was previously adopted at Richmond in behalf of the schools for the southern states and plans for the Georgia schools were left with their executive committee.

At this point in the meeting a telegram of greetings was read by Mrs. Bond from Miss Heck, of Baltimore, who is corresponding secretary at that place.

The report of the committee on ministerial relief was read by Mrs. Moncrief, and showed that during the past year four aged ministers had been cared for. It also showed that the funds appropriated were insufficient, and more liberal and generous support was urged.

$5,000 Was Asked.

An appropriation of $5,000 was asked for the next year. This report was discussed at length by Mesdames Bond, Landrum, Richards, Newman, Spence, Bivins, Wiggs and Hodges. Report of the state missionary, Mrs. M. P. Gunter, of Monroe, was read and adopted. Report of Miss Ida Spence was read and adopted, and prayer for all the missionaries was offered by Miss Verdery.

A paper on the Baptist Women's Training School, located at Louisville, Ky., was read by Mrs. Bridges, of Hawkinsville, and discussed by Miss Crane and Mesdames Richards, Hatcher Taylor, Orme, Wiggs, and others, and more interest and enthusiasm was shown than at any time during the week when contributions and pledges were asked for the endowment and maintenance of this school which has recently been presented to the union by the Sunday school board of the S. B. C. The sum asked for was made in five minutes.

One woman from Sandersville, Ga., gave $125, and others gave so fast that the secretary could hardly keep up with the contributions, and one young lady gave herself to the school and mission work.

Griffin Was Selected.

The committee on the time and place of the next meeting selected Griffin, Ga., for November 1908. Delegates to the W. M. U. Auxiliary to the southern Baptist convention were selected. They are, Mrs. J. D. Chapman, Mrs. W. P. Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Reeves, Mrs. R. L. Bivens, Mrs. A. S. Parker, and Mrs. I. W. Newman. Mrs. Lula Wilson, Miss E. L. Amos. Greetings from Mrs. Seymour, of Macon, former president of the union were gladly accepted. The apportionment committee reported $40,000 as the apportionment for the coming year for the Georgia Baptist women.

All the old officers of the union were reelected and are as follows: President, Mrs. E. G. Willingham, of Atlanta; first vice president, Mrs. W. H. Young, Athens; second vice president, Mrs. A. R. Bond, West Point; third vice president, Mrs. W. J. Neel, Cartersville; corresponding secretary and treasurer, Miss Emma Amos, Forsyth; recording secretary, Mrs. J. W. Willis, Atlanta; superintendent, Y. P. W., Mrs. F. C. Wallis, Millen; state missionary, Mrs. M. P. Gunter, Monroe; editor mission, Messenger, Mrs. Laura Richards, Atlanta; business manager Mission Messenger, Mrs. T. J. Buchanan, Atlanta.

The business meeting was then adjourned until the next session, which will take place in Griffin.

The great throng of delegates are leaving the city with many regrets for they say they would like to meet here every year. They speak of the kindness and hospitality shown while in the city in most flattering terms and are well pleased with work here.

By morning the Baptist Female Missionary Union meeting in Waynesboro will be a memory that is indelibly stamped on every one who was in attendance. The Constitution was thanked for their reports of the meeting by members and officers of the union.

The French Brand.

(From The Chicago Tribune.)

Customer—Why is a pipe made from French brier root better than one made from American brier root?

Tobacconist—Because anything that's French is a little tougher than the same thing in any other country.

BIG RIVER STEAMER SINKS

The J. P. Williams Sank at Her Moorings at Pensacola.

Montgomery, Ala., November 8.—The big river steamer J. P. Williams, which plies between Pensacola, Fla., and points up the Black Water river, sank at her moorings at Pensacola wharf early this morning, taking down with her a large cargo of naval stores and product. No one was drowned.

WAXENE

For floors and woodwork.

GEORGIA PAINT & GLASS CO.,

40 Peachtree Street.

ST. LOUIS FOR NEXT MEETING

Reunion of Army of the Tennessee Closes With a Banquet.

Vicksburg, Miss., November 8.—The army of the Tennessee, which convened in annual reunion here yesterday, today selected St. Louis as the next meeting place, and reelected General G. M. Dodge president and Colonel Cornelius Cadle, secretary, then reunion concluding with a banquet tonight.

Capitola

..CONTEST..

For best missing line to the following Limerick Verse closes at noon today:

A cook who was fat and jolly,
Was too busy to become melancholy;
Her bread, biscuits and cakes,
Of Capitola she makes,

Accompany your line with the word Capitola cut from a Capitola Flour Sack.

Order a Sack of Capitola this morning and enter the contest.

$10.00 In Gold for Best Missing Line
$5.00 In Gold for Second Best

Send your line to Atlanta Milling Co.

"Look for the Sign on the Sack"

Bring This Ad. With You

Good For 50c Applied on Dental Work

TEETH GUARANTEED TO FIT

Gold Crowns, best 22-k. Bridge Work $3.00

All Other Dental Work at Reduced Prices.

DR. E. G. GRIFFIN'S

Gate City Dental Rooms

Phone 1708. 24 1-2 Whitehall St. Hours, 8 a. m.—9 p. m.; Sundays, 9 a. m.—4 p. m.

USE GREAT KITE IN ADVERTISING

Bostock's Trained Animals Give First Exhibition at Auditorium.

About the highest bit of advertising seen in the south this season was that employed by the "Bostock Arena," which opened its wild animal show at Ponce de Leon park last night, when a giant kite was employed.

This kite was about four times as large as those "we used" to fly, and when it had soared up about three times as high as the Candler building, a banner bearing the magic word "Bostock" was sent traveling up the twine.

It floated over the heart of the city all day, and attracted the attention of hundreds.

Out at the rink last night an enthusiastic audience greeted the first performance of the king of animal trainers. The hundred denizens of the jungle were put through the tricks of the common or garden dog and pony show.

There were many important personages noted in the audience, and the show, which will remain in the St. Nicholas rink during the winter, promises to be the mecca for thousands in search of this delightful form of amusement.

Ocilla Boy Disappears.

Ocilla, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Last Sunday, Newton Hudson, the 16-year-old son of Mr. W. N. Hudson, of Ocilla, left home in company with Walter Padgett, aged 15, and as no tidings have been received, their parents are uneasy about them. Mr. Hudson wants his son at home to go to school.

Any one who can give Mr. Hudson the whereabouts of his son will confer a favor.

J. C. LUSK GOES TO CHARLESTON

Popular Atlanta Man Leaves for His New Post of Duty.

J. C. Lusk left the city yesterday to take charge of his new office of division passenger agent of the Southern Railway with headquarters in Charleston, S. C.

Mr. Lusk has resided over a year in Atlanta, holding the position with the Southern of district passenger agent.

Mr. Lusk's new position will give him much greater responsibilities, as he will have entire charge in the state of South Carolina and in Georgia as far as Augusta.

His promotions with the Southern have been rapid and he has won his way to the top by efficiency and strict attention to business.

He began his service with the Southern in 1896 in the district passenger office at Knoxville, Tenn., and was promoted in 1899 to Selma as traveling passenger agent. He went to Birmingham and Chattanooga and then back to Birmingham in 1901 as district passenger agent. From there he went to Jacksonville, Fla., and then came to Atlanta a little over a year ago.

Mr. Lusk's many friends in Atlanta, while rejoicing at his promotion, greatly regret to see him leave the city.

Funeral of Miles M. Dewberry.

Macon, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The funeral of Miles M. Dewberry, who was accidentally killed by J. C. Henson early yesterday morning, will be held at the home tomorrow afternoon, the funeral service having been delayed on account of the arrival of a brother. The remains will be laid to rest in Jones chapel cemetery.

W. L. DOUGLAS

THE BEST $3.50 SHOES

Men in every walk of life, in all professions and trades, the gentleman of leisure and the workingman—all wear W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes because they are the best.

$25,000 Reward — To any one who can prove that W. L. Douglas does not make and sell more men's $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer.

THE REASON W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are worn by more men in all walks of life than any other make, is because of their excellent style, easy fitting and superior wearing qualities. The selection of the leathers and other materials for each part of the shoe, and every detail of the making is looked after by the most complete organization of superintendents, foremen and skilled shoemakers, who receive the highest wages paid in the shoe industry, and whose workmanship cannot be excelled.

If I could take you into my large factories at Brockton, Mass., and show you how carefully W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are made, you would then understand why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater value than any other $3.50 shoe.

My method of tanning the bottom soles produces more flexible and longer wearing leather than any other tannage.

W. L. DOUGLAS $4.00 GILT EDGE SHOE
Cannot Be Equalled at Any Price.

W. L. DOUGLAS BOYS' SHOES $1.75 AND $2.00. JUST THE SAME AS MY MEN'S $3.50 SHOES, THE SAME LEATHERS, FOR $1.75 AND $2.00.

CAUTION. The genuine have W. L. Douglas name and price stamped on bottom. Take No Substitute. When in need of shoes, if not convenient to go to W. L. Douglas store, ask your dealer for W. L. Douglas shoes. If he cannot supply you, send direct to factory. Shoes mailed everywhere. Illustrated Catalog free. W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass.

W. L. DOUGLAS SHOE STORE IN ATLANTA: 11 PEACHTREE STREET.

Our Methods

THE HIGH STANDING of the Atlanta National Bank is equally due to the absolute safety it assures for funds deposited, the prompt and careful manner in which every account is handled, and the personal interest shown to every depositor, thereby assuring him that his interests are identical with those of the institution. The policy of the bank is as liberal as is consistent with sound banking, and in each separate department the most up-to-date methods are employed, insuring exactness and the greatest dispatch in the handling of all business intrusted to it.

Commercial and Savings accounts solicited.

4 Per Cent Interest on Savings Deposits

ATLANTA NATIONAL BANK

Established 1865 U. S. Depository

SPORTS

SEWANEE AND TECH WILL CLASH TODAY

Edited by Alex Lynn

MANY ELEVENS ENGAGE TODAY

Contests Not as Interesting as Last Week's.

Sewanee Has It Over Tech, While Vandy Falls Into a Cinch With Mississippi — Yellow Jackets Will Work Hard to Score Against the Tigers.

TODAY'S GAMES.

Tech-Sewanee, in Atlanta, Ponce de Leon Park. Game called at 3 o'clock.
Mercer-Auburn, at Auburn
Vanderbilt-Mississippi, at Nashville.
Clemson-Davidson, at Clemson.
North Carolina-Georgetown, at Washington, D. C.
Virginia-Washington and Lee, at Charlottesville.
Harvard-Carlisle, at Cambridge.
Yale-Brown, at New Haven.
Princeton-Amherst, at Princeton.
Cornell-West Point, at West Point.
Annapolis-Swarthmore, at Annapolis.
Dartmouth-Holy Cross, at Hanover.
Williams-Wesleyan, at Middletown.
Syracuse-Niagara, at Syracuse.
Pennsylvania-Penn State, at Philadelphia.
Washington and Jefferson-Geneva, at Washington, Pa.
Lafayette-Bucknell, at Easton.
Tufts-Amherst Aggies, at Medford.
Stevens-Trinity, at Hartford.
Bates-Bowdoin, at Lewiston.
Fordham-Villanova, at Villanova.
Georgetown-North Carolina, at Washington.
Chicago-Purdue, at Chicago.
Indiana-Wisconsin, at Madison.

As has been mentioned more than once before, there's quite a slump in interest in today's football games over those of last Saturday, when Tech had her great game with Georgia and Vandy was making a fight with the Michiganders in Nashville. There's a big difference today with the Yellow Jackets in a crippled condition taking on the strong Sewanee team and the Commodores tackling Mississippi.

The Tigers will gain a victory over Tech, but not by such a margin as the McGugin team will over Mississippi. The result of this latter battle depends on the Commodores. They can make the score to suit themselves.

There will be more to the local game than that, for Tech is going to make a strong effort to count on the Tennessee outfit and may do it. That's about the only point left in the betting—whether the Yellow Jackets will score. They are giving Tech backers odds of 5 to 1 and that shows how the Sewanee followers look at it.

Clemson should put up a warm fight with Davidson at Clemson today. The South Carolina team used scrubs in the game with Georgia Thursday and saved the most of the 'varsity for this battle with her opponents from the sister state. According to past performances, Davidson is the favorite and should get away with the game. But at that Clemson is pretty strong herself. The eleven used against Georgia held the Red and Black in the first half and made her resort to field goals in the second, and that wasn't Clemson's best representation. Then, on the other hand, Georgia didn't have the bunch that appeared at Ponce de Leon last Saturday, several of the stars of that game being out of the fray because of injuries, so the reports from have it.

North Carolina meets Georgetown in Washington and should put up a good fight against the college that has more men to pick from. The Tarheels are confident that they will carry themselves well in the Capital City.

The Gordon cadets, who butted into the college class this season, have the University of Chattanooga team to contend with, and although Blake's bunch seems to have an idea that they are up against something strong, they should get the decision without much trouble.

The Virginia sluggers play Washington and Lee at Charlottesville.

Of the eastern games the Harvard-Carlisle match tops the list, and it would not be surprising to see the red men come into their own again after a decline since the Pennsylvania game. From the dope the two seem to be pretty evenly matched, however.

Yale plays the Brown team that has made a clever showing this season. Cornell has the army as an opponent, and there are many other good games on the roster.

SMITH SIGNED CONTRACT FOR TWO YEARS' SERVICE

Billy Smith did something new for him in Atlanta baseball when he signed a two-year contract instead of the one-year papers he has been sticking his signature on heretofore. This should stop that "win the pennant or get out" howl of the outsiders, who, from time immemorial, have been saying that Billy must win or lose out entirely. And this would have been done even if Atlanta had not finished first last year.

The 1908 contract is the same as the ones that have been tendered the Atlanta manager in the past, the clause that he shall run the team to suit himself, hiring his own men, standing out in bold relief.

GEORGIA AND SEWANEE WILL PLAY IN ATHENS

Athens, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The Georgia-Sewanee game will be played in Athens. This has been decided on by the Georgia management. The Georgia team is practicing hard and hopes to hold Sewanee to a close score.

File Bankruptcy Petition.

Brunswick, Ga., November 8.—(Special.) Gray & Gotchell, of Waycross and Tifton, with lumber mills at Howell, Ga., filed a petition in bankrutcy today. The schedule shows debts of $24,690 and assets of about the same amount. The Citizens' bank, of Tifton, is secured for $13,000, and the Citizens' bank, of Valdosta, for $2,500. The firm is one of the largest lumber operators in this section.

FOUR OF CHATTANOOGA'S STAR MEN.

Morgan, Left End and Halfback. Mike, the Jap End, and Trotter, Center. McGaughey, Fullback.

TIGERS ARE A HUSKY BUNCH.

The members of the Sewanee team that plays Tech today, together with their weights and other dope, follows:

Name.	Home Town.	Position.	Age.	Wgt.	Hgt.
Guy Lewis	Dallas, Tex	Right End	22	165	5-11½
William Evans	Parral, Mexico	Right Tackle	19	180	5-11½
Frank Faulkenberry	Fayetteville, Tenn.	Right Guard	19	198	6-4½
Thomas Evans	Parral, Mexico	Center	20	160	6-1
Erio Cheape	Avon Park, Fla.	Left Guard	21	170	6-1½
Lex Stone	Fayetteville, Tenn.	Left Tackle	22	172	6-2½
Silas Williams	Greenville, S. C.	Left End	19	150	5-9½
Capt. Walter Barret	Covington, Tenn.	Quarterback	22	155	5-10
Frank Shipp	Chattanooga, Tenn.	Right Half	25	170	5-11
Lawrence Markley	Chicago, Ill.	Left Half	22	165	5-10½
Aubrey Lanier	Covington, Tenn.	Fullback	19	160	5-10½
SUBSTITUTES.
Logan Hisele	Denver, Colo.	Sub Back	19	160	6
Kenneth Lyne	Henderson, Ky.	Sub Back	19	146	5-10
William Wilson	Rock Hill, S. C.	Sub End	22	144	5-10½
Heber Wadley	Shreveport, La.	Sub Lineman	21	170	6-2
Paul Sheppard	Texarkana, Tex.	Sub Lineman	23	170	5-11

Games played so far and scores:

Sewanee 22, Mooney 0, at Sewanee on September 27.

Sewanee 38, Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical 0, at Sewanee on October 10.

Sewanee 12, Auburn college 6, at Birmingham on October 19.

Sewanee 54, University of Alabama 5, at Tusaloosa on October 21.

Sewanee 65, Mississippi 0.

Sewanee 12, Virginia 0.

TECH WILL FIGHT HARD AGAINST TIGERS TODAY

"We are going to twist the jaunty Tiger's tail, tie it into a knot and send him back to his lair with his head hanging down and his tongue dragging the ground," said Coach Heisman of Tech yesterday, smilingly. Then he added: "It looks like we are up against it but we will make a good showing. And it would not be at all surprising to see us score.

The Yellow Jackets showed good form in their last practice before the Sewanee game. The loss of the three veterans rather put a crimp in the team work but the men who were sent in to fill us the gaps are showing much improvement and the bunch played well together yesterday afternoon when the usual light signal practice was on.

The fifth full back and third quarter of the season will work this afternoon against Sewanee and both of them are showing up nicely. It isn't so much that they aren't good football performers for the regular men haven't it much over them, but the fact is they have not been at their different jobs long. However, as has been mentioned before, they have taken great strides in their work since they began practice the first of the week when it was learned that the vets would be on the shelf.

Johnson is the man who will debut at full and he looks good. Hightower is putting up a great game at quarter now and Jones is doing well on Robert's end. Brown got back in the game just in time. He will play at left tackle this afternoon and after all the Yellow Jackets will have a strong line-up for the battle and one that will make a game right against odds in weight. It is said that the Tigers have it on them several pounds to the man in this particular.

The big game today will get under way at 3 o'clock but a battle between the scrubs and the Georgia Military Academy team will be started at 2:30 o'clock.

The management has raised the price of reserved seats to $1. Last Saturday some of them sold for 90 cents and it consumed so much time in making change that it was thought best to have all the reserved seats at the same price. Here is the scale that will be observed today: Bleachers 50 cents, grand stand 75 cents, smoker $1 and boxes $1. General admission will be obtained at the gates and reserved seats can be purchased in the grounds.

The Tech line-up:
Snyder, center.
Henderson, right guard.
Smith, left guard.
Davis, right tackle.
Brown, left tackle.
Hill, right end.
Jones, left end.
Sweet (Captain), right half.
Fitzsimmons, left half.
Johnson, full.
Hightower, quarter.

Adamson and Wilcox and Burt may have a chance to get into the fray before it is over.

The officials will be: George Butler, referee; Elgin (University) Nashville), umpire; Beaver (Georgia), or Patterson (Vanderbilt), field judge, and Virlyn Moore (Georgia), head linesman.

Lest some forget the game will be played at Ponce de Leon Park.

DID GRIFF DRAW LEMON IN THE ST. LOUIS DEAL?

Clark Griffith traded Jimmy Williams and Danny Hoffman for Harry Niles and Charley Hemphill, of the St. Louis Browns, and then, after closing a deal whereby Hobe Ferris will come to New York next season, hiked for the train and started for his ranch in Montana.

Some people are saying that Griff got the better of the deal, but at best it looks like a neven swap. We can figure where Hemphill is as good as Hoffman. The former was in a minor league last season and it does not seem possible that he can "come back" strong enough and be better than Hoffman.

The say that Hemphill is a better hitter than Hoffman. Still, he batted below .300 this year and besides he is a pretty old bird to be in the front rank. Still, Hemphill may come back strong, just as did Al Orth. Let us hope so.

In Niles the Yankees got a mighty good ball player. Here is a man that can play either the outfield or on the baseline. Griff did not say where Niles would be played, but it looks as if he will use him in the outer garden, which means that Conroy will get his old station at third, where he plays best.

Ferris' future is not decided upon. With Williams gone, Griff must fill second base. Still, it is just possible that Ferris may figure in another deal that will bring a strong man for the second station.

But again. Unless Hemphill can "come back" it looks as if Griff has been dealing in limes again.—Evening Mail.

MANY MICHIGAN STARS COACHING THIS SEASON

Just ten former Michigan warriors are coaching round the country this fall. Here's the list:

Name.	School Coaching.
McGugin, '02	Vanderbilt
Cole, '03	Nebraska
Herrnstein, '03	Ohio State
Stuart, '06	Nebraska, assistant
Norcross, '06	Oregon Agricultural
Curtis, '07	Tulane
Schults, '06	Ypsilanti Normal
Longman, '06	Arkansas
Maddock, '03	Utah
Dunlap, '06	Michigan Military

J.P. Those suffering from weaknesses which sap the pleasures of life should take Juven Pills. One box will tell a story of marvelous results. This medicine has more rejuvenating, vitalizing force than has ever before been offered. Sent post-paid in plain package only on receipt of this adv. and $1. Made by its originators C. I. Hood Co., proprietors Hood's Sarsaparilla, Lowell, Mass.

NIGHT RIDERS ARE THE TIGERS

Sewanee Team Will Not Reach Atlanta Until This Morning.

The Sewanee team that will meet Tech is a bunch of night riders for fair. Most aggregations of this character generally arrive on the scene of action the day before the game but the Tigers did not leave their stronghold until last night. They will reach Atlanta this morning and stop at the Aragon hotel. A telegram received by that hostelry yesterday said that the bunch would be on hand for breakfast Saturday morning.

The Tigers seem to be of the opinion that the dope on Tech's condition is a false alarm and that Robert, Buchanan and Luck will be used by Tech Saturday afternoon, while alas, it is too true that these three sterling athletes will watch the fray from the side lines. If each of the trio had his way about it, all of them would be in the line-up, but "if wishes were ponies, beggars wouldn't have to walk," or words to that effect. But Luck has been barred by the faculty, Robert is unable to work one arm and Buchanan has one crop out of commission.

The two of them would make one healthy football player if they could be stuck together after some fashion. This was evidenced at practice yesterday afternoon when Buck, minus one leg, but with good wings, held the ball for Robert, minus an arm, but with two sturdy props, to kick it. And this was the way they practiced; it was the best they could pull off. It's a pity that Buck couldn't give Chip an arm or Chip give Buck a leg, for then one or the other could play, or perhaps they would do the exchanging in the middle of the game so that each could draw a share of the combat.

COOLER WEATHER TODAY FOR FOOTBALL CONTEST

Cooler weather is predicted for Atlanta and the vicinity today, following the warm weather of yesterday. It was, however, almost a perfect day as there was hardly a cloud in the sky.

The cooler weather will be greatly appreciated by the enthusiasts who will journey out to see the Tech-Sewanee football clash and the all-day animal show of the Bostock Arena at Ponce de Leon park.

The Indian Summer weather which Atlanta has been enjoying this winter has put the weather man's computations all out of gear.

M'GUGIN HERE FOR GAME TO GET LINE ON TIGERS

Dan McGugin, the Vandy coach, will be in Atlanta for the Tech-Sewanee game today.

He comes to get a line on Sewanee's movements, as the Commodores meet the Tigers on Thanksgiving day.

Cotton Nearly Gathered.

Perry, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The cotton is nearly all gathered and the farmers are trying to sow oats, but the ground is so dry and hard it is rather difficult to do so. Wells are failing in nearly all sections of the county, due to the dry weather.

MAY SOON BE LIBERATED

Dr. J. Lewis Browne Hopes to Give the Peace Bond in a Day or Two.

Dr. John Lewis Browne, the organist of the Sacred Heart church, who is held in a $5,000 peace bond, is still in the Tower, but his friends hope to get him out on bail in a day or two.

A number of citizens signified a willingness yesterday to sign Dr. Browne's bond, but it was decided to wait until Attorney Burton Smith, who has charge of the case and who has been absent from the city, can take up the matter.

Dr. Browne had a number of callers yesterday who deeply sympathized with him.

To a reporter of The Constitution Dr. Browne stated that he had no ill will against Father Gunn, who took out the peace warrant. He says that he fired his pistol one time while standing between his own home and that of Father Gunn, but that he did not shoot at the latter's house. He claims to have bought a new pistol and fired it to see how it would shoot.

FAVORITE WINS WITH GREAT EASE

Sewell Was Five Lengths Ahead of the Next Horse.

Got Off Badly, but by Good Handling on the Part of Dugan He Forged to the Front and Held the Lead to the End.

Aqueduct, November 8.—The Glen Cove selling stakes, one mile, the feature of the card at Aqueduct today, resulted in an easy victory for Sewell. The favorite was off badly, but in the stretch went to the front and won by five lengths.

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs: Hessian, 110 (Horner), 8 to 1, won; Miss Salin, 109 (Notter), 2 to 5, place, second; Jubilee Juggins, 98 (McDaniel), 4 to 1, show, third. Time, 1:14 4-5.

SECOND RACE—Seven furlongs: Jack Atkin, 123 (E. Duggan), 5 to 2, won; Spooner, 104 (Miller), 4 to 5, place, second; Welbourne, 103 (Notter), even, to show, third. Time, 1:27.

THIRD RACE—The Glen Cove, one mile: Sewell, 105 (E. Duggan), 2 to 5 won; Adoration, 98 (Sumter), 9 to 10, place, second; Oraculum, 106 (Miller), out to show, third. Time, 1:43.

FOURTH RACE—Handicap, all ages, one mile and five-sixteenths: Right Royal, 114 (McDaniel), 17 to 10, and 3 to 5, won; Pins and Needles, 107 (Sumter), 4 to 5, place, second; Tommy Waddell, 104 (E. Dugan), 1 to 3, show third. Time, 2:15 4-5.

FIFTH RACE—Selling, five furlongs: Sandal, 108 (Notter), 4 to 1, won; Miss Delaney, 108 (Horner), 5 to 2, place, second; Great Dane, 103 (Sumter), 4 to 1, to show, third. Time, 1:01 1-5.

SIXTH RACE—Mile: Ramrod, 104 (McDaniel), 4 to 5, won; Charles G. Gates, 112 (Calahan), 4 to 5, place, second; George G. Hall, 109 (J. Swain), 2 to 1, to show, third. Time, 1:43.

Aqueduct Entries for Today.

First Race—Selling, 5½ furlongs: Robinhood, 114; Workman, 114; Rockstone, Troublemaker, Firebrand, General Haley, 110; Easton, Purslane, Park Row, 108; Bowling Bride, Frank Todd, George S. Davis, East End, 105; Cora Price, 102; L'Amour, 100.

Second Race—Queensboro steeplechase, about 2½ miles: Thistledale, 160; Jimmy Lane, 151; Bat, 135; Dulcina, 134.

Third Race—The Oakdale handicap, 6 furlongs: Falcada, 124; Royal Tourist, 122; Dorante, 107; Hessian, 106; Fancy, 105; Rialto, 104; Counterman, 93; Sun Gleam, 90.

Fourth Race—The Edgemoor, all ages, mile and a furlong: Nealon, Right Royal, 126; Brookdale Nymph, Ironsides, 124; Ballot, 118.

Fifth Race—Selling, mile: Grapple, 113; Dusty Miller, 111; Glen Echo, 108; Agile, 106; St. Valentine, 104; Robador, 103; Troublemaker, Quinn Brady, 101; Chief Hayes, 98; Consistent, 97; Purslane, St. Joseph, 96; Lord Stanhope, 95; Killicrankie, 94; East End, 93; Royal Lady, 90; Workmaid, 89.

Sixth Race—7 furlongs: Kidnap, Morbitt, Bolando, Monocle, Goshen Chief, Gridiron, Bobbin' Around, Alamandone, Whidden, 105; Lotus Brandt, Rosario, Winning Star, Trash, Brawl, 102.

MOUNTAIN BOYS EASY WINNERS

Boys' High School Loses in Game Fight---Score 38 to 0.

Stone Mountain 38, Boys' High school 0, was the final score of the game played at Stone Mountain yesterday afternoon.

The two teams were about evenly matched in weight, the Mountain boys' superior training deciding the result.

The High school pulled off an excellent forward pass, which was responsible for most of their gains. Their line bucking was also strong. Stone Mountain excelled in end running, seldom failing to make their distance on this play. Their on-side kicks and forward passes also worked well, three of the seven touchdowns resulting directly from these plays.

The game was hard played throughout the thirty minutes of play, and the best of feeling prevailed. The features were the playing of Jarvis, Edmiston, Hinton, Ward and Captain Everett for High school, and Cox, Bailey, Bradshaw and Bullard for Stone Mountain.

The line-up was as follows:

Kelley	center
Stephens	right end
Rogers	left guard
Woodruff	right tackle
Bullard	left tackle
Dudley	right end
Klein	left end
Bradshaw	right half, Everett (capt.)
Cox	left half
Bailey (capt.)	fullback
J. Crews	quarter

Referee, Beaver. Umpire, Moore. Head linesman, Woodruff. Time of halves, 20 and 10 minutes.

HEAVY GLOOM AT CLUB OVER DEATH OF "DUCK"

Heavy gloom pervades every nook, cranny and cosy corner of the Aethletic club. "Duck" is dead. Sanford Carter was Duck's real name, but he was always known as Duck McQueen, and he liked this cognomen as well as every member of the club liked him. Duck was a porter of long service at the club, and he knew and was known by every member that went in and out of the doors, day in and day out. The club never had a more popular serving man, and it will be many, many days, before the members can reconcile themselves to their loss. It may never be, who knows?

Duck was at one time porter in various of the fraternity club houses at the University of Georgia, and when the students came back to their homes in Atlanta and joined the club, they remembered Duck, and before long had him in Atlanta as porter.

Pneumonia caused his death. His home was in Athens, and the members of the club made up a purse to give him a handsome burial in the land of his fathers.

EYE GLASS MAKING ART.

Perfection seems to have been attained in the making of eyeglasses when one examines the fine glasses made by Jno. L. Moore & Sons. Their Kryptok invisible bifocals are the most dressy and comfortable glasses made. 42 N. Broad st., Prudential building.

Two New Telescopes

In Our Famous

Law's Special

at

$3.00

They come in half a dozen different colors and in dimensions to suit all faces.

Law Bros. Co.
10 WHITEHALL ST.
17 DECATUR ST.

INVADERS LOSE TO BARNESVILLE

Feature of the Game Was the Magnificent Defense of Chattanooga.

Barnesville, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—Gordon proved too strong for the Chattanooga eleven this afternoon, the invaders going down in defeat after a game fight by the score of 29 to 0.

The score, one-sided as it looks, tells nothing of the magnificent struggle of the Tennessee boys in the first half, when three times they saved their goal from being crossed by a hair, the Gordon eleven rushing the oval within ten yards, only to lose it on downs, giving the Chattanooga fullback opportunity to punt out of danger.

With Ben Franklin acting as umpire and Ed Howard as referee, the struggle started, Chattanooga received the kickoff at the south goal, the ball being caught on the 30-yard line.

On the second down Chattanooga lost on a fumble, and then Gordon began to work her way down the field, in this fashion, Moore 5 yards, then a loss of 5 yards, 15 yards penalty for Chattanooga offside, Lawrence 5, Johnson 20, Smith 35 on a forward pass, Brown 10, Cochran 10 around an end, Moore 5 and Lawrence over for the first touchdown, goal being missed.

Then three times Gordon swept down the field within a few yards of the goal line of the Tennessee team, only to be held on downs and receive a punt and start the goalward march once more.

Finally, however, Chattanooga weakened and one more touchdown was shoved over during the first half. This, with three others in the second and four goals, made the score 29 to 0.

Touchdowns were made by Lawrence, Moore, Moore, Griffith and Griffith, in this order.

In the second half Tom Simmons was substituted as referee.

FOR THE THIRD TIME HAROLD LEAVES HOME

For the third time in his almost unstarted career Harold Andrews, aged 14 years, ran away yesterday morning from his home, 6 Brotherton street, and is now being looked for by the local police.

Twice before young Andrews has left home without warning, and been returned. He has been employed by the Bennett Printing Company recently, and lives with his mother, Mrs. Nettie Andrews. When last seen, yesterday morning, he was dressed in a dark blue suit, knee pants, dark blue cap, blue percale blouse with Buster Brown collar, and blue four-in-hand tie. His complexion is rough, he has dark hair and brown eyes. Any information concerning the boy will be appreciated if sent to Mrs. Andrews, at 6 Brotherton street.

Work on Court House Pushed.

Ashburn, Ga., November 8.—(Special.) Work on Turner county's court house is being pushed as rapidly as possible. The walls of the building are complete, with the exception of the lower. The roof is being framed and will be finished within ten days' time. Then the interior finish will be looked after as fast as it can be done.

Negro Infants Burn to Death.

Decatur, Ala., November 8.—(Special.) Lying dead upon the floor and burned beyond recognition two negro children, aged 5 and 2 years, respectively, were found by their mother, Nellie Daniels, late this afternoon when she returned home from the field, where she had been at work while the children were left alone in the cabin home, on the Ed Garrett place, in Limestone county, two miles from Decatur.

A wood fire was burning in the open fireplace and it is supposed that the children's clothing caught from the fire.

BADLY INJURED BY POOL BALL

Jim Simpson Is Near to Death at the Grady Hospital. Two Arrests.

In a melee at Jim Simpson's pool room near the midnight hour last night, the proprietor of the place was struck and downed by a pool ball. At the Grady hospital, where he was taken immediately after the occurrence, it was stated that he was in a very serious condition, concussion of the brain being feared.

H. C. Mullen and C. P. Mullen were arrested by the police and sent to the station, where a charge of disorderly conduct was entered against their names. It is believed that one of the brothers threw the ball.

The cause of the fight is unknown. It is stated that the three men were playing and had a row over some play, resulting in a general mix-up, in which Jim Simpson fired two shots, neither one of which harmed any one, and then was downed by the ball.

PAYMENTS MADE IN GOLD.

Royal Sends $750,000 From London on German of Freeport Account.

Chicago, November 7.—(Special.)—General Manager Charles Alcock was in Chicago during the height of the financial flurry. Law Brothers, the western managers of the company, suggested to him in view of the fact that large payments would be necessary soon on the assets of the German of Freeport in the hands of the receiver, which have been purchased by the Royal, payment might well be made by gold sent over from abroad instead of from the United States assets of the company, thus strengthening the Royal's position in the United States and at the same time assisting in a national emergency. Mr. Alcock readily consented and $750,000 was transferred in gold from London to Chicago and was deposited today to the credit of Law Brothers as trustees in the First National bank.

Father of Fourteen Children.

Douglasville, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—John T. Reese, who is being prominently mentioned as a candidate for representative from this county, is the proud father of fourteen children, the latest additions to his family being a pair of girl twins who came in last Sunday.

Mr. Reese is 45 years of age and his wife 36, and he is confident that he will receive the support of the followers as well as his many friends on the grounds of his being strenuously opposed to race suicide.

TECH, SEWANEE COLORS

Reserved Football Tickets on Sale at

THE COLLEGE "CO-OP." CO.

97 PEACHTREE ST.

The swellest place in the south for College and Frat. Pennants and Leather Goods. College Ribbons and Post Cards, A. G. Spalding's Sporting Goods, Frat. Stationery. Pennants designed to order. Mail orders solicited.

SHORT STOP FOR MEN

Gives Instant Relief

AND CURES IN FROM 3 TO 5 DAYS.

50c at All Dealers

OR FRO A

COLUMBIA DRUG CO.

Savannah, Ga., U. S. A.

For Sale by Brannon & Anthony Drug Co.

TRIANGLE ON EACH BOTTLE

When Others Fail, Consult DR. KING, EXPERT SPECIALIST

In Nervous, Chronic and Special Diseases of Men and Women.

OUR BEST REFERENCE IS NOT A DOLLAR NEED BE PAID UNTIL CURED

REMEMBER—You make your own fee, terms and payments, according to your ability to pay, and what you are willing to pay for good, honest and conscientious treatmen

We guarantee to cure BLOOD POISON, LOSS OF VIGOR, KIDNEY, BLADDER and PROSTATIC TROUBLES, DRAINS and LOSSES, PRIVATE DISEASES and all NERVOUS and CHRONIC DISEASES in the shortest time possible, or no pay.

We cure RUPTURE, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, HYDROCELE, PILES and FISTULA witho the knife, pain or danger, in a few days, or no charge whatever will be made. You to be the judge if you are cured.

Consultation FREE We invite the closest investigation as to our methods.

Examination FREE

Hours: 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; 1:30 to 6:30, 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Sunday Hours: 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. If can't call, write.

DR. KING MEDICAL CO., 7 Marietta Street Corner Marietta and Peachtree, ATLANTA, GA

WANTED—MALE HELP.

WANTED—Printer who can run job press; electric power; write at once. The Times, Marietta, Ga.

WANTED—Colored boy 14 or 15 years old for porter; good wages. Room No. 1, 7 Marietta st.

WANTED—White boy about 14 or 15; must furnish references. Apply 303 Empire Bldg.

PARTIES who have used Swamp Root and been benefited will receive information of interest by addressing T. H. D., Box 435, Atlanta.

WANTED—First-class office boy, familiar with filing correspondence and copying press; state age and give references, your own handwriting. M. B., Constitution

ASSISTANT bookkeeper, not over 30 years, $75 month; hard job, long hours. Apply in writing and give record and experience; correspondence confidential. Frank E. Block Co.

WANTED—Experienced salesman to handle a good line of 25c neckwear as a side line for Georgia and Alabama. ...erences required. Address The Artistic Neckwear Mfg. Co., 42 S. Paca st., Baltimore, Md.

WANTED—City reporter on morning newspaper; must have experience and furnish good reference; no booze fighter or dullard need apply; permanent place and good salary to right party. Morning Tribune, Tampa, Fla.

WANTED—Men to learn barber trade. The Moler System is short and practical; wages Saturdays, tools given, diplomas granted, busy season soon, great demand for barbers. Call or write, Moler Barber College, Hunter and Forsyth sts

NIGHT SCHOOL—First month's tuition free, if you clip and mail or present this notice within the next five days to Draughon's Practical Business College, 122 Peachtree, asking for particulars of this remarkable offer. If you desire, quit at end of month, owing nothing, or continue at special date—$4 a month. Bell phone 889.

BIG CASH MONEY TO YOU if only willing to work in your spare time. UNCLE REMUS'S MAGAZINE does not want it all, but in our new cooperative feature of the agents' contest, just beginning, it shows how your energy is rewarded. Every effort you put forth brings results direct to you. It is a great magazine for your best efforts. If you as an agent desire to put forth your best efforts you want the best magazine with which to do. We have it. We'll be mighty glad to express fully upon request. Address UNCLE REMUS'S MAGAZINE, Atlanta, Ga.

WE NEED FOR PATRONS: Bookkeeper for construction company, Florida, $150; combination bookkeeper accountant, $150; Louisiana; bookkeepers for local and nearby cities, $60, $75, $90, $100; 3 steno-bookkeepers, $65, $80, $90; stenographers, $60 and $75; general office man; an A-1 architectural draftsman, $100 and transportation; 6 A-1 druggists, 2 licensed; A-1 tinner, $4 per day; lumber, $5 per day; farm hands; colored porter, apply early this morning; retail clerks; local and traveling salesmen; other good paying positions open. Call or write us. National Employment Association, 1022-23 Century bldg.

WANTED SITUATION—MALE.

WE SUPPLY competent help. No cost. Phone 3122. National Employment Association, 1022-23 Century Bldg.

WANTED—By experienced young man, position as assistant bookkeeper or clerical work. Address P. W. A., care Constitution.

WANTED—Position as foreman of sawmill or millwright; twelve years' experience in four large mills; strictly temperate. Address Lock Box 48. B. T., Franklin, Va.

YOUNG man with four years' experience handling railroad claims and tracers, also two years in mercantile business in city, would like position with manufacturer or wholesale house; can furnish best references. Address Box 53, care Constitution, city.

WANTED—FEMALE HELP.

WANTED—Experienced girls for chocolate and bonbon dippers. Good pay. Apply Ga. Candy Factory, 23 Peters st.

COMPETENT, settled woman for general housework (no washing); small family in flat. Bell phone, North, 1739, or call 1331 Candler bldg.

WE NEED FOR PATRONS: Bookkeepers, steno-bookkeeper, stenocashiers, stenographers, general office help, milliner, seamstress; white woman to cook, $40 per month; positions in every line. Call or write us. National Employment Association, 1022-23 Century bldg.

UNIQUE and INTERESTING is the contest just starting for agents of UNCLE REMUS'S MAGAZINE. Don't lose a lot of money by delay in not getting started. Order our outfit, and you will be surprised how soon we will have you moneymaking. Our agents are treated under the "Golden Rule Principle," and share in our prosperity. A chain of influence is spreading in favor of UNCLE REMUS'S MAGAZINE clear across this continent. If you get started soon you can get these readers, and make a big commission. Let us write you all about it. Make the request. UNCLE REMUS'S MAGAZINE, Atlanta, Ga.

WANTED—BOARDERS.

BOARDERS wanted at 66 E. Harris st. Central location; excellent fare.

PARTIES who have used Swamp Root and been benefited will receive information of interest by addressing T. H. D., Box 435, Atlanta.

WANTED—ROOMS.

WANTED—Three or four rooms for light housekeeping. Address M. C., care Constitution.

WE RENT furnished and unfurnished rooms. Register here, save time, money and avoid publicity; commission small and nothing required in advance. American Information Bureau, 141 1-2 Peachtree st. Phone 2296.

WANTED—AGENTS.

AGENTS WANTED—For new edition of Cram's magnificent twentieth century map of the United States and world; shows all new counties and new states; latest and most beautiful map ever issued; low price, big profit. Hudgins Co., Atlanta, Ga.

WANTED—SALESMEN.

CIGAR SALESMAN WANTED—Experience unnecessary. $100 per month and expenses. Peerless Cigar Co., Toledo, Ohio.

MEDICAL.

PARTIES who have used Swamp Root and been benefited will receive information of interest by addressing T. H. D., Box 435, Atlanta.

LADIES.

DR. SAGE'S Golden Drops is the remedy for delayed and irregular periods. Money refunded if not satisfied is the best testimonial. Mailed to any address for $1, plain package. Whitaker-Coursey Drug Co., Atlanta, Ga., Dept. A.

WHAT DO YOU WANT TODAY?

Read these want columns carefully and you're mighty apt to find it. If you cannot, just call phone 109 and have a "want ad" inserted in The Atlanta Constitution and get it that way.

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—Good horse and top delivery wagon. 508 Temple Court bldg.

PARTIES who have used Swamp Root and been benefited will receive information of interest by addressing T. H. D., Box 435, Atlanta.

WANTED—Second-hand furniture, office and household goods. We buy sell and exchange. A. Springer, 25 S. Pryor st., Bell 1526.

FOR SALE—MISCELLANEOUS.

STANDARD Sewing Machine Co., 58 S. Broad.; both phones 2105.

FOR SALE—Two good horses, delivery wagons and harness. Apply Martin, 104 Whitehall st.

IF TAKEN quick, will sell nearly new mahogany piano for $125; need money. Address P. O. Box 596.

BRAMBACH PIANOS.
ESTABLISHED 1823.

FOR SALE—New and second-hand cash registers, on easy terms. Howard Safe and Vault Co., 50 Marietta st.

TWO FINE MULES and wagon; one dray, one spring wagon, and one good cow, at 122 Park St., West End.

GAS STOVE and heater, practically new, for sale cheap. O. G. Cox, 457 Washington, St.

SECOND-HAND FURNACE for sale; excellent condition. Dozier & Morris, stove repairing, tinning and furnace work. 121 Marietta St.

FOR SALE—Cheap, job lot of second-hand furniture—chiffoniers, washstands, bedsteads and mattresses. Apply at 311 West Peachtree st.

YALE, Snell, Hudson, Premier and Fulton bicycles sold on easy terms at cash prices. Alexander-Elyea Co., No. 35 N. Pryor st., Atlanta, Ga.

ONE second-hand Skinner & Wood double engine, size 8x12, 45 horsepower, fly wheel 5 feet diameter, 10-inch face, 135 revolutions. Address Constitution.

SOLE AGENTS for the Herring-Hall-Marvine fire-proof safes and steel vaults. Victor Maganese steel screw door bank safes. Expert opening and repairing. Howard Safe and Vault Co., 50 Marietta st.

BLAKELY, GA., October 31, 1907: One car of beef cattle for sale, 3 cents per pound, f. o. b. Blakely, Ga. Joseph Freeman, Blakely, Ga.

FOR SALE—One No. 2 Climax portable crusher with elevator, complete, in good condition; opening 9 by 15; a serviceable machine for use on county roads or on concrete work; capacity 75 yards or more per day, and can be seen in operation on our work near Senoia, Ga. Scott Bros.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FURS cleaned and repaired at the Atlanta Hat Frame Works, 5 1-2 Peters st., corner Forsyth.

PARTIES who have used Swamp Root and been benefited will receive information of interest by addressing T. H. D., Box 435, Atlanta.

THE St. Louis Steam Dye and Chemical Cleaning Works, 191 E. Georgia ave., first-class dry cleaning and dyeing. Ed Grube, Manager, Atlanta phone 2111.

WE REPAIR anything in the electrical line. Men competent for the most complicated work. Let us wire your house for electric bells. Few Electric Co., 211 Candler bldg., Phone Main 220.

FOR SALE—TYPEWRITERS.

THE TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE.
Branch American Writing Machine Co.
167 PEACHTREE.
Phones: Atlanta 2533, Bell 2526.
WE are, beyond all question, the largest dealers in rebuilt typewriters in the world. A large rebuilding plant is maintained in New York, where machines are rebuilt for this and our seventeen other stores. Here machines are rebuilt not alone by experts but by mechanics who have become specialists on some particular part of the construction of a typewriter and does that work alone, and so, when a machine is finished it is as near perfect as it can be made and is obviously far superior to one that has been "merely repaired" in some local shop where "one man" does all of the work on all of the different machines.

MONEY TO LOAN.

ESTABLISHED 1890.
WEYMAN & CONNORS, EQUITABLE.
Mortgage Loans on Real Estate.

MONEY LOANED ON REAL ESTATE 3 TO 5 YEARS, 6 PER CENT. JOHN CAREY, 18 EAST ALABAMA STREET.

SPECIAL HOME FUNDS to lend; any amount, 4 1-2, 5 and 6 per cent. Write or call. S. W. Carson, 24 South Broad.

WE HAVE some clients with money to lend on real estate. Jackson & Orme, 215 Equitable Bldg.

ESTABLISHED since 1889. Mortgage loans made on real estate; purchase money notes bought and sold. S. B. Turman & Co., cor. Broad and Ala. sts.

MONEY advanced salaried people and others; easy payments; quick, confidential. American Investment Co., 704 Candler bldg.

MONEY LOANED SALARIED PEOPLE and others without security; easy payments; offices 63 principal cities. D. H. Tolman, room 524 Austell building.

MONEY to loan on real estate at very lowest interest rates; no delays; buy purchase money notes. Charles Harman, room 202 Temple Court.

DYEING AND CLEANING.

SOUTHERN DYE AND CLEANING WORKS, main office 38 North Forsyth street. Skilful, prompt and reliable.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES.

BRAMBACH PIANOS.
ESTABLISHED 1823.
BECHT PIANO CO., 62 N. FORSYTH.

WANTED—To purchase a cigar or soda water business in good location, or some small, good-paying business. M. C., care Constitution.

IF your automobile or bicycle tires need repairing, send them to Alexander-Elyea Company's repair department at No. 35 N. Pryor street, where expert labor is employed and the best of material used.

BRICK PLANT (interest in), new town; experienced man needed, with or without small capital. Anyone understanding the business will do well to inquire. R. S., P. O. box 405, Atlanta, Ga.

PERSONAL.

DAVID W. YARBROUGH,
MASTER PLUMBER.
Phones 1255. 20 E. Hunter st.

LADIES—Use LaFranco's Compound, safe, speedy regulator, 25 cents, druggists or mail; booklet free. Dr. LaFranco, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE WALL PAPER man, Burnett, has moved to 55 S. Pryor st. (opposite court house). If he hangs your wall paper you are safe; if not, you may be sorry. Bell phone 3535; Atlanta phone 3534.

DR. EDMONDSON'S Tansy, Pennyroyal and Cotton Root Pills, a safe and reliable treatment for painful and suppressed menstruation, irregularities and similar obstructions. Trial box by mail, 50 cents. Frank Edmondson & Bro., manufacturing chemists, 14 S. Broad street, Atlanta, Ga.

SOUTHERN LOYALTY; SOUTHERN PRIDE are to be instrumental in swaying the destinies of Uncle Remus's Magazine. Wise agents figured this out last winter and came with us and ever since have been doing splendidly. What argument can a person of the south in particular use to thwart you securing a subscription? There are none. Some even subscribe for many years and order it sent to other lands. Come now and be our agent. We don't care how much money you carry away in the new contest just started. We want more agents. They make money anywhere and everywhere. Write us for complete particulars. UNCLE REMUS'S MAGAZINE, Atlanta, Ga.

FOR RENT—FURNISHED ROOMS.

ONE furnished room, hot and cold water. Address 210 Spring st. Bell phone 3205 North.

FURNISHED room in private family; electric light, bath, stationary washstand. 366 Piedmont ave.

FOR RENT—One nice, front, furnished room; everything clean. 283 Central ave.

FURNISHED rooms, close in; hot water, electric lights; best location in city; $10 and $12 month. 198 Peachtree.

ELEGANTLY FURNISHED, large, steam heated, front room on first floor, in private family. Suitable for two gentlemen. All modern conveniences. 24 Carnegie Place, apartment B.

FOR RENT—HOUSES.

FOR RENT—Houses, stores, offices and rooms in any part of the city. Call and we will take you to see anything on our list. M. L. Thrower, renting agent, 39 North Forsyth street.

GET our Weekly Rent Bulletin, giving fairly good description of everything we have for rent. Phone 318. John J. Woodside, the Renting Agent, 12 Auburn avenue.

OLD HATS MADE NEW.

Soft and stiff felt hats cleaned and reshaped.. .. .. 50c
Bands, bindings or sweats (each extra).. .. .. 25c
Felt hats cleaned with new bands or sweats.. .. ..

COTTON CLOSED STEADY AT LOSS

Prices Fall Off Seven to Twenty-One Points.

Ginners' Reports Had but Little Effect on the Market—Close Was About Lowest on December. Two to Six Points Up on the Later Months.

New York, November 8.—The cotton market today was very nervous and irregular, with the close steady at a net loss of 7@21 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 300,000 bales.

The market opened steady at a decline of 5 points to an advance of 1 point, the losses being on the near positions, in keeping with Liverpool reports. The census reports were available at the opening and may have shown slightly less cotton ginned to November 1 than some of the bears had expected, but had very little effect on the market, which, after the opening, sold off to a net loss of 11@17 points on the active months. Later fluctuations were very rapid and irregular, carrying prices about 10 or 12 points up from the lowest, but in the late trading the feature was the relative weakness of the near months under selling which seemed to be for the account of the bull pool, with December and January reaching new low prices for the day. The close was at practically the lowest on December, but 2 to 6 points from the bottom on later months. The December premium over January of 43 points at the close last night was reduced to 35 points at the close tonight. The failure of another New England manufacturing concern and the suspension of two small banks in the western belt were among the bearish factors, while some buying was attracted by the light interior receipts and expectations of an easier money market as a result of gold imports. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 1-8c lower.

Receipts at the ports today 70,442 bales, against 39,137 last week and 64,532 last year. For the week 345,000 bales, against 340,646 last week and 423,218 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 15,442 bales, against 9,416 last year.

Spot closed steady, 10 points lower; middling uplands 10.80; middling gulf 11.05; sales 1,900.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, La., November 8.—Cotton—Spots were firm, with prices unchanged; middling 10¾. Sales were 2,450 bales on the spot and 1,200 to arrive. Futures opened steady, 5 to 7 points below the close yesterday. The market was affected adversely on the start by the bad showing in Liverpool, and, while it showed a partial recovery later, the tendency was downward. The census bureau's report on the amount of cotton ginned up to November 1 was about as expected, and consequently failed to form a factor in the market. At the close, which was steady, the active months ranged from 8 to 12 points below the close yesterday.

Liverpool Cotton.

Liverpool, November 8.—Spot cotton quiet; prices 8 points lower; American middling fair, 6.47; good middling 6.00; middling 5.91; low middling 5.59; good ordinary 5.15; ordinary 4.55.

The sales of the day were 8,000 bales, of which 500 were for speculation and export, and included 7,700 American. Receipts 15,000 bales, including 8,700 American. Futures opened easier and closed steady.

	Open.	2 p.m.	Close.
November-December	5.67	@5.65	5.66½
December-January	5.58	@5.59	5.58½
January-February	5.59		5.58½
February-March	5.60		5.59
March-April	5.60	@5.60½	5.59½
April-May	5.62		5.60
May-June	5.60	@5.61½	5.60½
June-July	5.62		5.60½
July-August	5.58	@5.60½	5.59½

Weekly Movement of Cotton.

New York, November 8.—The following statistics on the movement of cotton for the week ending Friday, November 8, were compiled by the New York cotton exchange.

WEEKLY MOVEMENT.

	This Year.	Last Year.
Port receipts	364,033	423,133
Overland to mills and Canada	23,741	43,060
Southern mill takings (estimated)	51,000	59,000
Gain of stock at interior towns	15,269	55,874
Brought into sight for the week	454,043	581,152
TOTAL CROP MOVEMENT.
Port receipts	2,270,026	3,073,554
Overlnad to mills and Canada	86,814	144,352
Southern mill takings (estimated)	336,000	491,000
Stock at interior towns in excess of September 1	308,090	319,108
Brought into sight thus far for season	3,000,930	4,028,014

Weekly Interior Cotton Towns.

New York, November 8.

Towns.	Rcts.	S'pm's	Sales.	Stock.
Atlanta	1,184	500	.....	7,083
Athens	5,355	4,257	49	22,329
Brenham	102	44	.....	2,055
Charlotte	719	719	.....	.....
Columbia	1,452	1,452	.....	7,500
Columbus, Ga	4,145	1,795	.....	13,382
Columbus, Miss	755	465	.....	4,394
Dallas	2,021	2,381	.....	2,311
Eufaula	1,094	697	.....	3,259
Greenville	4,061	1,878	.....	12,565
Greenwood, S. C.	1,414	1,414	.....	7,312
Helena	2,578	3,292	.....	1,147
Little Rock	8,024	6,547	.....	16,816
Macon	3,787	2,538	.....	5,494
Meridian	3,976	3,887	.....	61,818
Montgomery	7,798	5,404	.....	20,150
Nashville	10	5	.....	3,770
Natchez	4,331	3,277	.....	8,691
Newberry	689	478	.....	7,000
Raleigh	249	400	.....	634
Rome	1,798	2,365	.....	3,154
Selma	5,239	5,302	.....	5,807
Shreveport	4,599	5,917	1,665	12,182
Vicksburg	4,328	3,634	.....	15,426
Yazoo City	3,140	1,782	.....	12,608

Comparative Cotton Statement.

New York, November.—For the week ending Friday, November 8.

Net receipts at all U. S. ports during week	368,873
Net receipts at all U. S. ports same last year	420,978
Decrease	52,925
Total receipts since Sept. 1	2,275,144
Total receipts to same date last year	3,077,849
Decrease	802,705
Exports for the week	181,481
Exports for same week last year	264,798
Decrease	83,318
Total exports since Sept. 1	1,493,745
Total exports same date last year	1,925,888
Decrease	432,143
Stock at all U. S ports	784,998
Stock at all U. S ports same time last year	1,032,350
Decrease	247,352
Stock at all interior towns	412,928
Stock at all interior towns same time last year	444,780
Decrease	31,852

Cotton Receipts.

New York, November 8.—The following are the total net receipts of cotton at all ports since September 1:

Galveston	573,199
New Orleans	326,838
Mobile	93,822
Savannah	662,682
Charleston	106,190
Wilmington	220,412
Norfolk	156,125
Baltimore	3,162
New York	65
Boston	676
Newport News	199
Philadelphia	938
San Francisco	2,562
Brunswick	62,784
Port Townsend	5,181
Pensacola	32,581
Port Arthur and Sabine Pass	12,373
Jacksonville	2,459
Eagle Pass, Texas	100
Minor ports	10,181
Total	2,275,144

HESTER'S WEEKLY COTTON STATEMENT

Shows Amount Into Sight, Mills and Spinners' Takings, Movement, Etc.

New Orleans, November 8.—Secretary Hester's weekly New Orleans Cotton Exchange statement issued before the close of business today shows a decrease in the movement into sight compared with the seven days ending this date last year in round figures of 109,000, a decrease under the same days year before last of 30,000, and a decrease under the same time in 1904 of 71,000.

For the eight days of November the totals show a decrease under last year of 148,000, a decrease under the same period year before last of 67,000, and a decrease under the same time in 1904 of 154,000.

For the 69 days of the season that have elapsed the aggregate is behind the 69 days of last year 792,500, behind the same days year before last 685,000 and behind 1904 by 1,231,000.

The amount brought into sight during the past week has been 467,345 bales, against 573,423 for the seven days ending this date last year, 497,556 year before last and 538,238 same time in 1904; and, for the eight days of November it has been 522,235, against 689,860 last year, 588,888 year before last and 680,792 same time in 1904.

The movement since September 1 shows receipts at all United States ports 2,275,144, against 2,992,720 last year, 2,823,487 year before last and 3,293,262 same time in 1904. Overland across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers to northern mills and Canada, 91,572, against 149,917 last year, 127,819 year before last and 182,354 same time in 1904; interior stocks in excess of those held at the close of the commercial year 310,153, against 324,265 last year, 414,126 year before last and 479,711 same time in 1904; southern mills takings 535,000, against 538,429 last year, 531,474 year before last and 487,129 same time in 1904.

These make the total movement for the 69 days of the season from September 1 to date 3,211,869, against 4,005,331 last year, 3,896,406 year before last and 4,442,456 same time in 1904.

Foreign exports for the week have been 178,672, against 235,079 last year, making the total thus far for the season 1,501,700, against 1,866,910 last year—a decrease of 365,210.

Northern mills takings and Canada during the past seven days show an increase of 1,852 as compared with the corresponding period last year, and their total takings since September 1 have decreased 74,310. The total takings of American mills, north, south and Canada, thus far for the season have been 883,106, against 957,627 last year. These include 338,573, by northern spinners, against 412,883.

Stocks at the seaboard and the 29 leading southern interior centers have increased during the week 156,400 bales, against an increase during the corresponding period last season of 189,949, and are now 303,495 smaller than at this date in 1906.

Including stocks left over at ports and interior towns from the last crop and the number of bales brought into sight thus far from the new crop, the supply to date is 3,559,875, against 4,303,101 for the same period last year.

World's Visible Supply Statement.

New Orleans, November 8.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton made up from special cable and telegraphic advices compares the figures of this week with last week, last year and the year before. It shows an increase for the week just closed of 235,277, against an increase of 334,923 last year, and an increase of 237,093 year before last.

The total visible is 3,371,958, against 3,369,805 last week, 2,850,204 last year and 4,061,415 year before last. Of this the total of American cotton is 2,565,082, against 2,369,805 last week, 2,850,204 last year and 3,298,415 year before last, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 806,876, against 766,876 last week, 765,000 last year and 763,000 year before last.

The total world's visible supply of cotton as above shows an increase compared with last week of 235,277, a decrease compared with last year of 243,246, and a decrease compared with year before last of 689,457.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton as above there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 1,760,000, against 1,664,000 last year and 1,927,000 year before last; in Egypt 132,000, against 146,000 last year and 113,000 year before last; in India 301,000, against 321,000 last year and 373,000 year before last, and in the United States 1,179,000, against 1,484,000 last year and 1,648,000 year before last.

Taking of American Cotton by Spinners.

New Orleans, November 8.—Secretary Hester gives the taking of American cotton spinners throughout the world as follows, in round numbers:

This week 969,000 this year, against 945,000 last year, 999,000 year before last.

Total since September 1, this year, 4,991,000 against 2,070,000 last year, and 2,241,000 the year before.

Of this northern spinners and Canada took 339,000 bales this year, against 413,000 last year, and 498,000 the year before; southern spinners 545,000, against 545,000 last year, and 538,000 the year before; and foreign spinners 1,107,000, against 1,112,000 last year, and 1,200,000 the year before.

"Including plus correction 3,000 bales Atlanta and minus 3,000 at Wilmington.

GINNERS' REPORT

6,167,000 BALES

Census Bureau Shows Its Count on the Amount of Cotton Ginned.

Washington, November 8.—The census bureau issued its report today, showing the amount of cotton ginned to November 1 to have been 6,167,000 bales. This compares with 6,906,305 bales same time last year and 6,457,595 bales in 1905.

Round bales included in report and counted as half bales this year, 126,858, against 169,741 last year and 183,870 in 1905.

Sea Island, 33,894, against 21,706 last year and 49,161 in 1905. Gins in operation, 26,133, against 27,370 last year and 27,802 in 1905.

Ginners' report by states:

	Bales.
Alabama	608,922
Arkansas	293,541
Florida	28,687
Georgia	1,195,890
Indian Territory	191,750
Kentucky	474
Louisiana	277,537
Mississippi	629,485
Missouri	11,589
North Carolina	326,437
Oklahoma	176,649
South Carolina	738,045
Tennessee	104,225
Texas	1,579,496
Virginia	2,343
Total	6,167,000

Comparative Port Receipts.

	1907.	1906.
New Orleans	15,442	9,416
Galveston	15,494	21,054
Mobile	1,658	1,488
Brunswick	8,933	8,588
Savannah	13,290	10,254
Charleston	4,385	1,718
Wilmington	4,226	2,797
Norfolk	4,331	2,450
Baltimore	2,671	3,106
Boston	12	25
Philadelphia	50	.....
Newport News	.....	103
Pensacola	.....	5,700
Various	.....	170
Totals	70,442	68,869

INTERIOR MOVEMENT.

	1907.	1906.
Houston	11,253	16,000
Memphis	5,327	8,075
Augusta	2,429	2,757
St. Louis	91	3,211
Louisville	289	.....
Cincinnati	484	1,205
Little Rock	821	2,418
Totals	20,694	.....

ESTIMATED RECEIPTS TODAY.

New Orleans, 10,000 to 12,500, against 16,141 last year.

Houston, 7,000 to 9,000, against 15,108 last year.

Galveston, 12,500 to 15,500, against 20,836 last year.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, November 8.—The ginners' report of 6,167,000 bales ginned to November 1 was a bullish statement, as it is less than the amount ginned in the same period from a crop of 11,350,000 bales in 1905. No attention was paid to it or to the sharp decrease in the ginners' returns from Texas and Louisiana, which plainly show the short crop in those states and, to that extent, confirm the smaller estimates now becoming current. The feeling among the trade is most pessimistic, and there is a large and aggressive short interest, who look for much lower prices for cotton, regardless of the crop. They were free sellers from time to time today. Few are aware that the movement of the crop to date is less than in the Sully year. Financial matters are slowly assuming a more normal tone and we expect there will be a return to normal conditions throughout the country in a short time.

Sugar and Molasses.

New York, November 8.—Sugar, raw quiet; fair refining 3.40; centrifugal 96 test 3.90; molasses sugar 3.05. Refined, quiet; crushed 5.70; powdered 5.10; granulated 5.00.

THE SPOT COTTON MARKET.

MARKET—	Tone.	Middling.	Net Recpts.	Gross Recpts.	Sales.	Stock.
Atlanta	Steady	10 3-8	.....	.....	.....	141,562
Galveston	Steady	10 7-8	15,494	15,494	.....	195,066
New Orleans	Firm	10 7-8	15,442	15,535	3,650	33,859
Mobile	Steady	10 3-8	1,658	1,658	200	144,255
Savannah	Dull	10 5-16	13,240	13,290	2,050	35,833
Charleston	Steady	10 1-4	4,385	4,385	.....	40,649
Wilmington	Steady	10 3-8	4,226	4,226	64	29,357
Norfolk	Steady	10 5-8	4,331	4,331	420	5,615
Baltimore	Nominal	10 7-8	2,671	2,671	.....	144,740
New York	Steady	10.80	.....	1,694	1,900	.....
Boston	Steady	10.80	12	3,102	.....	4,537
Philadelphia	Steady	11.05	50	50	.....	9,525
Brunswick	.....	.....	8,933	8,933	.....	.....
Totals today			70,442	.....	.....	784,998
Totals 6 days			368,873	.....	.....	.....
Total since September 1			2,775,144	.....	.....	.....

Exports—To Great Britain, from Galveston, 800; from Baltimore, 2,182; from Philadelphia, 1,563. Total, 4,545.

To France—From New York, 1,200. Total, 1,200.

To Continent—From Galveston, 1,132; from Savannah, 10,302; from Baltimore, 1,314; from New York, 1,233. Total, 13,951.

Coastwise—Galveston, 1,731; New Orleans, 1,500; Savannah, 8,210; Charleston, 1,212; Wilmington, 104; Norfolk, 3,989; Philadelphia, 133; Brunswick, 149.

INTERIOR MOVEMENT.

	Tone.	Middling.	Net Receipts.	Gross Receipts.	Shipments.	Sales.	Stock.
Houston	Quiet	10 3-4	11,253	11,253	11,873	568	70,244
Augusta	Steady	10 9-16	2,429	2,579	2,178	800	47,859
Memphis	Quiet	10 13-16	5,327	7,385	6,142	2,500	53,447
St. Louis	Quiet	10 7-8	91	3,504	3,599	85	9,125
Cincinnati	.....	.....	484	484	327	.....	10,423
Louisville	Firm	10 7-8	289	335	35	203	150
Little Rock	Steady	10 3-8	821	821	523	.....	16,816
Totals today			20,694	26,361	26,975	3,157	238,064

THE RANGE OF COTTON OPTIONS.

RANGE IN NEW YORK COTTON.

	Open	High	Low	Last Sale	Cl'ng Bid	Prev. Close.
Nov.	.....	.....	.....	.....	10.12-20	10.33-34
Dec.	10.61	10.61	10.41	10.44	10.42-43	10.63-64
Jan.	10.20	10.20	10.01	10.08	10.07-08	10.20-21
Feb.	10.19	10.19	10.10	.....	10.11-13	10.22-23
Mar.	10.21	10.24	10.08	10.14	10.14-15	10.25-26
Apr.	.....	.....	.....	.....	10.15-17	10.27-28
May	10.29	10.29	10.12	10.17	10.17-18	10.29-30
June	.....	.....	.....	.....	10.19-20	10.28-29
July	10.29	10.29	10.16	10.19	10.19-21	10.28-29
Aug.	10.14	10.14	10.10	.....	10.12-14	10.19-20

Closed steady.

RANGE IN NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

	Open	High	Low	Last Sale	Cl'ng Bid	Prev. Close.
Nov.	.....	.....	.....	.....	10.28	10.40-41
Dec.	10.24	10.30	10.17	10.21	10.21-22	10.33-34
Jan.	10.26	10.27	10.13	10.19	10.19-20	10.29-30
Feb.	.....	.....	.....	.....	10.29-32	10.29-30
Mar.	10.33	10.30	10.18	10.24	10.23-24	10.32-33
Apr.	.....	.....	.....	.....	10.24-26	10.33-34
May	10.30	10.36	10.25	10.31	10.30-31	10.38-39
June	.....	.....	.....	.....	10.31-32	10.39-40
July	10.37	10.37	10.36	.....	10.36-37	10.43-44

Closed steady.

BONDS.

U S refunding 2s, registered	103
U S refunding 2s, coupon	103
U S 3s, registered	103
U S 3s, coupon	103
U S New 4s, registered	120
U S New 4s, coupon	120
American Tobacco 4s	57½
American Tobacco 6s	90¼
Atchison general 4s	93¼
Atchison adjustment 4s	79¾
Atlantic Coast Line 4s	84½
Baltimore and Ohio 4s	93½
Baltimore and Ohio 3½s	86¾
Brooklyn Rapid Transit cv. 4s	64
Central of Georgia 5s, offered	97½
Central of Georgia 1st inc, offered	75
Central of Georgia 3d Inc. bid	38¼
Chesapeake and Ohio 4½s	89
Chicago and Alton 3½s	86¼
Chicago, R and Quincy new 4s	86
Chicago, R I and Pacific R R 4s	57½
Chicago, R I and Pacific R R col 5s	69
C, C, C and St Louis gen 4s	90¾
Colorado Industrial 5s, Ser A	40½
Colorado Midland 4s, bid	58
Colorado and Southern 4s	79¾
Cuba 5s	95
Denver and Rio Grande 4s	89
Denver and Rio Grande 5s, bid	62
Erie prior lien 4s, bid	87½
Erie General 4s, bid	69
Hocking Valley 4½s, offered	96½
Japan 4½s, bonds	84½
Japan 4½s, bonds 2nd Series, bid	84½
Louisville and Nashville Unified 4s, ofd	94
Manhattan consol gold 4s, offered	99
Mexican Central 4s, offered	74½
Mexican Central 4s, 1st Inc.	13¾
Minn and St Louis 4s, offered	80
Missouri, Kansas and Texas 4s	93¼
Missouri, Kansas and Texas 2nds	77
National R R of Mexico consol, offered	79½
New York Central general 3½s	86
New Jersey Central general 5s, offered	119
Northern Pacific 4s	95
Northern Pacific 3s	66
Norfolk and Western consol 4s	89¾
Oregon Short Line rfdg 4s	88¾
Penn cv 3½s	78½
Reading General 4s	89½
St Louis and Iron Mountain consol 5s	102
St Louis and San Francisco fg 4s	69¾
St Louis Southwestern con 4s, bid	62
Seaboard Air Line 4s	63
Southern Pacific 4s, bid	75
Southern Pacific 1st 4s certificates	84½
Southern Railway 5s	93
Texas and Pacific 1sts	107½
Toledo, St L and Westernr 4s	59
Union Pacific 4s	95¼
Union Pacific cv 4s	82
U S Steel 2nd 5s	81½
Wabash 1sts	100
Western Maryland, 4s, bid	60½
Wheeling and Lake Erie 4s, offered	76
Wisconsin Central 4s	76¼
Japan 4s	76¾
Atchison 4s	84½
Atchison 5s	98¼
Interboro Metropolitan 4½s	49

Carpenter, Baggot & Co.

New York, November 8.—The market has been subject to alternating periods of strength and weakness during today's session, the bears being particularly active and aggressive on every rally, while on the other hand the bulls were ever on the alert, removing support and forcing short sellers to put out their contracts close around bottom prices in most instances. It seems to be diamond cut diamond, with the fatal result to be decided by the size of the crop itself. Facts and figures so far are certainly in favor of the bulls, while present financial disturbances are all that the bear has to encourage him. The ginners' figures, made public today, show the amount of cotton ginned up to November 1 as 6,167,000 bales, against 6,908,395 bales last year; and that 1,760,000 bales were ginned during the last period from October 18 to November 1, as against 1,974,000 for the same period last year. We call especial attention to this because of the very open and propitious weather for picking and ginning the crop this year, so with the falling off of 214,000 bales it means a great deal.

There is no getting around the fact that we are face to face with comparatively the smallest crop that has been raised in many years. We mean by comparison with the world's requirements. Our cable and mail advices continue to emphasize the shortness of the Indian, Egyptian and Russian crops combined 2,000,000 to 2,500,000 bales less than last year. The Indian crop alone is said to be short 1,500,000 bales. Right here is the milk in the cocoanut, and will be the cause of very high prices for the American crop, which up to the present has no promise of being over 11,000,000 bales.

Foreign Finances.

London, November 8.—The increase in the discount rate of the Imperial Bank of Germany had been expected here, so beyond consols declining ½, it had little effect on the stock exchange when trading opened comparatively quiet after yesterday's flurry. Americans were offered early, but they subsequently steadied to well above parity. Considerable quantities of gold from Paris arrived in London today.

Berlin, November 8.—The rate of discount of the Imperial Bank of Germany was raised today from 6½ to 7½ per cent. The increase in the bank rate had an unfavorable influence on the market, depressing stocks soon after the announcement was made. Prices, however, partly recovered later, but business was meager.

Exchange on London, 20 marks, 57½ pfennigs for checks. Discount rates, short bills 6½ per cent; three months' bills 6¾ per cent.

London Stock Market.

	Opn.	2 p.m.	Close.
Amalgamated Copper	.....	.....	47½
Anaconda	.....	.....	30¼
Atchison	.....	.....	73¾
Atchison, preferred	.....	.....	83½
Baltimore and Ohio	.....	.....	78¾
B. and O., preferred	.....	.....	93½
Canadian Pacific	.....	.....	141
Chesapeake and Ohio	.....	.....	27¼
Denver and Rio Grande	.....	.....	18½
Denver and Rio Grande, pref	.....	.....	57
Erie	.....	.....	17¼
Erie 1st	.....	.....	38¾
Erie 2nd	.....	.....	27¼
Great Western	.....	.....	7½
Illinois Central	.....	.....	123
Kansas and Texas	.....	.....	22¾
Kansas and Texas, pref	.....	.....	55
Louisville and Nashville	.....	.....	94
Mexican Central	.....	.....	14½
New York Central	.....	.....	98
Norfolk and Western	.....	.....	63¼
Norfolk and Western, pref	.....	.....	74
Northern Pacific	.....	.....	107¾
Ontario and Western	.....	.....	30¼
Pennsylvania	.....	.....	111¾
Reading	.....	.....	76
Reading 1st	.....	.....	76
Reading 2nd	.....	.....	68¾
Rock Island	.....	.....	13
Southern Pacific	.....	.....	66¼
Southern Railway	.....	.....	12
Southern Railway, preferred	.....	.....	39¾
St. Paul	.....	.....	165
Union Pacific	.....	.....	109
Union Pacific, preferred	.....	.....	79¾
U. S. Steel	.....	.....	23¾
U. S. Steel, preferred	.....	.....	84½
Wabash	.....	.....	9
Wabash, preferred	.....	.....	19

Naval Stores.

Savannah, Ga., November 8.—Spirits turpentine firm, 43¾c; sales 755; receipts 1,057; shipments 215.

Rosin firm; sales 2,942; receipts 3,502; shipments 876; stock 96,724. A B C $3.40@3.60; D $3.45@3.60; E $3.50@3.60; F $3.50@3.60; G $3.50@3.60; H $3.55@3.75; I $3.90@3.95; K $4.50; M $5.00; N $5.50; window glass $6.00; water white $6.10.

Charleston, S. C., November 8.—Turpentine quiet, 44½c; sales none. Rosin quiet; sales none. A B C $3.45@3.55; D $3.45@3.55; E $3.45@3.55; F $3.50@3.55; G $3.50@3.55; H $3.55@3.65; I $3.95; K $4.75; M $4.95; N $5.45; window glass $5.95; water white $6.05.

Cotton Seed Oil.

New York, November 8.—Cotton seed oil barely steady; prime crude 24; prime yellow 35½@36. Futures closed firm; sales 8,400 barrels.

	Open.	Close.
November	35½@36	36¾@37½
December	34½@35½	35@35½
January	34½@34¾	35@35¼
March	35½@36	36½@36¾
May	36@36¼	36¾@37
July	36½@37½	37½@37¾

Coffee.

New York, November 8.—Coffee futures closed steady at a net decline of 5 points to an advance of 5 points. Sales were reported of 36,500 bags, including November at 5.30; December 5.40; March at 5.55@5.60; May at 5.65@5.70; July at 5.75@5.80; September at 5.85@5.90; October at 5.95@5.95.

Stocks recording sales of 10,000 and more shares were:

Amalgamated Copper	40,400
American Smelting	20,600
Pennsylvania	32,800
Reading	43,100
Union Pacific	104,300
United States Steel	77,100
do, pfd	14,600

STOCKS AND BONDS.

	High.	Low.	Cl'ng Bid.	Prev. Close.
Adams Express	.....	.....	165	165
Amal Copper	49¾	47¾	48¾	48½
Amer Car and Fdry	27½	26	26⅝	26⅝
do, pfd	80½	80½	80½	78
Amer Cotton Oil	23¼	21⅞	22¼	21½
do, pfd	.....	.....	75	70
Amer Express	.....	.....	170	170
Amer H and L pfd	12	11¼	11½	11
Amer Ice	10¾	10¼	10¾	10⅞
Amer Linseed Oil	.....	.....	7½	7
do, pfd	.....	.....	16	16
Amer Locomot'e, ex div	39	37½	38½	39
do, pfd	90	89½	85	88
Amer Smlt and Rfg	69⅝	66⅝	66⅞	66½
do, pfd	88½	87	88	86¾
Amer Sugar Rfg	104½	103	103½	104
Amer Tob, pfd, ctf	66	66	65	65
Anaconda Mining Co	74	71⅞	72¾	71⅝
Atchison	84	83	83	83
do, pfd	64	63½	63	62
Atlantic Coast Line	64	63½	63	62
Baltimore and Ohio	80½	79½	79⅝	78¾
do, pfd	.....	.....	77	75
B R T	33¼	32	32	31½
Canadian Pacific	145	141¼	143½	140¾
Central of N J	155	155	150	150
Chesapeake and Ohio	29	28	28½	28
Chi Great Western	7¾	7½	7½	7⅝
Chi and Northw'n	133	131½	132½	132½
Chi, Mil and St Paul	104	102¼	102⅝	101⅝
Chi Ter and Transit	.....	.....	5	5
do, pfd	.....	.....	10	10
C, C, C and St Louis	.....	.....	49¾	49½
Colo Fuel and Iron	17	16¾	16½	16¼
Colo and Southern	.....	.....	17½	17½
do, 1st pfd	43½	43½	43½	44
do, 2d pfd	.....	.....	33	33½
Consolidated Gas	90½	88	89	86
Corn Products	10	9¼	9¼	10¼
do, pfd	.....	.....	52	52
Del and Hudson	129½	128	128	127
Del, Lack and West	.....	.....	375	375
Den and Rio Grande	19	17¾	18	17¾
do, pfd	.....	.....	59	59
Distillers' Securities	43	41¾	42	41
Erie	17¾	17½	17¾	17
do, 1st pfd	39	39	38¼	38½
do, 2d pfd	.....	.....	27¾	27½
General Electric	113⅞	110	113	110
Illinois Central	128	123	120½	122
International Paper	9¾	9¾	9¼	9¼
do, pfd	60¾	60¼	60¾	61¼
International Pump	9⅝	8¾	9	8¾
Iowa Central	53	51	53	55
Kansas City Southern	11¾	11¾	11½	11
do, pfd	23	23	22¾	23
Louisville and Nash	49	49	49	48½
Mexican Central	95	95	94¾	94¼
Minn and St Louis	14⅝	14	14	14⅝
M. St P and S S M	.....	.....	24	24
do, pfd	.....	71	71	71¾
Missouri Pacific	55	53½	54½	55
Mo, Kan and Texas	24½	23¾	22¾	23
do, pfd	55	54	53¾	53
National Lead	38½	38⅛	38¼	38⅛
Nat R R of Mex pfd	.....	.....	42	40
N Y Central	99	98	98¼	97¾
N Y, Ont and West	30½	29¾	29¾	30
Norfolk and Western	64	63½	64	63
do, pfd	.....	.....	85	85
North American	42	37	37½	42
Pacific Mail	.....	.....	20	20
Pennsylvania	111	108¼	110	107¾
People's Gas, ex. div	74½	72¾	74	74¼
P, C C and St L	53⅝	53⅛	53½	52
Pressed Steel Car	18	17	17⅝	14
do, pfd	.....	.....	69	69
Pullman Palace Car	139	139	138	138
Reading	80	76½	78½	76¼
do, 1st pfd	76	76	74	73
do, 2d pfd	.....	.....	66	66
Republic Steel	15¾	15	15	15
do, pfd	59½	58¼	58	57
Rock Island Co	13⅝	13½	13½	13⅛
do, pfd	35	35	34¼	34
St L and S F 2d pfd	.....	.....	29	28½
St L Southwestern	14	12½	14½	14
do, pfd	.....	.....	29	29
Southern Pacific	68⅞	67½	67½	67
do, pfd	104	103	103	102¾
Southern Railway	12½	12	12¾	12¼
do, pfd	41	39¼	40	39
Tenn Coal and Iron	.....	.....	80	102
Texas and Pacific	18¼	18⅛	18	18
Tol, St L and West	.....	.....	18¼	19
do, pfd	34½	34½	34¼	34¼
Union Pacific	112⅝	109¾	111¼	109¾
do, pfd	80	79½	77½	77½
U S Express	.....	.....	70	70
U S Realty	.....	.....	37	37
U S Rubber	16½	16¾	16	16½
do, pfd	68¼	68	68	69½
U S Steel	25¼	23⅞	24½	23⅞
do, pfd	85¼	83½	84¼	83⅝
Va-Car Chemical	14⅝	14½	14¼	14
do, pf

FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL

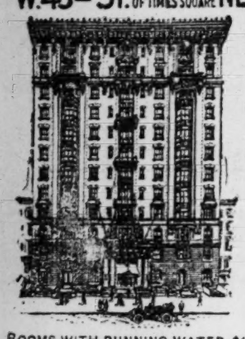

Madison Square, 23d and 24th Sts., New York.

This property has not been sold, as reported. The high standard of excellence which has made it famous will be maintained. American plan, $5. European Plan, $2. Hitchcock, Darling & Co.

"COMFORT WITHOUT EXTRAVAGANCE."

HOTEL WOODSTOCK

W. 43RD ST. HALF BLOCK EAST OF TIMES SQUARE NEW YORK

NEW TWELVE STORY FIRE PROOF TRANSIENT HOTEL — EUROPEAN PLAN — MUSIC — QUIET AND IN THE HEART OF THINGS

ROOMS WITH RUNNING WATER, $1.50 AND UP WITH BATH, $2 AND UP. SUITES, $5 AND UP WRITE FOR PARTICULARS. WIRE FOR RESERVATIONS, OUR EXPENSE.

W. H. VALIQUETTE, MANAGER. ALSO THE BERWICK, RUTLAND, VT.

Feel Bad

Can't think? Got head or back ache? Pains all over your body? Try—

HICKS' CAPUDINE Trial Bottle 10 Cts

IT'S LIQUID

EFFECTS IMMEDIATELY REMOVES THE CAUSE. Relieves Indigestion. Pains also. Regular size 25c & 50c at druggists.

OPIUM WHISKEY—ALL DRUG HABITS Treated by us at your home, or at our Sanitarium. Book and particulars FREE. B. M. WOOLLEY & CO., Office, 104 N. Pryor St., ATLANTA, GA.

Tutt's Pills

After eating, persons of a bilious habit will derive great benefit by taking one of these pills. If you have been

DRINKING TOO MUCH,

they will promptly relieve the nausea, and nervousness which follows, restore the appetite and remove gloomy feelings. Elegantly sugar coated.

SICK HEADACHE

Take No Substitute.

MRS. NELL SMITH ASKS THE CUSTODY OF HER CHILDREN

Argument Was Heard Yesterday at Athens—Decision Will Be Rendered Today.

Athens, Ga., November 8.—(Special.) This afternoon Judge Chas. H. Brand heard argument in the case of Mrs. Nell Smith, of Atlanta, vs. J. B. Smith, of Suwanee, asking that the custody of her two children be awarded her.

Smith, it will be remembered, took the two little boys from the home of their mother in Atlanta a short while since, and carried them to the home of his parents. Mrs. Smith still has the youngest child, one year old.

Mrs. Smith has filed suit for divorce on ground of cruel treatment, and asks alimony and the custody of her children. Harvey Hill, J. B. Ridley and N. L. Hutchins appeared for Mrs. Smith, and Victor L. Smith, of Atlanta, for Mr. Smith. Judge Brand will render his decision in the case tomorrow.

WANT EXCHANGES CLOSED

Clearing House Makes Request of New Orleans Institutions.

New Orleans, La., November 8.—The clearing house today requested the two local stock exchanges to remain closed next week. They have already been closed nearly tow weeks. The exchanges have not yet acted on today's request.

Small Fire on the Jefferson.

New York, November 8.—The Old Dominion line steamship Jefferson came into port today with a small fire in her hold. Steam was promptly turned into the forward hold as soon as the fire was discovered and the blaze was quickly extinguished. Only one bale of cotton, in which the fire originated, was damaged. News of the fire was kept from the passengers for fear of a stampede.

Football Weather

Football weather is also "cold" weather, and very naturally suggests E. & W. Cold Capsules, the guaranteed one-day cold cure prepared by Elkin-Watson Drug Co., at 25c a box. Try them at once.

E. & W. COLD CAPSULES

WHEAT MAKES ANOTHER BREAK

Decline at Liverpool Caused Weakness in Market

Report of the Government on Corn Was Another Factor—Corn Also Lost About One Cent—Oats Were Weak and Lower.

Chicago, November 8.—Another decline in wheat prices at Liverpool caused a break of almost 2 cents from the high point of the day. A large part of the loss was regained by covering by shorts, the net loss on the December delivery at the close being 3-8@1-2. Corn was down 3-4. Oats were 3-4@7-8 lower. Provisions were down 3 to 10 cents.

The wheat market was inclined to be weak almost all day, though prices showed some strength on fairly active demand by shorts. The market opened rather weak, because of a fresh advance in the rate of discount by the Imperial Bank of Germany. In the first fifteen minutes of trading, shorts bid up the price nearly 1 cent from the point touched at the opening, but this advance was soon lost on renewed selling which was based upon the closing price at Liverpool. The market was also bearishly affected by the weakness of corn. Another rally occurred late in the day on the report that shipments of wheat from Russia will be very light during the next three months. The close was steady. December opened unchanged to 1-4 lower at 90 1-2 to 90 3-4, advanced to 91 1-4 and then declined to 89 3-8. The close was at 90 1-4 @3-8. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 946,000 bushels. Exports for the week, as shown by Bradstreet's, were equal to 5,500,000. Primary receipts were 654,000 bushels, compared with 961,000 bushels on the same day last year. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 467 cars against 579 last week, and 672 cars one year ago.

The government crop report was the chief factor in the corn market. It estimated the total yield of corn at 2,553,000 bushels, which is 143,000,000 bushels above the estimate made by the government one month ago. It had been expected that the report would show a smaller yield than the previous figures. A general rush to sell followed the publication of the report and caused a break of more than 1 cent from the high point of the day. The close was weak. December opened a shade higher to 1-8@1-4 lower at 57 3-8 to 57 5-8, advanced to 58 3-8, and then declined to 56 3-4. The close was 56 3-4 @7-8 Local receipts were 67 cars with 13 of contract grade.

Oats were weak on moderate selling by longs. The break in corn was the chief depressing influence. December opened 1-8 lower at 47 1-4@3-8, advanced to 47 7-8 and then declined to 46 3-8. The close was at 46 5-8. Local receipts were 82 cars.

Provisions were moderately active on demand from shorts. Local packers who have been actively selling provisions for the past few days were not in the market today. A 5 to 15 cent advance in the closing quotations for live hogs strengthened prices. At the close January pork was off 5 cents at $13.20. Lard was up 10 cents at $8.02 1-2. Ribs were 2 1-2 cents higher at $7.05.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat 37 cars; corn 79 cars; oats 118 cars; hogs 10,000 head.

The leading futures ranged as follows:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
WHEAT—
Dec.	90¼@¾	91¼	89⅝	90¼@⅝
May	8.05	8.15	8.05	8.10
July	95	96	94½	95⅝
CORN—
Dec.	57¾@⅝	58⅜	56¾	56¾@⅞
May	58¼@⅜	59¼@¼	57¼	57⅝
July	58 @¼	58¾	56⅞	56⅞
OATS—
Dec.	47¼@⅜	47⅞	46⅜	46⅝
May	50¼@½	51@½	49⅜	49⅝@50
July	46¼	46⅞	45⅝	45⅝
MESS PORK—
Jan.	13.20	13.27½	13.17½	13.20
May	13.55	13.77½	13.52½	13.55
LARD—
Nov.	8.20	8.20	8.20	8.20
Jan.	7.97½	8.10	7.97½	8.02½
May	8.05	8.15	8.05	8.10
SHORT RIBS—
Jan.	7.00	7.15	7.00	7.05
May	7.25	7.37½	7.25	7.30

Articles.	Receipts.	Shipments.
Flour, barrels	27,000	32,300
Wheat, bushels	28,000	96,000
Corn, bushels	67,200	288,500
Oats, bushels	148,500	246,000
Rye, bushels	25,000	2,000
Barley, bushels	48,700	17,400

YIELD OF CORN.

Washington, November 8.—Preliminary returns to the department of agriculture on the production of corn indicate a total yield of 2,583,732,000 bushels, an average of 26 bushels per acre, as compared with the yield of 30.3 bushels per acre in 1906.

The general average as to the quality is 82.8 per cent, as compared with the 89.9 per cent last year.

CLUB PLANTED TREES ALONG COUNTRY ROADS

Splendid Work Done by the Forestry Club Organized by John Greer.

Tifton, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—John Greer, of Waycross, Ga., has organized a forestry club, which is already doing a splendid work. Going to a picnic during the summer he suffered in health and realized it was the lack of trees on the road returning home. He wrote letters to friends and suggested the organization of the forestry club.

The first act of the members has been to plant 210 trees, fifty feet apart on all the roads leading out from Waycross. The sycamore tree is the easiest of growth and is the one now being planted by the club. It is the intention of Mr. Greer to push the movement into the adjoining counties.

MAN FELL TEN STORIES.

John Over Missed His Footing in the Elevator Shaft.

Mobile, Ala., November 8.—John Over, an employee of the Otis Elevator company, aged 35 years, fell from the tenth story of the uncompleted Van Antwerp building this afternoon at 2:05 o'clock, and was instantly killed.

The unfortunate man missed his footing in the elevator shaft and came down on his head. His body was badly mangled.

HANGED FOR ASSAULT.

Dock Mack Had Criminally Assaulted a Young White Girl.

Jacksonville Fla., November 8.—Dock Mack, a negro, who criminally assaulted a young white girl in the outskirts of the city about a year ago, was hanged in the county jail today. Mack made a lengthy talk declaring his innocence and prayed for fifteen minutes. He left a note to the press declaring that he was innocent and that some day the authorities would learn their mistake.

"Emmons' for Quality."

About Good Clothes for Men

Good tailoring is where the value lies in clothing.

Machine made clothes smoothed over by an artist with a pressing iron look good, but the good looks do not last.

Hand-tailored means long life for a garment and good shape till the end.

Take an Emmons coat and examine it. Start at the collar and carefully look it over to the hem of the skirt—you'll see the best hand-work that can be put into a garment. But Emmons clothes don't stop at good tailoring—we are just as careful to see that all-wool materials are used and, too, you get the smartest style.

Suits and Overcoats, $12 to $40

Raincoats, $12 to $30

A New Hat Style

A new telescope style that's proving a winner with young men. In light tan, pearl and dark brown—bound edge.

$3.00

M. R. Emmons Co.

39 and 41 Whitehall St.

MORE OPTIMISTIC IN BUSINESS LINE

Review of Week's Trade by Commercial Agencies.

Better Feeling in the East on Account of Arrival of Gold—Complaints From Northwest and South on the Absence of Currency.

New York, November 8.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say that good progress has been made in accommodating the country to the changed financial conditions, this, too, with strikingly little friction, considering the scarcity of currency and the widespread substitution of credit instruments for actual cash. At the same time the wholesale and jobbing trade has quieted perceptibly and the disposition in industrial lines has been to curtail the production, the aim being to avoid accumulations of stocks. There is, in fact, a rather more optimistic tone prevailing this week than last, the outgrowth of the better feeling at the east, the large arrivals of gold from Europe and the idea that basic conditions, both as regards the purchasing power of the people and the absence of large stocks, are better than in some preceding years of stress.

There is, it is true, increasing evidences that the level of commodity prices have been forced unreasonably high and that prices of readjustment will compel numerous revisions. In this respect the easing of iron and other metal prices, the further decline in cereals and the sharp filing off of live stock quotations, are taken as an earnest of revisions in other lines yet to come.

From two sections, the northwest and the south, complaints are numerous that the absence of cash prevents the movement of wheat and cotton to market, but the country-wide issuance of bank and corporation checks in small denominations has eased the currency situation greatly. The domestic exchange markets are much more settled and the general acceptance of credit instruments is expected to allow necessary business being done, pending readjustment of the volume of business to supply current capital. Collections are rather slower, but the runs on the various financial concerns are apparently a thing of the past, failures are not so important as in either of the preceding two weeks and the wave of distrust has perceptibly subsided.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending November 7 number 225, against 223 last week and 146 in the like week of 1906; Canadian failures numbered 34, as against 25 last week and 28 in 1906.

Wheat, including flour exports from the United States and Canada, for the week ending November 7, aggregate 5,459,593 bushels, against 4,792,394 last week and 4,150,811 in 1906.

Corn exports for the week are 711,501 bushels, against 666,340 bushels last week and 870,924 in 1906. For the fiscal year to date the exports are 18,077,844 bushels, against 18,488,083 in 1906-7.

Dun's Trade Review.

New York, November 8.—Dun's review tomorrow will say that bank clearings reflect the restriction in settlements through the banks, total exchanges this week at all leading cities in the United States being $2,141,297,313, 20 per cent less than last year and 16.6 per cent less than in the corresponding week of 1905.

There is a loss at nearly every city compared with last year, and at many of the leading cities compared with 1905. The loss at New York still reflects stock market conditions to some extent. At some cities in the west the loss is small.

Dispatches to Dun's Review indicate that trade conditions are irregular, conflicting reports being received from different parts of the country. It is certain that the financial stringency is having a depressing effect, but less severely in some sections than others. Boston reports a slight improvement in trade conditions notwithstanding the monetary stringency, dry goods jobbers receiving a larger volume of business for immediate delivery, and there is a more confident feeling that retail stocks are being reduced.

Wholesale business continues slow.

Liverpool Grain.

Liverpool, November 8.—Close: Wheat, spot, easy; No. 2 red western winter 7s 10d; futures steady; December 7s 9⅞d; March 8s ⅛d; May 7s 11⅝d.

Corn, spot, easy; prime mixed American 5s 7½d; futures steady; December 5s 7½d; January 5s 5¾d.

Treasury Statement.

Washington, November 8.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $130,000,000 gold reserve, shows: Available cash balance $239,677,601; gold coin and bullion $7,328,145; gold certificates $83,234,870.

Wool.

St. Louis, November 8.—Wool steady; medium grades combing and clothing 23½@25c; light fine 22@23; heavy fine 17@18c; tub washed 28@36c.

Dry Goods.

New York, November 8.—The dry goods market is very quiet, and financial complications are hampering and restricting trade. Jobbers are receiving many small orders for all kinds of goods for immediate shipment. The common yarn market is somewhat steadier following an announcement of curtailment, but trading is limited. Raw wool is lower for some qualities.

Will Hold It Until Close.

New York, November 8.—The weekly bank statement, which in the past has been given out by the clearing house just before noon on Saturday, will not, for the immediate future at least, be given out until after the close of the stock market. This announcement was made today by Manager Sheerer, of the clearing house.

Sea Island Cotton.

Savannah, Ga., November 8.—Sea island cotton: Fancy Florida 30c; Florida and Georgia 29c; extra choice Florida 25c; extra choice Georgia 23@24c; choice Georgia and Florida 21c; extra fine 20c; fine nominal. Sales 2,897.

Charleston, S. C., November 8.—Sea island cotton: Receipts 901 bags; exports, 462 bags; sales, 1,825 bags; stock, 3,046 bags. Fine 32½c; fully fine 34½@35c; extra fine 37c; off color 31c.

Provisions.

Atlanta, Ga., November 8.—Dry salt extra ribs $9.75; supreme lard basis 10%; compound 9¼; supreme hams 15c; matchless hams 14½c.

Chicago, November 8.—Cash quotations: Short ribs, sides (loose), $7.25@8.25. Mess pork, per barrel, $13.00@13.25. Lard, per 100 pounds, $8.45. Short clear sides (boxed) $7.50 @8.00. Whisky, basis of wine, $1.35.

Cotton Mill for Ashburn.

Ashburn, Ga., November 8.—(Special.) Application has been made to the superior court of Turner county for a charter for the erection and equipping of a cotton mill to be located here. The capital stock is $250,000. The petitioners are J. S. Shingelr and others, of Turner county; T. J. Shingler, of Decatur county; W. C. Powell, of Florida, and R. E. Royal, of North Carolina. This enterprise will be of great benefit to the people of Ashburn.

FOR RENT Two North Side Homes

At Numbers 65 and 67 Merritts avenue, we have for rent two houses of eight rooms each. They are now being put in thorough repair by the owner; the walls are being done over, new bath tubs put in, stationary washstands installed and all other needed work looked afer. These houses are situated on the corner of Merritts and Piedmont, and is one of the nicest localities in the city, being convenient to two car lines and only a short walk to the center of the city. The arrangement is good and the prices very reasonable—$42.50 and 45.00.

Forrest & George Adair

WANTED!

Central or Semi-Central Rent Paying Property!

We have several cash customers with from $5,000 to $20,000 each to invest in high-grade investment properties, earning good interest. If you wish to exchange for spot cash, call or send us price and description of your property.

S. B. TURMAN & CO.

COME A-RUNNING

We have inside the city limits five beautiful elevated lots on a good graded street in West End. Price has been $500 each all along. The owner came in today and said, "Sell them—if you can't get $500 take $400; if you can't get $400 take $375; but they must all go in a lump."

W. E. WORLEY,

415 and 416 Empire Building.

WANTED

$1,400 on house and lot at 39 West End avenue, selling for $3,350. It's worth a great deal more. Will pay 8 per cent interest for 3 years. Titles good. Won't pay commission on loan, but will for examination of titles. Say, I want some good negro property. Have customers for more than I have. I am in a hurry.

CARL H. FISCHER

1114 4th National Bank Bldg.

Bell Phone 3860

BOSTOCK ARENA

"A DECIDED SUCCESS."

Director Bostock begs to express his appreciation of the enthusiastic reception extended his efforts to provide Greater Atlanta with a Winter Resort par excellence.

Opens Daily at 10 a. m. — Performances Afternoon and Evening

Admission 25c — Children 15c

EVERY SUNDAY: Animals on Exhibition. Sacred and Classical Band Concerts.

Notice to the Public

I am directed by the Trustees, Messrs. C. E. Currier, Robert J. Lowry and W. L. Peel, to state that all of the Clearing House Banks, viz.:

ATLANTA NATIONAL BANK,
LOWRY NATIONAL BANK,
FOURTH NATIONAL BANK,
MADDOX-RUCKER BANKING CO.,
THE NEAL BANK,
THIRD NATIONAL BANK,
CENTRAL BANK & TRUST CORPORATION, are provided with the signatures of all the Bank Officers, who signed the Atlanta Clearing House Association certificates.

These signatures may be verified by any one so desiring, on presentation at any Clearing House Bank.

DARWIN G. JONES, Manager.

VOTE TONIGHT FOR A COLONEL

Major E. E. Pomeroy Is Only Candidate for the Position.

The election of a colonel to succeed General Clifford A. Anderson, resigned, to take control of the state troops, will be held tonight at the armory, 57 1-2 East Alabama street, the polls being open from 8 to 10 o'clock. Major W. J. Preston and Lieutenant Paul Etheridge will act as superintendents.

There does not seem to be but one candidate in the field for the place, and that is Major E. E. Pomeroy, who has been a faithful member of the regiment for many years, having worked up to his present office from the lower ranks. He is one of the most popular men in the city, is councilman from his ward, and one of the best fitted attorneys here.

The fact that he has no opposition in itself is the greatest thing to demonstrate his popularity among the members of the regiment.

New Bank Soon Ready.

Covington, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The First National bank of Covington, capitalized at $40,000, and with Dr. N. Z. Anderson as president and Mr. Clarence Terrell cashier, will be ready for business some time in December. The new institution will be located in the Terrell building temporarily and later in the corner building on the west side of the public square now occupied by Dr. J. A. Wright's drug store. This latter building was a short time ago purchased as a permanent home for the bank.

QUAKE DESTROYS M'COLLOUGH PEAK

Four Hundred Foot Mountain Dwindles to Nothing.

San Francisco, November 8.—Captain Tilton, of the whaler Herman, which arrived today from the Arctic, reports that a terrific earthquake occurred at Unalaska about a month ago, and that McCulloch peak, which was created by an earthquake nearly a year ago, extended 400 feet above the sea, has dwindled to almost nothing as a result of submarine disturbances.

McCulloch peak resulted from a volcanic eruption in the Gogstov islands, and was discovered by officers of the United States revenue cutter McCulloch. The place was visited by Boston scientists, who recently reported that the peak was increasing in height. The earthquake shock which is believed to have caused its sudden shrinkage, was felt for miles around Bogostov islands and Unlaska, and at one place a wall of water was thrown up nearly 35 feet out of the sea.

Certificates Are Popular.

Covington, Ga., November 8.—(Special.)—The issuance of money certificates by the Atlanta Clearing House Association has been the source of much favorable comment throughout Newton county, the issuance enabling those farmers of moderate means to procure loans on cotton for the present, a thing they could not easily do a few days ago on account of the scarcity of money. Much of the money is in circulation in the county.

Special Notices.

EVANGELIST ALLEN WILSON

at the First Christian Church, Corner Pryor and Trinity. Subject for Saturday Night, "Jesus of Nazareth Passeth By." Sunday Morning, "The Lord's Supper." Afternoon, for Men Only, "A Living Dog." Night, "The Five Kingdoms."

PROF. LINTT AND LARGE CHOIR SING.

Meeting Every Night Except Monday

H. K. PENDLETON, Pastor

CLOCKS REPAIRED

All kinds—especially fine ones, I keep them in repair by the year. John W. Lively. Phone 582 West. Room 918, Temple Court.

THE GRAND

GRACE GEORGE

Will Present Matinee Today.

"DIVORCONS"

Tonight,

"SYLVIA OF THE LETTERS."

Night prices, 25c to $2.00. Matinee, 25c to $1.50.

Mon. and Tues. Next—Matinee Tues.

ROSE STAHL

Management Henry B. Harris, in

THE CHORUS LADY

A Comedy by James Forbes. Night 50c to $2; matinee, 25c to $1.50.

Wed'y and Thurs. next. Mat. Thurs.

GEO. M. COHAN'S

Musical Hit,

GEO. WASHINGTON, JR.

WITH CARTER DE HAVEN, FLORA PARKER AND A COHANESQUE CHORUS.

Night, 25c to $1.50. Mat., 25c to $1.

THE BIJOU

Tonight—Matinee Today.

CHAS. E. BLANEY BRINGS YOU

YOUNG BUFFALO

— IN —

KING OF THE WILD WEST

NEXT WEEK.

Matinees: Tues., Thurs. and Sat'y.

HANLON'S

SUPERBA

A bewildering pantomimic spectacle, beautiful ballets, sumptuous scenery. 50 people. Same Bijou prices.

The Orpheum

Best of Vaudeville. Banks Brazeale Duo, Daintiest of Musical Acts. Dunn and Francis, Character Comedy Sketch and six other feature acts.

Matinees every day except Monday. Phones: Bell 3146-M, Atlanta 764. Uptown ticket offices, Jacobs' Pharmacy, Kimball News Stand. Clearing House Certificates Good as Gold Here.

ATLANTA SCHOOL OF MILLINERY.

40 1-2 Whitehall Street.

Millinery taught in all its branches. Fall term now open. Write for information. Address

MISS ELIZABETH SAWTELL, Atlanta Ga.

MEN'S DISEASES

Varicocele, Hydrocele, Nervous Debility, Blood Poison, Stricture, Gleet and All Contracted Troubles Are Successfully Treated and Cured by Me. Consultation and examination free. Charges moderate. Call and see me about your case if you want reliable treatment with prompt and permanent results.

DR. J. THOMAS GAULT,

Suite 412, 413 and 414 Austell Bldg. (Fourth Floor), ATLANTA, GA.

Hourts, 9 to 1, 2 to 7. Sundays, 10 to 1 only.

MEN NERVE BEANS quickly cure Nervousness, all results of abuse, failing manhood, drains, losses. Married men and men intending to marry should take a box; astonishing results. Small weak parts and lost power restored. $1.00 at Brown & Allen, Druggists, 34 Whitehall st., Atlanta

FEDERAL COURT RECEIVES BLOW

Decision Against Carrying State Cases to Higher Courts.

New Orleans, La., November 8.—A decision unfavorable to the carrying of state cases into federal courts by large corporations was handed down today by United States Circuit Judge Saunders. He decided against the Cumberland Telephone Company, which had applied for an injunction against the state railroad commission to restrain the commission from fixing certain rates on cable tolls across the Mississippi river. Judge Saunders decided that the federal court had no jurisdiction over this rate.

BLED TO DEATH IN STABLE

Had Walked a Long Distance and Ruptured an Artery.

Eufaula, Ala., November 8.—(Special.)—William F. Studt, a strange white man, bled to death here last night in Lightfoot's stable, where he was given lodging.

Studt reached the city yesterday afternoon from Hedland, where he had been employed by W. S. Knowles as a caretaker, and walked the entire distance. He sought employment from Lightfoot, and being refused, begged a dollar and a night's lodging in the stable.

He retired early, and attracted attention about 9 o'clock by his groans. He was found bleeding from his leg, and a physician arrived too late to save him. It developed that he suffered from a cancerous sore, and the exercise is supposed to have ruptured an artery. An examination revealed that he has a mother, sister and brother, who reside in Richmond, Ind., and was a member of the order of Eagles, Shelbyville, Ind. His remains were taken in charge by Undertaker Dowling and embalmed and his relatives notified, but have not yet been heard from. He was about 50 years old, and unmarried.